

Memories

At 85, Nick Altrock poses in a farewell gesture at Griffith Stadium in Washington where he pitched baseball 63 years ago. Altrock, who won 63 games in a three-year span for the Chicago White Sox before joining the Washington American League club in 1912, said the first time he pitched in Griffith Stadium was in 1898 while playing for Louisville. He watched the Minnesota Twins beat the Washington Senators 6-3 in what may be the last major league game in the park—the Senators may open next season in a new municipal stadium. (AP Wirephoto)

Winners Lead In SWC Statistics

Special To The Battalion
Baylor, Rice, TCU and Texas, the only victors last Saturday, monopolized the greatest gains and the longest plays, leaving only a few consolation prizes for the less fortunate. Texas A&M, which tied Houston in one of the eight curtain-raisers, ran the most rushing plays (54); SMU did the best punting (averaging 44.2), while Arkansas had the best kickoff return average.

Familiar names like James Saxton (Texas), Billy Cox (Rice), Sonny Gibbs and Buddy Iles (TCU), Bobby Ply and Ronnie Bull (Baylor) dominated the high marks for players, but unheralded performers such as Jerry Cook (Texas), Butch Blume (Rice), Jerry Spearman (TCU), Lewis Albright (SMU) and Garry Thomas

(TCU) grabbed some of the laurels.

Cook was the leading ball carrier for the opening week (110 yards) and was a close runner-up to TCU's Gibbs in total offense. Blume was one of the more versatile leaders, taking second-best honors in longest field goal, longest punt return and longest interception runback.

Spearman, son of a former TCU great, kicked the game-winning 36-yard field goal against Kansas to lead that category, while Albright, promoted this week to first-string duty at SMU, posted the longest punt return (20 yards) in the opening round.

Garry Thomas, one of TCU's sophomore twins from Athens, was credited with the longest punt (55 yards).

New Crop Of Texas Golfers May Rival Hogan and Crew

By HAROLD RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor
Back in the thirties and forties Texas was supreme in golf. It had Ben Hogan, Byron Nelson, Jimmy Demaret, Lloyd Mangrum and Babe Zaharias winning just about everything offered. But Nelson retired, Hogan finally gave up all except a few tournaments per year, Demaret and Mangrum took things easy and played only occasionally and the great Zaharias died.

Chances Are That TU-OU Contest Will Be Televised

AUSTIN (AP) — Chances are good the Texas-Oklahoma football game will be televised in Dallas and Austin, Ed Olle, University of Texas athletic director said Wednesday.

Olle said televising the game must be approved by the National College Athletic Association and accepted by the ABC television network.

He said an oral agreement has been made by phone, and formal confirmation was expected from the NCAA and ABC in a few days.

Olle said ABC already has scheduled another football game for nationwide showing the weekend of Oct. 14, but, if the NCAA approves, ABC will substitute the Texas-Oklahoma game for the national contest in Dallas and Austin only.

Nixon To Run For Governor In California

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon announced Wednesday night he will run for governor of California next year.

He also declared he will serve the full four-year gubernatorial term, if elected, and not enter the 1964 presidential race.

Nixon told a news conference: "I have two decisions to announce:

"First I shall not be a candidate for president in 1964.

"Second, I shall be a candidate for governor in 1962."

The 48-year-old Californian said: "The next governor must be a man who will devote not part but all of his energies to this job."

Richard Crawford and Homero Blancas were among the top collegiate golfers.

Texas may never again have five like Hogan, Nelson, Demaret, Mangrum and Babe Zaharias at one time but it could have twice as many whose pooled talents would exceed that great five and would at least be the most top players from one state.

Texas Is Tops
Texas takes a back seat to no one in golf and probably never will. Its players have won all the great championships — the National Open, PGA, national amateur, national collegiate, British Open and the national titles for women.

And the current crop is going to repeat those feats.

Old reliables Billy Maxwell, Jack Burke and Don January won tournaments, Maxwell taking three and having his best year yet. Even the stay-at-homes are doing well. For instance, Earl Stewart, a resident pro now, won the Dallas Open against one of the strongest fields for any tournament of the year.

Betsy Rawls still is one of the greats of women's golf and Mickey Wright, the kingpin of the fens, now is a Dallas resident.

Amateurs Are Dazzling
The amateurs are beginning to look like that dazzling array of 25 years ago. Dudley Wysong of McKinney has just finished going to the finals of the national amateur, Herb Durham won the Trans-Mississippi, Ed Hopkins showed up well in several tournaments, including the national amateur, and

O'Toole Will Probably Start For Redlegs In World Series

By The Associated Press
CINCINNATI — Jim O'Toole, power-throwing southpaw of the National League kings, the Cincinnati Reds, is the best prospect to start the World Series, Manager Fred Hutchinson indicated Wednesday.

Hutch didn't pick a series starter against the New York Yankees, because the Reds have three more regular-season games to play at Pittsburgh this weekend.

But he tabbed O'Toole to start Friday and said he would continue his regular rotation, with Joey Jay, 21-game winner, pitching Saturday and veteran Bob Purkey wrapping up the season Sunday.

That puts O'Toole squarely on the spot Oct. 4 for the first series game in Yankee Stadium.

The Reds whipped Chicago Tuesday afternoon, 6-3, then sweat out a two-night doubleheader between second-place Los Angeles and Pittsburgh.

The Dodgers won the first 6-3, and it wasn't until 10 when Pittsburgh prevailed, 3-1, the nightcap that the Red-nant was clinched.

It added fuel to the game bing in years in staid Cincinnati with a crowd flooding Fountain Square to greet the after fans numbered in the sands met the team at the port.
