It's Homecoming In Ozarks As Aggies Invade Hogland

It's homecoming in the Ozarks Saturday and "sooey pig" cries will be rebounding from the hills as the Aggies invade with hopes of prolonging their SWC title chances.

Arkansas will also be after a victory which will be a "must."

They have two defeats this season and those were to the second and third teams in the nation, Mississippi and Texas, respectively.

A capacity crowd of over 31,000 is expected to be on hand to see this crucial battle which will spell doom to the loser.

The Razorbacks will be tough and the Aggies know it; especially Coach Jim Myers, who said:

"Arkansas has more team speed than any club we have faced and two of the finest quarterbacks in the nation in George McKinney and Billy Moore.

"That Moore is really dangerous—he's a fine runner and a good passer. Arkansas' speed, plus quickness, make the Razorbacks doubly tough," Myers added.

Lance Alworth, the swift All-America halfback candidate, is back again and as usual is leading the SWC in punt returns—his specialty. He is also sixth in rushing and pass receiving.

Up in the line, the Hogs have such standouts as Dean, Garrett and Danny Brabham. Garrett, an All-SWC performer last year, played a brilliant game against the Ags last year. It was his jarring tackle that sidelined Sam Byer for the remainder of the '60 campaign.

On the home front, Myers is still having trouble deciding who will start at fullback against the Hogs. Lee Roy Caffey, Sam Byer and Jerry Rogers are running a dead heat for the maroon jersey. Each is almost equal in ability.

The starters in the line will probably be the same that began against Baylor with Wayne Freiling and Wayland Simmons leading the way.

John Erickson is scheduled to start at quarterback for the second week in succession. He will be the man-under on both the first and second units.

The Aggies left College Station this afternoon and will spend the night in Fort Smith, Ark., before going to Fayetteville Saturday morning. They will return to College Station following the game.

Caffey and Byer

Lee Roy Caffey and Sam Byer are two of the three star fullbacks on the Aggie team this fall. The other is sophomore Jerry Rogers. All three will see considerable action against the Arkansas Razorbacks this Saturday afternoon at Fayetteville.

This May Be Year For Aggie Cagers

While everyone else follows the fortunes of the football team this fall, Coach Bob Rogers' cagers are hard at work getting ready for the season opener with Centenary.

This is the year many pick the Cadets to take the Southwest Conference championship. The last two campaigns have seen A&M in the role of the perennial bridesmaid. In the 1959-60 season, the Aggies posted one of their finest records in the past several decades, winning 19 and losing five. But A&M faded in the stretch and Texas won the conference. Last year the Aggies posted 16 wins and eight losses, but finished second to Texas Tech.

Texas Tech, SMU, and the Aggies are being boomed as favorites to take top honors. Tech returns virtually intact the team which won the conference last year. SMU lost only one man, Steve Strange, from its first two units, and figures to be strong. An outside pick is Texas, who, although losing key big men, will have the services of some outstanding big sophomores up from the freshman ranks.

Coach Rogers will have the services of seven returning lettermen as the nucleus of him team this year. Lettermen are Charlie Minor (junior guard) of Pampa; Ronnie Durbon (senior forward) of San Antonio; Tommy Smith (senior guard) of Jefferson; Lewis Qualls (junior center) of Smiley; Jerry Windham (junior center) of Hamilton; Carroll Broussard (senior forward) of Port Arthur; and Jim Keller (junior forward) of Terrell.

New varsity members up from the freshman team are Lynn Merrit (forward) of Robstown; Cecil Ferguson (center) of Smiley; Chuck McGuire (guard) of Dallas; Bennie Lenox (guard) of Clear Creek; Dave Johnson (guard) of San Antonio; and Bill Robinette (forward) of Port Arthur.

Coach Rogers has one junior college transfer this year, Bennie Johnson of Kilgore. Johnson is a sharpshooting 6-3 forward Rogers is expecting to fill the gap left by two other Kilgore products, Don and Pat Stanley.

"At the present time, the work-outs have been real hot," says Rogers. "The team weakness is defense, but this is the best shooting team we've ever had. Broussard is shooting better than ever and is having a fine fall practice. We have one injury. Charlie Minor reinjured the same knee he hurt last winter and will be out an indefinite time."

Broussard, who may become A&M's first All-America basketball player, has the post position clinched. The two-year all-conference performer lacks only 51 points becoming the first man from A&M to score 1,000 points during his varsity career. Last year as a junior he broke the three-year scoring record held by Neil Swisher. Each time he scores a point now it is a school record.

Thus far it is Windham, Qualls, and Lee Walker at center; Bennie Johnson, Robinette, and Durbon at forward, and Lenox, Smith, and Dave Johnson at guards. Walker is a junior squadman.

Sandy Stephens, who has been applying that golden winning touch for Minnesota's Golden Gophers, was selected the college football back of the Week Tuesday in The Associated Press Poll.

INTRAMURALS

Last night, in the Class A intramural basketball semi-finals, Sqd. 6 scraped by Sqd. 2, 35-33, to win a berth in the finals against F-1, which beat Sqd. 7 earlier. F-1 is the team favored by most of the intramural officials to win the Corps championship Monday night.

Undefeated F-1 kept on its season tradition yesterday afternoon in DeWare Field House by crushing Sqd. 7, 46-29. Height and deadly shooting made the victory an easy one for F-1.

Jerry Jack, who seemed to be the only man who could hit for Sqd. 7, led the game scoring with 20 points. He was followed by Bert Piram of F-1 with 19.

In Class B football yesterday E-3 edged D-3 by a single point in a 6-6 contest. B-1 defeated Sqd. 9, 8-0, and G-2 edged out F-3, 14-0.

But they will be up against a scrappy team in Sqd. 6. In the game last night with Sqd. 2, Sqd. 6 trailed throughout the entire game but came back to win. At the half it was Sqd. 2, 20-15, and they kept at least a four-point lead until the fourth quarter. Then Sqd. 6 caught fire and began closing the gap until Gary Sligart tied it up with a minute left to play.

Sqd. 2 lost the ball to Sqd. 6's full-court press and Jim Schnabel dribbled back up-court, holding

Bare-Backed Beachbomb

LESSON 2 - What about standards?

Advanced students of girl watching never waste eyeball effort watching girls who are not beautiful. Standards must be kept high.

But how do we judge whether a girl is worth watching? Although many strict academicians might shudder at our aesthetics, we must insist that a girl is beautiful if she is beautiful to you. (That's the beauty of girl watching. Every girl is beautiful to someone!) For example, many observers have pointed out that the Bare-Backed Beachbomb (see above) has a weak chin.

Yet none of these keen-eyed experts would deny that she is indeed an attractive specimen. And, speaking of standards, don't forget to keep your smoking standards high. Smoke Pall Mall!
