

Tiger Game Put Ags On Map

Special To The Battalion In achieving its greatest football point total in seventeen seasons,

Texas A&M fashioned four high marks for the Southwest Conference season its 55-0 conquest o-

Trinity.
The score surpassed the previous game high of 42 that Texas scored against Texas Tech this season and was A&M's best since 70 was scored against Miami in 1944. The Aggies ran a season record of 73 rushing plays in scoring the victory and helped their cause with four pass interceptions, also a new high for the young campaign.

Only four new leaders of individual marks developed last week and two of them were Aggies. Sophomore Travis Reagan scored three touchdowns to become the only SWC player that productive thus far, and teammate Ronnie Brice ran an interception back for 62 yards to surpass the previous best of 35 by Lance Alworth of Arkansas.

Although he lost the leadership of one category, Alworth took over another with a gain of 63 yards on three pass catches. That's tops for yardage gained by a player on passes caught in a single game this season. Alworth also is credited with the year's longest punt, a 72-yard spiral against Mississippi.

Other individual leaders of high marks: Coolidge Hunt (Tech), most carries (26); James Saxton (Texas), longest run from scrimmage (78); Jerry Cook (Texas), most net yardage rushing (110); Doug Cannon (Tech), most passes (24) and most completions (13); Sonny Gibbs (TCU), most yardage gained passing (136) and most total offense (148); Gibbs to Pete Hill (TCU), longest completed pass (62); Bob Witucki (Tech), most passes caught (6); Jerry Spearman (TCU) and Mike Clark (A&M), longest field goal (36 yards); Tom Sherwin (SMU), longest punt return (55); Billy Gannon (SMU), longest kickoff return (39).

Allen Webb, a rookie backfield candidate with the New York Giants, is the recreation director at the Connecticut State Prison.

Jerry Barber, 45-year-old PGA golf champion, first went on the golf tour at the age of 33. He's only 5-foot-5 and 137 pounds.

Ags Due For Stiff Fight Against TCU

This Saturday on Amon Carter Field in Fort Worth, the Aggies will have their most trying battle of the football season.

After a tie and a defeat, the Cadets have come out triumphant in their last two outings. In fact, in the last two games they have scored 220 more points than they did the entire 1960 season.

Thus, A&M has a winning streak for the first time since 1959 when they won three in succession. The victories were a 9-7 win over Michigan State, a 7-3 decision over Mississippi State and a 28-6 crushing of Houston.

At this stage of the season in 1959, the Aggies were riding high on the arm of the great Charley Milstead and sports writers over the state were picking the Ags as the team to beat. A&M hadn't been the pre-season favorite, but they were rolling and were getting tougher.

Their next game was against the TCU Horned Frogs and the Cadets were favored by a couple of touchdowns. The spirit was high at Aggieland for the first time since 1957.

But then the tragedy hit! The Horned Frogs racked and humiliated the Aggies as they thrashed them, 39-6.

This marked the worse defeat an A&M team had ever suffered from a TCU squad. After the game, the Ags seemed lost and their secret of the scoring punch was gone. They didn't win another game that season, even though they battled everyone right down to the final seconds.

Once again the Aggies are riding high, but this time they won't be surprised by the intelligent antics of Coach Abe Martin, or the fact that Texas Tech smashed the Frogs last week, 10-0.

Junior guard Jim Harper is the only Aggie who will miss the game due to an injury and the spirit this week has been raised by the return of halfback George Hargatt to action.

Coach Jim Myers said that his team isn't being deceived by Texas Tech's upset victory over TCU.
"We know that Abe Martin has a very outstanding football team—one that is young but big and tough," Myers added.

TCU has several men who may qualify for All-SWC honors—Sonny Gibbs, the giant passing quarterback; Ray Pinion, the 227-pound guard who was All-SWC last fall; and Bobby Plummer, the 220-pound tackle who is being boomed for All-America honors.

The Horned Frogs will be tough, but they compare with the Aggies of '59. They will give a good battle, but look for a good old-fashioned, hard-fought Aggie victory.

December 5 Date For Cooper-Folley Heavyweight Tilt

LONDON (AP)—Henry Cooper, British heavyweight champion, agreed Wednesday to meet Zora Folley of Phoenix, Ariz., in a grudge contest here Dec. 5 — a fight that could decide a 1962-challenger for a world heavyweight Floyd Patterson.

Cooper, variously rated one or two in the list of challengers, outpointed Folley in London in a controversial 10-round, Oct. 14, 1958.

Folley now is rated the No. 6 heavyweight in the world and still is dangerous.

Aggies Set Four Conference Marks Against Trinity

DALLAS (AP)—The Texas Aggies set four Southwest Conference records for this season when they blanked Trinity 55-0 last week.

Conference officials noted Wednesday A&M achieved its greatest football point total in 17 seasons in the Trinity game.

The Aggies ran a season record of 73 rushing plays in scoring the 55-0 victory and helped their cause with four pass interceptions, also a new high.

Sophomore Travis Reagan scored three touchdowns to become the only SWC player that productive thus far, and teammate Ronnie Brice ran an interception back 62 yards to surpass the previous best of 35 by Lance Alworth of Arkansas.
