

Army - AF Prepare For 12th Man Bowl

After one idle year, the Aggie traditional Twelfth Man Football Bowl is coming up again on Kyle Field, the night of May 12.

The event was not held last year because of one major reason—there wasn't an open date.

The Twelfth Man Bowl is for the benefit of those men who have not participated in any college football and are interested in playing the game.

Thus far, there has been tremendous desire built up around the campus on this event and over 60 players are now going through the third week of workouts.

The game is a dog-fight between the Army and the Air Force which in itself is a big rivalry. This is one way of finding out which one is superior. The Army won the match in 1959 over the highly favored Air Force squad.

Coaches for the Twelfth Man Bowl are players from Coach Jim Myers' team. The tutors for the Air Force are Jon Few and Eddie Van Dyke in the backfield and Bobby Phillips and Carter Franklin in the line.

Mentors for the Army are Teddy Jack Estes, Bob Caskey and Larry Broadus in the backfield and Paul Piper, Joe Bob Johnson and Ralph Smith in the line.

Proceeds from the game will go to the Student Senate.

Shorthorn Fans ... one of Beller's victims

Fish Whip 'Sips, 5-1

If there is any one thing that makes an Aggie happy it is to beat the University of Texas in anything and that is just what the Fish baseball team did yesterday on Kyle Field when they downed the Shorthorns 5-1.

Now after playing nine games the Freshmen are boasting an impressive record of nine straight wins with no defeats.

The Aggies scored five runs on seven hits while the Shorthorns only managed one run on eight hits. Leading the column of hits for the Fish was shortstop David Johnson with two hits for four times at the plate.

Richard Beller, the winning pitcher for the Freshmen, accounted for the only home run of the game when he blasted one over the right-center field fence driving in Jerry Gunter. Gunter and Beller each scored two runs apiece, Gunter's coming in the sixth and eighth innings and Beller collecting his in the fifth and sixth.

Johnny Crain came in to relieve Beller in the ninth and went on to finish the game in fine style.

Charles Hartenstein and Robert Madlock combined their pitching arms for the Shorthorns to strike out 17 Aggies. Donnie Pounds scored the Sips' only run when Folsom Bell singled to left.

Roger Grochett, second baseman for the Fish, scored his single run in the fifth inning. Grochett also had a good day in the field along with third sacker Bill Hancock when he tagged Pounds who got caught between second and third.

Beller saved the day in the fourth when the Shorthorns had the bases loaded with no outs and he retired the side giving up no runs.

As the Freshmen expected, Texas was their toughest opponent so far this year. The two clubs will meet again in their final game of the season when the Fish travel to Austin on May 13.

The next game for the Fish will be this Saturday on Kyle Field when they meet the Baylor Cubs.

Aggies Alley

The A&M match bowling team clinched the championship of the Gulf Coast Collegiate at its final meeting last Saturday in Houston. The Aggies nosed out the University of Houston by one game in the last match. Going into the first match of the day one game behind U of H, the Aggies took three of four from Sam Houston State Teachers College, while the Cougars were taking four from the University of St. Thomas. In the last match, the Aggies had to win four from St. Thomas and U of H had to lose two to Sam Houston in order for the Aggies to tie. The Aggies came through and won their four and Sam Houston took three from U of H to give the Aggies the title.

Leading A&M to their first match victory over Sam Houston was freshman journalism major from Amarillo Jim Butler who shot a 225-553. Al Rainosek was a success in his debut with the match team as he led them in their crucial sweep of St. Thomas with a fine 591 series. Jim Butler contributed a 536 and Chuck Haynes a 535.

In its first year in existence, the GCCC had a very close race that went down to the last game of the last match and some very fine scores shot showing the high caliber of bowling in the colleges and universities of Texas. Some of the scores would stand up in the top leagues in the country. An example of this is Aggie Chuck Haynes' near-perfect game of 299 and his tremendous 701 series. Also the high team game of 1034 by Sam Houston and the high team series of 2898 by A&M are very respectable scores that would give any team a run for its money. High average in the league, 186, ended in a tie between Chuck Haynes of A&M, David Maxwell of Sam Houston State, and Jerry Marburger of the University of Houston. Jim Butler of A&M and Ken Barrett of U of H were close with 184.

This year the league bowled six 2-match sessions due to its late start. These matches were bowled at the MSC Lanes, Center Lanes in Huntsville, the Recreation Palace and the O.S.T. Lanes in Houston. As no trophy funds were collected this year, the league gave only one trophy which was donated by Fred Magee of Houston. This trophy can be seen in the showcase at the MSC Bowling Lanes.

how to lose your head!

The best way to lose your head is to use your head by using 'Vaseline' Hair Tonic on it. Most men use water with their hair tonic — and 'Vaseline' Hair Tonic is specially made to use with water! The 100% pure grooming oil in 'Vaseline' Hair Tonic replaces the oil that water removes from your hair. So to lose your head, keep your head well-groomed with 'Vaseline' Hair Tonic! And remember, just a little does a lot!

LUCKY STRIKE PRESENTS: DEAR DR. FROOD!

DR. FROOD'S THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: BEWARE OF SUBLIMINAL ADVERTISING!

Dear Dr. Frood: I've been reading a great deal about automated teaching devices. How long will it be before they come up with machines to replace professors?
Professor

DEAR PROFESSOR: Just as soon as they get one that can rap the knuckles of a sleeping student, give humiliating answers to foolish questions and spring surprise tests whenever it happens to be in a bad mood.

Dear Dr. Frood: My problem is fat, stubby fingers. As a result, I am exceedingly awkward with my hands. My manual dexterity is so poor, in fact, that I can't even get a Lucky pack open. What can I do?
Fingers

DEAR FINGERS: Simply strap ordinary sewing needles along both of your index fingers. Now cup the Lucky pack in your hands, grasp the little red tab in your teeth, and yank. Next, place the pack on a flat surface and secure it between two unabridged dictionaries. Then, with the right-hand needle, carefully, carefully carve a one-inch-square opening at the top right-hand corner. Finally, place the points of the needles firmly against the sides of a Lucky and lift. That's all there is to it. A word of warning though: Try to be careful when shaking hands.

Dear Dr. Frood: In the four years I've been at this college I've done some pretty horrible things. I am guilty, for instance, of [redacted] into and around the home of Professor [redacted]. I'm also ashamed of [redacted] the Board of Regents, and completely [redacted] the campus policeman's [redacted]. But the worst thing I did was [redacted] after hiding all night in the [redacted]. Can I, in good conscience, even accept a diploma from dear old [redacted]?

DEAR [redacted]: You can if you send $500 in unmarked bills to Dr. Frood, Box 2990, Grand Central Station, New York 17, N. Y. If you don't, I'll print your letter without the little black lines.

Dear Dr. Frood: Don't you think it's wrong for a boy and girl to marry while they're still in school?
Soc. Major

DEAR SOC.: Yes, they should at least wait until recess.

THE HANDWRITING IS ON THE WALL, says Dr. Frood. Or, more exactly, on the blackboard. It's appearing on college blackboards everywhere: "College students smoke more Luckies than any other regular." Why is this statement showing up on college blackboards? Because I am paying agents to put it there. For you must remember that Luckies are the cigarette with taste—the emphatic toasted taste. Try a pack of Luckies today.
