One Dollar

No matter how worthwhile the endeavor, it takes cooperation for such effort to succeed.

Students will be given the opportunity to provide this cooperation next week, when the annual Campus Chest drive gets underway. Theme for the event this year is, "One dollar from an Aggie for an Aggie."

Started nine years ago, the Campus Chest is a fund drive working similar to Community Chest and other efforts of such nature. Its purpose is to assist fellow students who suffer a tragedy of some sort, such as an accident or loss of property.

Special effort is made to investigate each case to assure the fact that the offer is needed and will not be offensive. During its history, the Fund has brought greatly-needed help to many Aggies, and student participation grows each year.

Other agencies besides the Aggie

Chest benefit from the fund, also; 10 per cent goes to the Brazos County Tuberculosis Association, a second 10 per cent to the College Station Community Chest, and a third 10 per cent to the March of Dimes. The remaining 70 per cent is retained in the Aggie Chest.

The Student Senate, sponsoring body of Campus Chest, has boosted incentive this year by offering a "100 per cent" certificate to each dorm and cadet unit that has all its members donating. A brass plaque will be provided for the unit or dorm having the highest average, or most donated per man.

More information on Campus Chest will be available before kick-off time Oct. 23, so it might be advisable to set aside a dollar for the fund today. After the Ft. Worth Corps Trip, it might be slightly less accessible. . . . and there are plenty of places available to hide a dollar from yourself for five days!

Guest Editorial

Dallas' mass protests over training of Yugoslav Communist fliers have created national reaction—even in the White House. President Kennedy has announced a "review" of our foreign aid to Tito.

Political parties are not involved. The sole issue is Americanism—and survival of this country.

The News was the first newspaper to break the story at Perrin Field. The News is gratified over the patriotism at Memorial Auditorium and hopes that future signs of national weakness are greeted with the same grass-roots objections.

So far our country has spent more than $2,000,000,000 in "aid" to Tito. We still cannot point to any concrete advantages. But the aid continues as part of our "diplomatic offensive."

Such an offensive, at best, is pretty weak. But aside from all that—what possible excuse can be given for wasting our Air Force effort on Communist fliers who can go back and peddle everything they know and possibly shoot the hands that trained them.

This is ridiculous.

It is good to learn from the Smithsonian Institution that as far back as 1920 American industrial research had made mincemeat of the old saw that you can't make a silk purse out of sows' ears. Rather, it had made an ornate ladies' handbag out of a shipment of sows' ears from a Chicago meat-packing plant. The ears were reduced to a silk-like cloth with the help of chemicals.

It's about time that research return the favor. Meat packers have long complained that they can make use of everything in the slaughtering of hogs except the squeals. Surely with present-day hi-fi equipment, this unforgettable delightful sound can be captured and played back for music lovers. A concert of sow squeals and Sinatra swoons should be a sellout.

Be perspicacious!

Not this: a student who dozes over books no matter how much sleep he gets.

This: perspicacious... sharp! NoDoz keeps you awake and alert—safely!

If you sometimes find studying soporific (and who doesn't?), the word to remember is NoDoz. NoDoz perks you up in minutes, with the same safe awakener found in coffee or tea. Yet NoDoz is faster, handier, more reliable. Absolutely non-habit-forming, NoDoz is sold everywhere without prescription. So, to keep perspicacious during study and exams—and while driving, too—always keep NoDoz in proximity.

The safe stay awake tablet—available everywhere. Another fine product of Grove Laboratories.

49th Armored Men Face War Games

DALLAS (AP) — Men of the 49th Armored Division of the Texas National Guard, activated and on regular duty, will have many night problems to teach them to fight an unconventional-type war, their commanding general said Tuesday.

Maj. Gen. Harley B. West, after conferring with Maj. Gen. D. W. McGowan, chief of the National Guard Bureau in Washington, said his men will go through three months of accelerated training at Ft. Polk, La. He said the division will concentrate on "Ranger-type training."

At a press conference, West termed his division a "blue chip nite" citing it as the only armored division called to active duty.

West said chances are the unit will stay at Polk barring further crises in the international situation. The division is on an active duty status for at least 12 months.

He would make no comment on the status of housing available for families of troops stationed at

Polk. The general earlier cautioned guardsmen to leave their families at home when they go on active duty. "There is not enough housing to go around," he said.

Methodists Plan Meet

The annual Thanksgiving week-end conference of the Methodist Student Movement of Texas will be held this year at Lakewood Methodist Assembly Ground near Palestine.

Dr. John Dillenberger, D.D., University, will be the speaker.
