

MOVIE go ROUND

Palace
 Through Saturday — ★★★ "Come September" Rock Hudson plays the rich man denied his pleasure. Gina Lollobrigida, as the source of his pleasure, plays the mistress-turned-marriage-minded.
 Sunday through Tuesday — ★ "Armored Command" The only thing that can be said to be well constructed in this actionless "tiger flick" is Tina Louise who, it seems, never fully exhales.

Queen
 Through Saturday — ★ "When the Clock Strikes" and "The Cat Burglar" Cloak versus dagger. Boredom wins.
 Sunday through Tuesday — ★ "Four Fast Guns" TV doesn't have all the stale western plots.

Campus
 Through Saturday — ★★ "Claude English" Sophisticated Diane McBain combs her bouffant hair-do just so, flits her artificial eyelashes prettily and then, for some reason, fails to convince us she is the earthy female-animal of Caldwell's novel.
 Sunday and Monday — ★★ "The Champion" and "The D.I." In "Champion"—a pre-police action film—Kirk Douglas drew his first and last rave notices. In "D.I." Jack Webb as Sgt. Moore is stuck with a recruit who, understandably, dislikes the Marine Corps.

Circle
 Saturday — ★★ "God's Little Acre" and "Two Flags West" and "The McConnell Story" "God's" is solid and entertaining, but the other two are merely rolls of exposed film.
 Sunday through Tuesday — "Goodbye Again" with Ingrid Bergman, Yves Montand, and Anthony Perkins and "The Gazebo" with Glenn Ford and Debbie Reynolds. Both unreviewed.

Skyway
 Saturday — ★★ "Jailbreakers" and "13 Fighting Men" and "Shane" Nothing there worthwhile but "Shane."
 Sunday through Tuesday — ★★ "Wild in the Country" and "The Lost World" In the former, Elvis Presley portrays his own plastic-hipped, sullen-faced, untalented self.

Guion Hall
 Saturday evening — ★★ "Giant" and "Forbidden Desert" Edna Ferber's novel can be blamed for the unrecognizable Texas presented in "Giant," whose ambitious makers, too, allowed the story to drag, if not snag, in places. "Forbidden Desert" is among the better documentaries now in circulation.
 Saturday and Sunday — ★★ "The Wackiest Ship in the Army" Jack Lemmon, funny in a spastic, unpredictable way, captains a tub sent to sea by the never-wrong Army.

CADET SLOUCH by Jim Earle

"... didn't I tell you guys to use spotters when you jump on th' trampoline?"

— Sound Off —

Editor.
 The Battalion:
 In answer to the "Pass In Review" article in your Thursday edition of The Battalion regarding student Jerry Cooper and his plight with being assigned to the bull ring when he is living in a civilian dormitory—we have in our office a locator card filled out at registration in Mr. Cooper's own glorious handwriting stating that he is in Company A-2, living in Dorm 14, Room 128, and is a drills and ceremonies student.

Furthermore, we have no drop papers on this student but on the other hand we have no application for drills and ceremonies status.
 Because of the aforementioned facts, we naturally assumed (heaven knows why) that Mr. Cooper was a member of the Corps of Cadets and so we expected him to meet the bull ring to walk off his carry-over hours from last year. By not meeting the bull ring he deserved, and was awarded, 10 demerits (the normal penalty).
 If Mr. Cooper doesn't know if he is in the Corps or not (as exemplified by his locator card), how in the world are we to know. If Mr. Cooper wishes to report for bull ring this Saturday in slacks and sport shirt, he should check with the Cadet Officer of the Day and make arrangements to do this.

Tareyton delivers the flavor DUAL FILTER DOES IT!

"Tareyton's Dual Filter in duas partes divisa est!" says veteran coach Romulus (Uncle) Remus. "We have a saying over at the Coliseum—"Tareyton separates the gladiators from the gladioli". It's a real magnus smoke. Take it from me, Tareyton delivers de gustibus—and the Dual Filter does it!"
