

Eight Awarded Honors At Roundup

Eight students received honors last night during the annual Spring Round-Up and Awards Night conducted by the Department of Agricultural Economics and Sociology.

Dr. Tyrus R. Timm, head of the department, presented awards to the following students:

Ben E. Dickerson of Houston, the J. Wheeler Barger Award; William H. Harrison of Columbus, the Banker's School Award; Robert L. Pfluger of Pflugerville, Wall Street Journal Student Achievement Award; Frank G. Boyle of Port Arthur, Department Head's Award;

Donald R. Henderson of Jacksboro, Rural Sociology Award (Junior); Leo Rigby of Canyon, Rural Sociology Award (Senior); Bobby Quisenberry of Quana, desk set as the department's outstanding sophomore; Robert N. McGuire, Jr., of Deerfield, Ill., desk set as the department's outstanding freshman.

The program also included a talk on "Big Thicket Philosophy" by Bob Murphy, former district attorney at Nacogdoches.

The J. Wheeler Barger Award is presented annually to the top graduating senior in the department. Selection is based on scholastic performance, leadership, character, personality, activities, public speaking and publications.

The award is in memory of J. Wheeler Barger, who served for 26 years in the department. Recipients are presented a certificate and their names are placed on a permanent plaque in the department.
