Twelfth Man Bowl Coaches Get Players Ready For Game

As the final week of workout nears, the Twelfth Man Bowl coaches are hurrying to whip their boys into shape.

The middle of the line is being coached by Piper and Johnson while Smith is handling the chores at the ends.

"The problem of not enough time is bothering us, too." On both teams the players seem to be enjoying the contact even though the weather is getting rather warm and the tongue lashings have been coming often.

Schoolboy Tracksters Move Into Austin For State Meet

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF AUSTIN — (AP) — Almost 800 schoolboy tracksters move into Austin Friday for the Texas Inter-scholastic League meet.

Nelson, who recently set a national 440-yard record of 46.5 and equalled the national 220-yard mark of 20.6, spearheads an Andrews team that's overwhelmingly favored to win the Class AAA championship for the fifth time.

Foster is figured for three first places with prospects of records in each but his individual efforts aren't likely to give his team the championship.

Foster comes here with a time of 9.5 in the 100, 20.7 in the 220 dash and 180-yard low hurdles. and a broad jump of 24 feet 10 1/2 inches.

Andrews, with its great Nelson; a record-smashing mile relay outfit, and a record potential in the discus throw in Robert Sandlin, who has hurled the plate 177 feet 3 1/2 inches, almost 15 feet over the record, should take the AAA title with comparative ease.

Record-Smasher

A certain record-smashed appears to be Warren Bratloff of Galena Park in the pole vault of the Class AAAA division.

Great Relay Teams

Class AA could go to Fort Stockton because it has the top relay teams, a leading 100-yard dash man in Ronney Conner and a top 440-yard runner in Danny Valenzuela.

Pitching has been one of the major questions on the Aggie team since the start of the season but Bob Collins showed sparkling "stuff" in his win over the Mustangs last Friday, 8-0.

Singley Recovered

Ed Singley is fully recovered from a midseason injury—a pulled rib muscle—and should deal opponents misery during the last games of the schedule.
