

A&M Chapel Schedule For Year Released

The All Faiths Chapel has announced a schedule of eight special programs to be presented the first Wednesday of each month during the coming school year. The programs, the first of which is scheduled Oct. 4, are sponsored by the Newman Club, YMCA, Chapel Committee, Interfaith Council, Student Christian Federation and B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation.

The year's schedule will include: Oct. 4 — "Moral Contradictions in the Twentieth Century" Nov. 1 — "The Challenge of Statism" Dec. 6 — "A Religious Attitude Toward Changing Political Philosophies"

Jan. 10 — "What is the Relevance of Religion to Higher Education?" Feb. 7 — "The Relevance of Faith in the Changing World" Mar. 7 — "Man's Purpose in Life" (from theological view) Apr. 4 — "Man's Purpose in Life" (from scientific view) May 2 — "Man's Purpose in Life" (from philosophical view)

Sam Houston State To Offer Courses In Bryan-CS Area

Sam Houston State College will again offer college-credit courses in Bryan during the school year. The courses are sponsored and promoted by the Student Veterinary Wives Auxiliary.

A discussion meeting will be held Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the Stephen F. Austin High School auditorium for those interested in the program.

Classes will meet one night per week for 16 weeks at $30 for a three-hour course. Registration is also scheduled Monday night.

Annual YMCA Camp Attracts 205 Freshmen

The eighth annual A&M Freshman YMCA Camp, held at the Lakeview Methodist Encampment at Palestine Saturday through Tuesday, attracted 205 Aggie Freshmen from throughout the state.

The camp was operated by a student camp committee, Ron Haley of Colorado City, Scott Brown of Mansfield, La., and Don Willis of Fort Worth, all juniors.

The overall operation of the camp was under the supervision of J. Gordon Gay, coordinator of religious life and general secretary of the YMCA.

Programs at the camp, which were sandwiched between softball, swimming, devotional periods, nightly Bible study and generally meeting new friends, included:

"What is the Real Purpose of a College Education," "How Important Are Grades," "What, Besides Studies," "What is my Religion and How Does it Relate to College," "What About my Moral Values and Standards,"

"When Do I Stand as an Individual and When Do I Conform," "What is an Education," "Where Do I Find Problem-Solving Assistance," "The 'Extra' of Campus Life at A&M" and "Vocation—How Do I Choose My Life Work."

Extension Service Economist Leaves For Doctorate Work

Robert G. Cherry, an economist in management and policy with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Department of Agricultural Economics and Sociology, left September 8 to study toward his doctorate degree at North Carolina State College.

He will study on an Agricultural Policy Institute Scholarship financed by the Kellogg Foundation. The economist will be gone for nine months and his research will be in the area of agricultural policy.

Cherry is a widely known agricultural economist among Texas farmers and ranchers.

He has been at A&M since 1943. During that time he worked on Gov. Buford Jester's Tax Study Commission and the Texas Legislative Council. Before coming to A&M, he was in the Secretary of State's office in Austin and was educational advisor of the Civilian Conservation Corps.

Cherry was born in New Waverly and received his bachelor of science degree at Sam Houston State College. He was awarded his master of science degree at the University of Wyoming.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Cherry of New Waverly.

Workshop Attracts A&M Dairy Prof

Dr. Murray A. Brown, assistant professor in the Department of Dairy Science, participated in the recent sixth annual workshop on "Improvement of College and University Teaching" in Corvallis, Ore.

The workshop was held on the campus of Oregon State University.

Thompson Speaks At Arlington Fete

R. D. Thompson of the Division of Business Administration was the banquet speaker at the Structural Short Course held recently at Arlington. He spoke on "Tomorrow's Homes."

The course was presented by the North Texas Association of Building Inspectors.

Students' Mailing Addresses Need Filing In Housing Office

Housing Office officials have issued a plea to students to have their college mailing addresses on file in the Housing Office.

All students who did not have an address when they registered are urged to report their addresses to the Housing Office before 5 p.m., Friday, Sept. 22, Harry L. Boyer, housing manager, said.

Students whose address is not on file will have to go to the Housing Office to receive improperly addressed mail, will find their

All students who did not have a post office box or other local address when they registered should furnish their local mailing addresses to the Housing Office (Basement, Y. M. C. A.) by 5 p. m. Friday at the end of the first week of classes. This will insure inclusion of the information in the forthcoming Texas A&M College Directory. This will also aid you in receiving promptly incoming mail which is incompletely addressed. In addition, academically classified Seniors will by this means, during the latter part of 1961, begin receiving free the monthly issues of The Texas Aggie, publication of the Association of Former Students. 214
