)RA

Inc.

ELED

as Merit

lusi

mbers

Gen. Frederic H. Smith, Jr. ... named commissioning speaker

Dance, Banquet Highlight Next To Last Weekend

Six Girls Named For Vanity Fair

Another of the year's weekends went down on record Friday through Sunday, with the Student Publications Banquet, selection of Vanity Fair ladies, and the Senior Ring Dance featured as highlights.

During the Student Publications banquet held Friday night in the Ballroom of the Memorial Student Center, Vanity Fair winners were selected, and all outgoing editors of the various magazines and newspaper of the college were presented watches; other awards were also presented to outstanding faculty and staff members.

Outgoing editors include Joseph Smith, Southwestern Veterinarian; Walter Willms, the Agriculturalist; Paul York,

The Engineer: Jim Gihson, gieland, and Johnny Johnson, summer editor of The Battalion, Vanity Fair winners included Mrs. Linda Ann Murphy, escorted by Charles C. Murphy; Mrs. Joanna J. Hudson, escorted by Billy Bob Hudson; Mrs. Novie Jo Dunlap, escorted by Alvin W. Dunlap; Mrs. Lola Huitt, escorted by be awarded at 9 a.m. and gold Silver and one Bronze Oak Leaf Commencement Address, Andrew Larry Huitt; Miss Lasca Butler, rs will be distributed at 3:15 Cluster and the American Campaign Medal.

Commencement Address, Andrew escorted by Vernon Yanta, and Miss Eleanor Flynn, escorted by Dougles F. Olbirch.

John N. Harrington, senior libree in Europe, will deliver the His wife is the former Miss Martha "The Spirit of Aggierand," grad- eral arts major from College Staumissioning address and present King, daughter of the late Fleet uates and audience, led by Ed- tion, was named winner of the Babcock Essay Contest for his Smith was born at Fort Mon- Smith have three sons, Frederic, Benediction, Robert J. Laird, prize winning essay, "Educational Assets I Find at Texas A&M." the United States Military Dr. Andrew D. Holt, president of Recession, "Largo," Mrs. W. L. The first prize was $250; nine runners up were presented certificates Following is the schedule for of merit by C. L. Babcock of Beau-

Another award presented during the evening was to The Battalion rps Primary and Advanced Fly- known educator. He hold a bach- Remarks, Earl Rudder, president, for being first place winner in the annual safety edition contest, sponeld, Tex. After receiving his sity and master's and doctor's de- Commissioning address, Gen. sored by Lumberman's Mutual Casmgs he was transferred to the grees from Columbia University. Frederic H. Smith, commander-in- ualty Co. Hicklin, outgoing editor my Air Corps in December, He joined the University of Ten-chief, United States Air Force in of The Battalion and president of the A&M Press Club, received the award for the staff.

> For outstanding faculty and Star Spangled BBanner, audi- The Battalion presented special awards to Jimmy Nuche, J. Gordon Gay, Lt. Col. Robert E. Burns, Cadet Col. of the Corps Syd Heaton, Roland Dommert, and Dorsey Annual Faculty McCrory, assistant to the presi-

Festivities for the Class of '61 officially began Saturday evening at six with the annual Senior Banquet in Duncan Dining Hall. Guest This Afternoon speaker for the banquet was Col. Henry Dittman, United States Air The Former Student Awards for Force, presently stationed in Paris, Distinguished Faculty Achieve- France. ment were made this afternoon at

Following the banquet, the Senstaff meeting held at 4 p.m. in jor Ring Dance began at 8 p.m. in Sbisa Hall, featuring the music of year was an award of $1,000 hon- Buddy Morrow and his versatile oring the faculty member who was "Night Train" orchestra.

Six Vanity Fair Winners . (from left) Mrs. Joanna J. Hutson, Mrs. lap, Miss Lasca Butler, Mrs. Linda Ann Lola Huitt, Aggie Sweetheart Louise Kue- Murphy.

Seniors Celebrate At Ring Dance ... Cadet Col. of the Corps Syd Heaton shows the way

Graduation Day Nears L. Hicklin, The Battalion; Richard McGaughy, The Aggieland, and Johnny Johnson

, Va., June 30, 1908. He attend- James and Janvier. advated a second lieutenant of commencement speaker. eld Artillery June 13, 1929.

Commendation Ribbon, Army, al, regional and state honors. mmander of British Empire | Following is the schedule for the edal, American Defense Service commencement ceremonies: ledal, European-African-Middle Mrs. W. L. Guthrie, organist. stern Campaign Medal, World

Three Teachers Win Awards t Consolidated

warded a $100 U.S. Defense Bond each of three teachers in the A&M Consolidated School System a special banquet held at 7 p.m. st night in the Triangle Restau-

The three teachers who received e awards are Mrs. Christine Duney, grade school; Mrs. Margaret erth, junior high school; and C. Morgan, senior high school. ne teacher was chosen from each evel of the school system.

Commencement and commission- | War 11 Victory Medal, Philippine Greetings, M. T. Harrington, ceremonies will be held in G. Liberation Ribbon, National De- chancellor, A&M College System. ollie White Coliseum, Saturday fense Service Medal, Air Force Introduction of Speaker, Earl rover 900 graduates. Diplomas Longevity Service Award with one Rudder, president, A&M College. paign Medal. Tennessee.

Gen. Frederic H. Smith, Jr., com-Smith is the son of the late Maj. Conferring of Degrees, Earl Rud-ander-in-chief, United States Air Gen. and Mrs. Frederic H. Smith. der, president, A&M College. Adm. Ernest King. Gen. and Mrs. ward A. Todd.

ademy at West Point and was the University of Tennessee is the Guthrie, organist.

Corps Chaplain.

Organist, Mrs. Harriet Guthrie.

Awards Issued

Presented for the first time this outstanding in his meritorious service in the areas of extension

Supported by the Association of Former Students, the new extension service award will bring the Holt has served in virtually every commissioning exercises: lis first assignment was that capacity of the educational pro- Invocation, Robert J. Laird, a student officer at the Air fession. He is an internationally Corps Chaplain. Schools at Brooks and Kelly elor's degree from Emory Univer- A&M College.

0. His first Air Corps assign- nessee staff in 1950 and has served Europe. nt was at France Field, Pan- as president since 1959. He was Administration of Oath of Ofpresident of the National Educa- fice, Maj. Flavius F. Drake. Smith has served in practically tion Association 1949-50. He was Presentation of Commissions, was named to his present post. | to the World Organization of the His decoration include, Disting- Teaching Profession at Berne, ence. shed Service Medal, Oak Leaf Switzerland, in 1949. He has reluster, Legion of Merit, Air Med- ceived many international, nation-

edal, Aisatic Pacific Campaign | Procession, "Air For G String,"

Invocation, Barney Stumbo, Civilian Chaplain.

Presentation of Development Fund Gift, James W. Aston, president of the Association of Former Students.

Greetings, Eugene Darby, president, Board of Directors, A&M the annual spring faculty and College System.

Two More Batts Left In Semester

Only two more issues of The Battalion will be published before the end of the semester.

Issues will be published this Thursday and the following Thursday, June 1.

Thursday's Battalion. The achievement awards were > whose identity remains secret. :15 areas.

Honor Code Proposed

number of yearly awards to seven. Based on the axiom, "An Aggie | The code is designed to be en- | The accusor's unit commander upon the cadet; a third violation Other $1,000 awards presented at the meeting included four given erate those who do," groundwork honor council, consisting of four unit commanders would be membeing dismissed from school. in the field of teaching, one for is being laid for an active honor seniors either appointed or elected bers ex-officio of the Honor Counindividual student relationships and one for research. Names of the faculty members who received year, according to Gary Lively, ceive a distinctive ribbon or cord, sibility to report the violation of dormitory counselors taking the these awards will be published in Corps Intelligence Sergeant.

After careful re-examinations nized as an honor to receive, and revisions of past efforts to esestablished in 1955 by the associaawards are submitted by both fac- Lively.

"I believe we have something exemplified manner: ulty and students, and selections are made by a faculty committee that will work; it may take it a successful," he said.

does not lie, cheat or steal or tol- forced at the highest level by an would also receive the name. All would be met with the violators code to be initiated at A&M next to the post. These men would re- cil, and it would be their respon- pattern would be followed, with and the position would be recog- the Honor Code.

in the classroom, but applicable to or Council; the accusor's company would go through administrative tion through the College Develop- work for a possibly more success- other circumstances where breach commander would check to see that channels to the Dean of Students ment Fund. Nominations for the ful plan has been designed, said of honor would be involved, the the name was turned in. Then, the and the Commandant, said Lively. code would work in the following accused's company commander At the first of the Fall Semesfew years to be perfected, but we If a cadet saw another cadet and no more action would be taken Air Force cadets, will speak to J. B. Hervey, executive secre- have heard most of the tentative cheating on an exam, he would in- for the first offense. tary of the association, said that first sergeants and company com- form the guilty party of his obser- However, on the second offense, plain exactly what the honor code the awards are designed to illum- manders voice their opinions in vation, and give the guilty one an the accused would have to go be- is, and how it will work to formuinate distinguished work in all favor of it, and it should be pretty opportunity to turn himself in to fore the Honor Council, and more late good for the school, said Livehis company commander.

Designed to function primarily would report his name to the Hon-pelled for dishonesty, his case would talk with the guilty cadet, ter, 1961, a committe composed of place of unit commanders.

The accused's unit commander Before any student would be ex-inform him of the proceedings, six seniors, three Army and three each cadet unit individually, to exstrict measures would be imposed ly.

Schedule

		Xan
	D
	Date
	May 29,	Monday
	May 29,	Monday
	May 30,	Tuesday
	May 30,	Tuesday
	May 31,	Wednesday
	May 31,	Wednesday
	June 1,	Thursday
	June 1,	Thursday
ı	June 2,	Friday
ı	June 2,	Friday
	,	The state of the s

Date	Hours			Series
y 29, Monday y 29, Monday y 30, Tuesday y 31, Wednesday y 31, Wednesday e 1, Thursday e 1, Thursday e 2, Friday e 2, Friday	8-11 a.m. 1- 4 p.m. 8-11 a.m. 1- 4 p.m.	Classes Classes Classes Classes Classes Classes Classes Classes Classes	meeting meeting meeting meeting meeting meeting meeting meeting meeting	MWF8 TTh8F1 MWF9 MWTh1 MWF10 TF1 or TF1-: M3TTh10 MWTh2 MWF11 M4TTh11