Ag Sophs Leading Team In Statistics

Sophomores have injected life into the Aggie offense this year, providing Coach Jim Myers with a striking ability lacking in past years.

First year men are leading in four departments of team statistics, after two games. Jim Linnstaedter, flashy halfback from Brenham, has been the sensation thus far, getting his name in six of the eight departments.

Linnstaedter is the leading ball carrier with 58 yards in 13 carries for a 4.5 average. He is sixth in pass receiving with one reception for five yards, and has attempted two passes, completing none. He has intercepted one enemy aerial and returned one punt for eight yards. Linnstaedter also leads the Cadets in kickoff returns with two for 29 yards and a 14.5 average.

Travis Reagan, the stubby right half from Wichita Falls, leads in pass receptions, snagging two for 33 yards and a touchdown. The touchdown pass was the second TD scored by A&M this season.

John Erickson, quarterback in Coach Myers' pony backfield, leads Aggie passers with four completions in eight attempts for a .500 percentage mark. Erickson's four completions have gained 48 yards and accounted for one TD; the touchdown strike going to Reagan in the LSU game.

Close behind Reagan in pass receiving is converted quarterback-end Daryle Keeling, with two receptions for 22 yards.

Ronnie Brice is top Cadet punt returner, carrying a pair of kicks back 18 yards for a 9 yard average. On the kicking side of the punt situation, Babe Craig has booted 15 for 544 yards and an average of 36.3 yards per kick.

Cadets Converge On Bengals

LSU halfback Jerry Stovall (21) rounds his own right end to find Aggies Daryle Keeling (84), George Hargett (23) and Lee Roy Caffey (34) moving in for the tackle. Nevertheless, he gained 18 yards on the end sweep and the Tigers came from behind to win, 16-7. (Photo by Noble Eden Jr.)

Same As Last Year; LSU Clips Ags, 16-7

If the Aggies and the Louisiana State University Tigers had only played three quarters last Saturday night in Baton Rouge, the Texans would have won their first football game since last Oct. 15 when they downed another set of Tigers—Trinity.

But they did play the fourth quarter and in doing so LSU pulled it out of the Cadets' greedy little paws by scoring two touchdowns. Final score: LSU 16, A&M 7.

Ironically, A&M didn't yield a single point in the fourth quarter all last season.

It was another heart breaker for the hard fighting Aggies who just can't seem to win for losing. One Aggie footballer said, "I simply can't understand how we can play so darn good yet still lose." And he wasn't the only one saying that phrase.

The Aggies played their usual "waiting" game and it paid off for the first three periods, but it was that fatal fourth quarter that still prevailed. Part of the "waiting" game was punting on third down several times much to the dismay of Aggie rooters.

In the first quarter, the Aggies draw first blood and led the Tigers 7-0 at the end of the initial period. After an exchange of punts, the Cadets started the drive on the LSU 37. Six plays later, John Erickson passed to right half Travis Reagan for 24 yards and the TD. Daryle Keeling added the PAT.

College Gridder Dies Of Injuries

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 20-year-old Lebanon Valley College football player died Monday following an emergency operation for removal of a blood clot from his brain. He was taken to the hospital Saturday after collapsing in a game here against Drexel Tech.

A team of five surgeons removed the clot from the brain of the player, John Zola of Hazleton, Pa., who caught a pass for a two-point conversion shortly before his coach noticed the boy was ill.

Coach Bill McHenry said he noticed Zola kneeling on one knee and took him out of the game.

At the end of the first quarter, punting specialist Babe Craig, last year's leading punter in the SWC, went to work and before the night was over he had put his foot into the ball 11 times. On one occasion the ball only traveled a few feet because Tiger Roy Winston was blocking the path. Luckily, the pigskin bounced out of the end zone after a mad scramble and LSU had to settle for a safety.

Craig continued to keep the Bayou Bengals at bay with his booming punts, but the Aggies' bubble burst early in the final period when LSU's Wendell Harris scampered 62 yards for the score with one of Craig's kicks. Harris added the extra point and the Tigers were ahead to stay, 9-7.

On the first play following the kickoff, Jerry Rogers fumbled and former Aggie Dennis Gaubatz recovered for LSU.

Nine plays later the Tigers added an insurance tally when Earl Gros drove over from four yards out.

Lee Roy Caffey led the Cadets in rushing with a 3.9 average on seven carries. On defense, the outstands were Ray Kubala, Daryle Keeling and Jerry Jenkins.

LONG STREAK ENDS

DANBURY, Conn. (AP)—A game scoring streak ended on 16 when Bridgeport Central, a 20-0 football victory over Danbury High.

It was the longest game scoring record in Connecticut scholastic football history.

Danbury had gone without football shutout since Nov. 1947, when another Bridgeport team, Harding High, blanked Hatters, 32-0.

There has never been a qualified, or even a foul against the winner, in 85 races of the Preakness at Pimlico.

GRADUATE STUDENTS

GENERAL DYNAMICS FORT WORTH

INTERVIEWS ON CAMPUS

MONDAY & TUESDAY OCTOBER 16 & 17

THROUGH B-58 PROGRAM EXPERIENCE, our engineering staff developed a unique capability in high performance aircraft and electronic systems design. Now, this mature capability is directed to new programs for air craft, advanced military weapons and reconnaissance systems, and certain space-oriented development projects. In addition, new emphasis is being given to basic problems in the space sciences through a new and expanding Applied Research staff. Specific assignments for graduate students as well as a few well-qualified BSEE's are available. For detailed information about openings within these fields, see your Placement Office file. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, creed, color, or national origin.
