

2 San Antonio Linemen Named Ag Co-Captains

Two big linemen from San Antonio, Wayne Freiling and Wayland Simmons, have been chosen by their teammates as captain and co-captain, respectively, of Coach Jim Myers' 1961 edition of the Aggies.

Freiling, a guard, and Simmons, a tackle, have been teammates since high school days at San Antonio's Thomas A. Edison High School.

They were elected to their captaincy positions Sunday by their teammates after the completion of two days of workouts.

Both gridsters, known by their teammates as the "San Antonio Twins," are two-year lettermen and have been starters in most games since the middle of their sophomore year.

Baylor's Bruins Expected In Cotton Bowl New Year's

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Baylor's football team and thousands of Baptists will be in Dallas next New Year's Day. It won't be to celebrate the coming of 1962. It will be to have a high-heeled time in the Cotton Bowl.

Which means Baylor will win the Southwest Conference football championship after 36 years of frustration, the likes of which college athletics have never seen on any other campus.

As far as is known, the law of averages hasn't been repealed despite what suffering Baylor followers may think. The average will be mighty high for Baylor, 34 to 1—or rather 1 to 34. Two years Baylor didn't have football.

Most everybody will be happy about it, even Baylor's foes on the gridiron. It's heart-breaking to look at those folks with the haunted eyes, with not a glimmer of hope.

Baylor won't be the consensus choice for the championship. Texas or Rice will have that somewhat unenviable spot. This despite the fact that Baylor will have 22 lettermen, of which 10 are backs and four of whom will comprise one of the finest backfields in the country.

The line should be quite adequate. Despite Baylor's usual wait that it isn't deep enough in the forward wall, thus refuting the Baptist song of football "That Good Old Baylor Line," the men up front appear numerous enough and big enough to get the job done.

Strongest In History

The conference as a whole will be about the strongest in history. There will be 167 lettermen at the eight schools, meaning an average of almost 21. Texas Tech has the fewest and there are 16 numeral men at the South Plains school. A&M boasts 26, Southern Methodist 23, Baylor and Rice 22 each, Texas 21, Arkansas 19 and Texas Christian 18.

There are more top backs, more fellows capable of competing for All-America honors, than any time in memory. This means Baylor will be facing teams that like itself will be improved. But it's a fitting year for the Baptists to come riding out of the wilderness—they can and they did it when the going was the toughest.

Center Jerry Hopkins, a junior from Mart, is the only Aggie on the 1961 pre-season All-Southwest Conference team selected recently by the editors of "Texas Football" magazine.

The "dream team," dubbed one of the finest in recent years, is headed by Baylor's all-purpose, all-America candidate, halfback Ronnie Bull.

The team is composed of three members of Baylor's Bears, two each from Rice and Arkansas, and one each from A&M, Texas, TCU and SMU.

The Aggies' Hopkins was named to the center position over David Kristynik of Texas, Bill Hicks of Baylor and Jerry Lineberger of Arkansas.

He was described as "a sure-tackling linebacker who beat out a senior and team captain as a soph and will now, as a junior, anchor what one rival coach calls the best defensive line in the conference.

Aggies named to the second team and honorable mention list by the magazine editors were junior guard Bull Phillips, second team, and end Russell Hill, tackle Joe Eilers, guard Wayne Freiling, and backs Sam Byer and Lee Roy Caffey, honorable mention.

The pre-season cream of the crop:

FIRST TEAM
Ends: Johnny Burrell, Rice; Bob Lane, Baylor.
Tackles: Bobby Plummer, TCU; John Cornett, Rice.

SECOND TEAM
Ends: Jimmy Collier, Arkansas; Buddy Iles, TCU.
Tackles: Robert Johnston, Rice; Don Talbert, Texas.
Guards: Bull Phillips, A&M; Herby Adkins, Baylor.
Center: David Kristynik, Texas.
Backs: George McKinney, Arkansas; Ronnie Goodwin, Baylor; Jerry Cook, Texas; Roland Jackson, Rice.

HONORABLE MENTION
Ends: Gene Raesz, Rice; Bob Moses, Texas; Buddy Fuhs, Texas; Lynn Morrison, TCU; Russell Hill, A&M.
Tackles: Joe Eilers, A&M; Larry Mullins, Tech; John Childress, Arkansas; George Karam, Rice; John Frongillo, Baylor.
Guards: Marvin Kubin, Texas; Ray Pinion, TCU; Danny Brabham, Arkansas; Larry Anthony, Rice; Wayne Freiling, A&M.
Centers: Bill Hicks, Baylor; Jerry Lineberger, Arkansas.
Backs: Ronnie Stanley, Baylor; Mike Cotten, Texas; Jack Collins, Texas; Sonny Gibbs, TCU; Lee Roy Caffey, A&M; Bake Turner, Tech; Coolidge Hunt, Tech; Billy Moore, Arkansas; Sam Byer, A&M; Billy Cox, Rice; Jerry Candler, Rice; Tommy Minter, Baylor.

The Unquestioned Compulsion

Years ago there were many who disputed the novel idea of free and compulsory public education. The first truancy laws were opposed as infringements on liberty.

But as our children return this fall to schools that will mold their growing minds—does a single parent complain?

I believe in sound religious education, as well. The molding of the character should keep pace with the molding of the mind.

Naturally I never want my government to exercise compulsion in this sacred area. And my Church, while it offers a complete curriculum of religious training, does so on a free and voluntary basis.

But I'm a parent! And, though I find that example and encouragement usually suffice, I'm not above telling Johnny,

"YES, SON, YOU HAVE TO GO TO SUNDAY SCHOOL!"

As a child begins to see the importance Faith has in our lives and in the strength of our nation... you'll be surprised how quickly this becomes an unquestioned compulsion.

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
