

Mass Exodus Takes Place On Aggie Practice Field

A mass exodus took place on the practice field yesterday when the inter-team migrations were over, only three familiar faces were left on the starting line. Usually, the ones left were on the left side of the line—Russell

Hill, Wayland Simmons and Wayne Freiling. In the changes, Jerry Hopkins took over for Jerry Jenkins at the pivot position. Keith Huggins made his move and replaced Bull Phillips at right guard. George Hogan, the junior tackle who was expected to be another Charlie Krueger, performed well in the TCU game and pushed Buddy Eilers to the second unit. Bobby Huntington, the hustler from Plainview, replaced Daryle Keeling at the right end spot. At quarterback, John Erickson, who looked so good passing against the Frogs, took over from Jim Keller. Ken Kipp will take Erickson's place on defense.

INTRAMURALS

Baseball games were in vogue in the A basketball Tuesday when the five ended with more than a three-point margin.

A single free throw told the story. E-5 edged E-2, 22-21. Paul E-2 led the scoring with 12 points and E-3's Steve E-3 followed with seven.

Although A-1's Fred Blackard is a high point man with 10, they are a tough one to Sgd. 12, 29-27. Schlotzhauer of Sgd. 12 followed Blackard with nine points. Sgd. 14 scraped by C-3 by a single point in a 20-18 contest. Moore of C-1 and David Sgd. 14 topped the scoring with eight points each.

Michael Michna and Kimball Baker Sgd. 14 scored six apiece to lead their outfit in a 21-19 victory over Sgd. 14. Herbert Ravel of D-3, however, was the game leader with 11 points.

What scoring there was came very evenly distributed in the Class A basketball game. Sgd. 14 beat A-2, 11-8.

Tuesday's Class C basketball game was a hard-fought game with the America 30-27. Enrique Sgd. 14 and the Pan Americans led the game scoring with 12 points. Gerald Russell and Dale Huds-peth dropped 20 and 18 respectively to help Law Hall overrun Legett Hall 51-15.

Results of the recently completed swimming and diving finals show the current overall standings and four new records in intramural athletics.

Overall standings are computed at the end of each sport and are as follows after completion of water sports:

Class A—Sgd. 3 first; Sgd. 14 second; Sgd. 7 third; Sgds. 11 and 12 tied for fourth.

Class B—B-3 first; Sgd. 1 second; G-2 third; Sgds. 7 and 3 tied for fourth.

Class C—Mitchell Hall first; Puryear Hall second.

Michael McGrady of Sgd. 3 topped the existing record in Class A 200-ft. breaststroke with a time of 50.4 seconds. The 400-ft. freestyle relay mark for upperclassmen was broken by Mitchell Hall with 1:08.4.

William Altman of Sgd. 7 broke the freshman 100-ft. butterfly record with a 1:19.3. The Class B 400-ft. medley relay record was broken by B-3's 1:21.9.

Two sophomore speedsters, Jim Linnstaedter and Travis Reagan, moved up to the maroon team after their outstanding performances last Saturday. Jim Murphy and Bob Caskey took their places at halfbacks on the white team (second unit).

Sam Byer, the big fullback from Marlin and last year's All-SWC back, regained his position from Lee Roy Caffey. Caffey wore a blue jersey yesterday, which is the third team. Jerry Rogers was on the second unit.

After a rugged two-hour workout Tuesday, the Ags slacked off a bit yesterday because of the rain. This is the week that the Aggies have been waiting for and it also is one which they must win!

Aggie football players agreed with Simmons when he said, "We really want this one and we're going to get it!"

George Altman of the Cubs began the 1961 season with an average of .255 for 254 games over two seasons.

Luis Aparicio of the White Sox failed to get a base hit in 10 trips to the plate in the 1958-59-60 All-Star games.

Mantle, Robinson Chosen 1961 Slugging Champions

NEW YORK (AP) — Outfielders Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees and Frank Robinson of the Cincinnati Reds, key players in their teams' pennant success, won the 1961 major league slugging championships.

Mantle topped the American League in slugging for the third time with a .687 average, statistics computed by The Associated Press disclosed Wednesday. Robinson, in capturing the National League slugging crown for the second year in a row, amassed a .613 percentage.

Mantle accumulated 353 total bases in 514 at bats. The 30-year-old switch-hitter collected 16 doubles, 6 triples and 54 homers among his 163 hits. He was the slugging leader in 1955 with .611 and 1956 with .705.

Last season Mantle produced the most total bases, but finished second to teammate Roger Maris in the slugging race. This year Maris, whose 61 homers set a season record, compiled the most total bases, but it was Mantle who topped the sluggers.

Robinson accounted for 334 total bases in 545 at bats. The 26-year-old right-handed swinger delivered 176 hits, including 33 doubles, 7 triples and 37 homers. In 1960 his winning slugging percentage was .595.

Slugging averages are figured by adding the total number of bases on all hits and dividing the sum by the times at bat.

Norm Cash of Detroit was runner-up to Mantle with .662. The Tiger first baseman, who led the American League in batting with a .361 average, accounted for 354 total bases in 535 trips. Cash collected 193 hits, a league high. Jim Gentile of Baltimore connected for 314 total bases in 486 at bats for a .646 percentage to rank third. He collected 147 hits.

Orlando Cepeda of San Francisco finished second to Robinson with a .607 mark, racking up 355 total bases in 585 at bats. His 46 homers were high in the league among his output of 182 hits.

Milwaukee's Hank Aaron, holder of the slugging crown in 1959, was third at .594. His 358 total bases were the most in the league for the third straight season.

Baylor 3-Point Pick Over A&M

By WILL GRIMSLEY Associated Press Sports

NEW YORK—Notre Dame and Louisiana State are top college football teams in most danger of getting their noses bloodied this weekend. Also keep an eye on Pitt, a sleeping giant ready to pull an upset.

Last week the score was 45 of 54 for .848. Now goes another flight into outer space:

Northwestern 13, Notre Dame 7: The Wildcats are in a strike-back mood and the Irish are due for a letdown.

Florida 18, Louisiana State 7: The Gators' multiple offense finally gets clicking.

Pittsburgh 10, Navy 6: Pitt inevitably comes up with a big effort in midseason. This could be it.

Penn State 21, California 13: The Nittany Lions came of age against Syracuse last week.

Michigan 13, Minnesota 0: The Gophers are slightly favored but we feel the Wolverines have more punch. Baylor 15, Texas A&M 12: Both teams nursing wounds but the Bears have more well bodies.

Alabama 38, Houston 6: The Crimson Tide's muscles have muscles.

UCLA 20, Stanford 8: Bobby Smith, UCLA's No. 1 tailback, should be ready for full-time action.

Michigan State 33, Indiana 6: The Spartans aren't about to yield their No. 1 position.
