

WELCOME TO THE

YOUR MEMORIALS

OFFERS YOU the following non-profit activities, operated by Students for students . . .

BOWLING . . .

Sponsor of A&M's official bowling team, this committee promotes bowling tournaments among A&M students and with other colleges and universities. A&M bowlers, through the sponsorship of this committee, participate in a national bowling contest operated by the Association of College Unions and the American Bowling Congress. Last year a member of this committee participated in the National Collegiate Bowling Roll-Off in Detroit. Students who wish to learn to bowl, "duffer bowlers", and skilled bowlers participate in this organization and compete with each other weekly. This committee, during the Spring of 1962, will sponsor the Eleventh Annual Intercollegiate Bowling Tournament.
Chairman: Chuck Haynes.

BRIDGE . . .

convenes weekly to play bridge and discuss plays. Beginners are always welcome. Sponsors annual Invitational Bridge Tournament in the Spring for competition among colleges in the Southwest.
Chairman: John W. (Johnny) Johnson.

BROWSING LIBRARY . . .

is in charge of selecting periodicals and books placed in the MSC library and determining policy for its use.

CAMERA CLUB . . .

The Camera Committee, with its fully equipped darkrooms, brings outstanding photo exhibits to the MSC, sponsors several club contests, and sponsors the Annual A&M Photo Salon for competition among colleges in the Southwest.
Chairman: James W. (Bill) Moore.

CHESS . . .

Meets bi-monthly for instructional purposes, to play chess, and is planning competition with the chess clubs of several other colleges in the Texas Area.
Co-Chairman: Ray Moore and Gary M. Simms.

DANCE . . .

sponsors instruction in all types of ballroom dancing and numerous dances during the year, including the famous Aggie version of a French nightclub, "Cafe Rue Pinalle". Registration for Dance Classes will begin Tuesday, Sept. 27 in the Ballroom.
Chairman: Jimmy Fadal.

EVALUATION . . .

studies the various MSC activity committees in order to help make the MSC student program as effective as possible in accomplishing its aim to serve the students of A&M.
Chairman: Ronny Hampton.

PAN-AMERICAN WEEK COMMITTEE . . .

An organization composed of both Latin American and American students, which plans the festivities held annually during Pan-American Week.

FLYING CADETS . . .

Organized for all students on the campus who are interested in flying. Members who do not fly, but are interested in aeronautics, are welcome. This organization hosted the Thirteenth Annual National Intercollegiate Flying Meet in the Spring of 1961.
Chairman: Robert K. (Bob) Wright.

GREAT ISSUES . . .

presents annually by group of internationally and nationally known speakers, discussing topics of interest to the student body, college staff and community. Presentations sponsored by this committee are open to all students who have paid their student activity fee. Community and college staff may purchase tickets in the MSC building cashier's window.
Chairman: Donovan Kirkpatrick.

TABLE TENNIS . . .

Meets weekly to play table tennis and to plan local and intercollegiate tournament.
Chairman: Jimmy Scott.

INTERCOLLEGIATE TALENT SHOW . . .

Produces the annual Aggie Talent Show, as well as the nation's largest Intercollegiate Talent Show, which will be held on the night of March 9, 1962, featuring the best college talent from a four-state area.
Chairman: John Betts.

IN ADDITION the following Services Are

- * FOUNTAIN ROOM
All the Soda Fountain items, snack, shortorders, sandwiches and cafeteria services.
- * GIFT SHOP
All the "Aggie" items, gifts for all occasions, one of the largest selections of tobaccos, pipes and accessories.
- * BOWLING AND TABLE TENNIS
Just as the name implies. New fully automatic Brunswick Pinsetters.
- * DINING ROOM
For the special dining occasions.
- * BARBER SHOP
Eight chairs and shine services.

The Memorial Student Center Activities Program Is Supported Through Student Fees, Donations And The MSC Businesses.