

The characters and lives of men determine the peace, prosperity, and life of nations.—Mary Baker Eddy

EVERY COLLEGE STUDENT needs this book to increase his ability to learn

An understanding of the truth contained in Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy can remove the pressure which concerns today's college student upon whom increasing demands are being made for academic excellence.

Christian Science calms fear and gives to the student the full assurance he needs in order to learn easily and to evaluate what he has learned. It teaches that God is man's Mind—his only Mind—from which emanates all the intelligence he needs, when and as he needs it.

Science and Health, the textbook of Christian Science, may be read or examined, together with the Bible, in an atmosphere of quiet and peace, at any Christian Science Reading Room. Information about Science and Health may also be obtained on campus through the

Raba Tops Annual ASCE Honor Winners

One hundred and fifteen persons attended the recent J. T. L. McNew Student Chapter, American Society of Civil Engineers, Annual Spring Social and Awards Night.

A. C. Johnson was chairman of the social committee and Robert Olson served as master of ceremonies for the evening. Scholarships in Civil Engineering for the academic year 1961-62 were announced by Dr. S. R. Wright, Head of the Department of Civil Engineering.

Ronald Tolson of Houston was the recipient of an Asphalt Institute Fellowship. Carl F. Raba, Jr., of San Antonio was awarded a graduate Teaching Assistantship. Wright said that additional announcements would be made in the future concerning other scholarships.

Next, Wayne Dunlap, President of the Brazos County Branch, ASCE, presented the Honor Senior Student Award to Raba. He then presented the Student Paper Contest Awards from the Brazos County Branch, ASCE. For first place, Raba, second to James W. Cravens and third to John Minor. Ronald Zunker was also awarded Honorable Mention.

The awards program was concluded when Raba, President of the Student Chapter, made an Honorary Membership Award presentation to Dr. Ed Harrington. The award was for his outstanding service as a Professor of Civil Engineering, faculty member of the student chapter, friend and advisor to the students.

Conservation Award Won By Texas Aggie

Charles D. Berry, left, junior plant and soil science major has been named winner of the Ray E. Dickerson Soil Conservation Scholarship for 1961-62. The award is based on interest in soil and water conservation and need. Congratulating Berry is Dr. G. M. Watkins, director of agricultural instruction. Dickson was superintendent of the Spur Experiment Station for many years and was widely known for his conservation work.

OTHER PLANS FORMULATED

Stuhrenburg Named Fall Agronomy Society Prexy

William Stuhrenburg, junior agronomy major from Palacios, has been elected president of the Agronomy Society.

Other officers elected for the fall semester of the 1961-62 school term are George Alston, vice-president; Charles Batte, secretary; James Hill, treasurer; Charles Schwertner, reporter, and Zane Richburg, parliamentarian.

Frank Hall was elected social secretary for the society. He will serve in this capacity the entire school year and be in charge of the 1962 Cotton Pageant and Ball. His assistant will be Frederick Miller, sophomore agronomy major from College Station.

Elected to represent the Agronomy Society in the Agriculture Council was Charles Berry, junior from Jacksboro.

Dr. H. E. Hampton, professor of agronomy, was selected faculty advisor for the society for the 1961-62 school year. He also was given the honorary title of "garcon" or chief coffee maker for all society meetings.

Stuhrenburg has been very active in agronomy work. This year he was a member of King Cotton and his Court in the Cotton Pageant, worked on the soils judging team and has served as an officer in the society.

In addition to the election of officers at the May 16 meeting, the society made plans to again sponsor the baggage storage facilities in Walton Hall and Dorm 3 for the summer. During final week, a member of the society will be at each place to take up baggage from 11-12 a. m. and 4-5 p. m. Monday the Agronomy Society will have their annual bar-b-que in Hensel Park. Tickets are $1 for adults and 50¢ for children and may be bought at the Department of Agronomy from Bruce Brodnax, committee chairman for the bar-b-que.

YMCA Cabinet Names James Crouch President

James Crouch of Gladewater has been named president of the YMCA Cabinet officers for the school year 1961-62. Crouch is a member of the Singing Cadets, member of the YMCA Advisory Board and active in the Civilian Student Council.

D. Scott Brown of Mansfield, La., was elected vice-president. He will represent the YMCA on the Student Senate and a member of the Freshman Camp Committee.

Jack Paris of San Antonio is senior representative. Don Willis of Dallas is junior representative. He is a member of the Freshman Camp Committee. Lex Ray of Houston is sophomore representative. Crouch and Paul Smith of Uvalde will represent the Cabinet on the Advisory Board. Ronald Haley of Colorado City

Robert Giesecke Wins Bolton Award

Robert Lee Giesecke, a graduating senior, BS in electrical engineering, has been awarded the Bolton Award.

He is the son of Mrs. Ethel Giesecke of West Columbia and a graduate of the West Columbia high school, Class of 1949.

The Bolton Award, established in 1957, is presented annually to the outstanding electrical engineering student. The award is provided by an endowed fund established by former students and friends of the late President Emeritus of the College, Dr. F. C. Bolton.

Giesecke received his BS degree in mechanical engineering at A&M in 1953. He was a first lieutenant, Ordnance Corps, US Army, 1954-57. He is chairman of the student branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers and the Institute of Radio Engineers.

The awards, a $100 check and an engraved gold watch, was presented to Giesecke by Dr. G. D. Hallmark, Head of the Department of Electrical Engineering, at a ceremony in Bolton Hall.
