Aggies Out Did 'Em; Only Won One Game

Even though the Aggie baseball team crossed the plate 13 more times and blasted 12 homers against Texas Christian over the weekend, they could only come up with one win in three starts.

In the first outing on Friday A&M fell, 11-10. Saturday's first game was a runaway for the Cadets as they bested the Froggies, 18-3, but the real marathon came in the third game that TCU won 18-17.

Center fielder Buddy Iles poked out a blooper single to score the winning run in Friday's game. A&M had jumped to an early 9-2 lead, but gave up five big runs in the sixth inning.

Saturday's outings weren't originally scheduled as a double header, but since an earlier game between the two teams had been rained out coaches Tom Chandler and Rabbit McDowell decided to play two.

In the first game Saturday the Aggies grabbed a quick lead that was never lost as Ed Singley stayed on the mound seven innings for the win. Although Singley walked nine batters, he also struck out nine. This was his strongest showing of the year since he has been out the major part of the year with an injury.

Bob Collins followed Singley with his second of three appearances in the series and finished the game allowing one hit and no runs.

The Cadets grabbed 22 hits in the game with Byron Barber leading the way with four hits for six times at the plate. Jack Singley, Barber, Ray Hall, Stuff Davis and Terry Cobb collected home runs.

In Saturday's second game it didn't take long for the Froggies to start avenging what had happened to them earlier in the day.

Chandler used four pitchers, starting with Collins who only lasted one-third of an inning. He gave up two hits and two runs while walking and fanning one. Mike Spence, Don Costlow, and Jerry Warren also made mound appearances.

Only three home runs were hit by the Aggies in the second game with Barber getting his second of the weekend with the bases loaded. Hall and Puckett accounted for the other round trippers of the day. Barber, Hall and Jack Singley had three hits each in the game.

Ag Golf Coach Takes Sixth At Houston

Henry Ransom, Aggie golf coach, proved that he could play just as well as he could teach last weekend in Houston as he finished the Houston Classic Golf Tournament with a 281 and a tie for sixth place.

Besides bringing home a purse of $1,650, Ransom tied for the best final round of the tourney with 32-35-67.

In 1951 Ransom played in the same tournament and finished with a tie for eighth place, but only won $415 that trip.

Since he has taken over coaching duties at A&M, Ransom produced a Southwest Conference champion last year and from the looks of things will head the loop again this year.

Although the Houston Classic ended in a tie between Jay Hebert and Ken Venturi on Sunday, they played it off yesterday with Hebert sinking an eight-foot putt on the first hole of a sudden death to take the win.

Hebert pocketed $7,000 top money in the $40,000 tourney.

Texas Tech Golfers Take SWC Victory From Baylor Bears

By The Associated Press LUBBOCK — Chris Blocker's five under par paced Texas Tech golfers to a 4½-1½ triumph over Baylor in a Southwest Conference match Monday.

Texas Tech traded its third place for the runner-up spot Baylor had occupied. The Raiders stand 15½-8½, Baylor 14-10.

Fish, Varsity Thinclads Take Wins in Houston

The Aggie tracksters won their second meet of the season last weekend in Houston as they swept past the Rice Owls and the SMU Mustangs. The Fish won the freshman division—their second of the year.

Coach Charlie Thomas' men scored 1-2-3 in the discus, the final event of the day, to put them ahead of Rice, 64½ to 56, while the favorites, SMU, wound up with 48½ points.

The Fish racked up 76½ points to 49 for the Owlets and 19½ for the Colts.

The varsity Cadets scored only four firsts in the meet, but managed to have the depth over the Owls and the Mustangs.

In the freshman division, the Fish placed seven men in the top position out of the 14 events. Two major upsets in this division were R. E. Merritt's second place in the 440-yard run and the Fish's finishing second in the mile relay to SMU.

Curtis Roberts sped to a 9.6 timing in winning the 100-yard dash over such stars as Taylor Jones and Mickey Hollingshead, both of Rice.

In the shot put and discus, the Aggies won the first three places in each. Terry Robinson won the discus with a heave of 145-6½, with Charlie Tiemann and Ed Swann placing behind him. Tiemann won the shot with a put of 49-5½, with Charles Hoppe and Swann placing second and third.

Three Fish were among the few double winners at the meet—Pat Mitchell in the sprints, Danny Roberts in the weights and Thomas Burns in the hurdles.

Mitchell fled to a 9.7 in the century and a 20.9 in the furlong. Roberts got off his best put of the season in his 54-1 effort and hurled the discus an impressive 151-9½ to also better his personal collegiate mark. Burns jumped the 120-yard timbers with a clocking of 15.0 and the 220-yard hurdles in 24.1.

In the varsity division high jump, the Cadets dominated the top spots with Ikey Frazer, James Daniel and Don Deaver tying for first at 6-0.

Mitchell was the top scorer in the freshman division as he won both sprints, and ran legs on the winning 440-yard relay and second place mile relay teams.

Rice's Fred Hansen, a sophomore, was the high scorer in the varsity division as he capped the pole vault and broad jump and grabbed off fourth place in the javelin throw.

It was a windy day in Houston, but the gales helped the sprinters as Curtis Roberts will agree. He ran his best time of the year in the 220, 20.7, only to finish third behind Hollingshead and Jones of Rice who were both clocked in a tremendous time of 20.5.

Injury Riddled TU Tracksters

By The Associated Press AUSTIN — University of Texas track and field coach Clyde Littlefield is fast emptying his bench because of injuries.

Wednesday, Randy Curson and Wayne Porter, mile relay team members out with leg injuries, will board a train with the eight-man Longhorn squad to the Drake Relays in Des Moines, Iowa Friday and Saturday.

Last week, hurdlers Ray Cunningham and Rex Wilson came back from injuries to run in the Kansas Relays.

Texas entries for the Drake meet are Capt. Ralph Alspaugh, 100-yard dash and mile relay; Jim Allison, shot put and discus; Jim Smith, javelin; Cunningham, high hurdles; Curson, Porter and Don Issett, mile relay, and Rex Wilson, hurdles and mile relay alternate.
