

INTRAMURALS

Sqd. 2 and Sqd. 14 were stale-mated during the last two minutes of play of last night's play-off game until John Slaughter sank a long jump-shot in the final five seconds to give Sqd. 2 the contest, 43-41.

Sqd. 2 took command at the first of the game and kept a comfortable lead through the first half. Soon after the third quarter began, however, Sqd. 14 made a comeback and the remainder of the game was a see-saw battle.

Bob Rogers of Sqd. 14 was high-point man of the game with 16. Pat More and Mike Holy had 12 each for Sqd. 2.

In Sqd. 6's 50-44 win over G-1, Doug Felps of Sqd. 6 and Monte Mettallack had 25 points each to lead the scoring. Sqd. 6 led most of the game, but only by one point at the half.

In the third quarter it looked as if the tables had turned as G-1 momentarily broke ahead by six points. Sqd. 6, however, bore down again and regained the lead by the end of that period, never to relinquish it again.

Taking advantage of five straight free throws, Sqd. 7 cancelled B-2's hopes late in the game and went on to win 34-29. The game was tied most of the way through.

James Jack and Allen Vaughn led Syd. 7 with 17 and 10 points, respectively. B-2's highest scorer was Jimmy Nelson with 11.

Tonight at 7:15 Sqd. 2 must meet Sqd. 6 and last night's bystander, F-1, will play Sqd. 7. Both games will be held in G. Rollie White Coliseum and the winners will meet in the finals Monday night along with Hart Hal Civilians and Law Hall. These two games will decide the upper-classmen basketball championships.

In Class B football yesterday five games were played.

Sqd. 1 edged C-3, 6-2; E-3 defeated Sqd. 9, 6-0; A-2 beat Sqd. 12, 14-2; F-1 shut out Sqd. 13, 12-0 and Sqd. 10 beat F-3, 20-6.

GRIMSLEY'S CHOICE

Hogs Favored Over Aggies; Texas Picked Over Ponies

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK—Down in the cotton and corn pone country, they're wagering plantations on the Mississippi-Louisiana State football game.

The Ole Miss line looks big enough to move the Empire State Building and the Rebel backs run like the wind. LSU is just as deep and resourceful, but in the big game of the week the vote is Mississippi 20, LSU 8.

Buffaloes put another nail in the Big Eight championship.

Alabama 25, Mississippi State 8: Coach Bear Bryant calls this his big one, so the Crimson Tide romps.

Syracuse 18, Pittsburgh 14: Its' too much to expect Pitt to produce two inspired performances in a row.

Georgia Tech 20, Florida 6: The battle between the two Dodds, Bobby, Sr., has more ammunition.

Texas 28, SMU 6: The Longhorns are a berserk herd on a stampede.

Notre Dame 14, Navy 8: The two teams trying to rebound from upsets. The Irish have greater resiliency.

Army 21, Detroit 7; Rutgers 27, Lafayette 6; Kansas 20, Nebraska 8; Purdue 18, Illinois 6; Northwestern 25, Indiana 10; Penn State 17, Maryland 10; Auburn 19, Wake Forest 8; Arkansas 17, Texas A&M 10; Air Force 17, Colorado State 7; Arizona 20,

Last week's upsets jolted our fancy .800 record and we hit 35, lost 19 for .649.

This week's other picks:
Michigan State 23, Minnesota 14: The Spartans are going to be beaten, but not this week. The Gophers put too much in the Little Brown Jug.

Colorado 14, Missouri 7: The

Texas' Ford Takes Over Fullback Spot

AUSTIN (AP)—The Texas Longhorns call him "Thunderbird," and at 5-feet-9 and 180 pounds he wouldn't be considered a lot of fullback.

But Coach Darrell Royal, with fullback Ray Poage probably out for the Southern Methodist game at Dallas Saturday, is planning to run Tommy "Thunderbird" Ford, a third stringer, from the middle back position.

Royal announced the shift of Ford during the week to back up second-string fullback John Allen Cook, who will be filling for Poage. Another sophomore, Derrell Oliver, may see action if he stops developing charleyhorses.

Ford, ranking fifth in conference rushing, has an average of 6.3 yards with 44 carries and 278 yards. John Allen Cook has a 3.9 average with 70 yards in 18 carries.
