

WOGS HEAVIER Ag Frosh Open Season Tonight Against Wogs

By BOB ROBERTS
Battalion Assistant Sports Editor

The Texas Aggie Fish footballers meet the TCU Wogs on Kyle Field tonight at 7:30. The game will be Coach Ty Bain's inaugural as head mentor of the Fish.

Coach Bain's Fish will average 178 pounds in the backfield, and 202 pounds in the line. The freshmen will give a weight advantage to the Wogs, who average 216 in the line and about 189 in the backfield.

Three high school all-state players will be in the starting lineup for Bain. They include Tackle Ronny Moore of Brownwood, Guard Melvin Simmons of Odessa and Halfback Tommy Meeks of Bryan.

Two other all-staters are on the injured list, Halfback Budgie Ford of Taylor and Guard Ray Gene Hinze of Waco LaVega. Also sidelined with injuries are Tackles Ray Chancellor of Waco LaVega and Maynard Rogers of Port Lavaca.

Wog Coach Fred Taylor will field a lineup which includes three all-state stars; End Bobby Sanders of Fort Worth Paschal, and two giant tackles, Bobby Smith of San Antonio Burbank and Norman Evans of Donna.

The Wog backfield will have Randy Howard of Dawson at quarterback; Larry Bulaich of LaMarque at left half; Jim Fauver of Houston Milby at right half; and Bobby Barker of LaMarque at fullback.

Taylor reported at least nine Wogs have suffered injuries since workouts began on Sept. 21. Most serious was the loss of right halfback Bobby Batton of Hubbard, who broke a collar bone in scrimmage last week.

Thin-Clads Go To Houston Saturday

It's autumn time and almost everyone would think that track season is over, but cross country season is here again!

While the Aggie footballers will be in Lubbock Saturday, the Aggie runners will be in Houston taking on the University of Houston cross country team. Houston was the NCAA cross country champion last year.

Last year the Aggie team took second place at the Southwest Conference Meet and Coach Jim Brewer expects a stronger squad this fall.

The reason for the added strength will be Ilhan Bilgutay, a sophomore from Istanbul, Turkey, who was ineligible last year and Ed Weber, a junior transfer from Victoria Junior College.

Thad Crooks, the co-captain of the Aggie track team last spring, is back and will supply help. A strong challenger, Crooks is holder of two school track records—the mile and the two-mile runs.

Other members of the Aggie cross country team are E. L. Ener, a junior from Jasper; Malcolm Hardee, a senior from Groveton; Thomas Johnson, a senior from Franklin; and Bill Doreen, a sophomore from Midland.

"Bilgutay is the number one runner on the team and I along with Coach Charlie Thomas expect great things from him," said Brewer.

The freshmen will also have a meet with the Cougars Saturday and they will be led by Herbie Campbell and Jim Sebastian.

Ben Krenek
... ready for Tech

Battle Of Winless Set For Lubbock

After tying Houston and losing to LSU in tight intersectional football clashes, the Aggies move into the Southwest Conference scene Saturday.

Coach Jim Myers takes his Aggies to Lubbock to do battle with Texas Tech's Red Raiders at Jones Stadium at 7:30 p. m.

More than 35,000 tickets have been sold to the contest and Tech athletic officials expect a near-capacity turnout of 40,500.

A&M will enter the game with a 0-0 SWC mark while Tech found a rampaging group of Longhorns too much last week and lost its league opener by 42-14.

The Aggies tied the University of Houston, 7-7, and then last Saturday night bowed to LSU, 16-7, at Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

Myers sent the A&M team through a long scrimmage Tuesday against Red Raider offenses and defenses, and announced more of the same for Wednesday.

The Aggies will begin tapering off drills Thursday and have a limbering up workout at Lubbock Friday afternoon following a 2 p. m. flight (Braniff) from College Station.

Barring practice injuries, the Aggies should be in good shape for Saturday's encounter. Ben Krenek, junior letterman from El Campo, has returned to his spot at second team left tackle after having missed the first two encounters with a knee injury.

Still out of action, however, is Guard Jim Harper of Borger, who is nursing a leg injury. He was a member of the second unit.

A&M's probable starters, all openers against LSU, will include Russell Hill and Daryle Keeling at ends, Wayland Simmons and Joe Eilers at tackles, Wayne Freiling and Jim Phillips at guards, Jerry Jenkins at center, Jim Keller at quarterback, George Hargett and Bob Caskey at halfbacks and Leo Roy Caffey at fullback.

Changes in the second unit have Sam Byer moving in at fullback, Krenak at tackle, Keith Huggins at guard and Bobby Evans, a converted end, at tackle.

Pat Latham and Bobby Huntington will be at ends, Walter LaGrone at guard, Jerry Hopkins at center, John Erickson at quarterback and Jim Linnstaedter and Travis Reagan at halfbacks.

Linnstaedter is A&M's leading ground gainer with 58 yards in carries, while Caffey has 50 in 14 and Fullback Jerry Rogers in 18.

Erickson has completed four of eight passes for 48 yards and one touchdown. Reagan is the leading receiver, having caught two passes for 33 yards and one TD.

The Aggie Band will make its trip to Lubbock.

The Reds had better luck with the Texas A&M baseball team than they had with the New York Yankees in the first game of the World Series yesterday.

The Cincinnati team commented that the two and one half hour game was quite an odd experience because of the college yells and Aggie enthusiasm during the game.
