Work Starts On College's Outdoor Pool

Workers Set June Completion Date

Sometime next June, the hot Texas sun will be shining down on what will probably become one of A&M's most popular facilities.

The big attraction is the school's new outdoor, olympic-type swimming pool.

Workers and machinery are already busy gouging a hole out of the ground to fit the pool's lengthy dimensions. Completion is expected by June, which is still early enough in the summer to give students, faculty and staff members a chance to try things out.

Howard Badgett, manager of the Office of Physical Plant, said the pool will be L-shaped. It is 165 feet (more than half the length of a football field) by 60 feet in the main area, with a projection 35 feet wide and 45 feet long at the end.

Exact location is the site formerly occupied by the old wooden Little Gym, or handball court building. The pool will be connected to the west side of the P. L. Downs Jr. Natatorium.

Badgett said the contract was awarded to R. B. Butler, Inc., of Bryan, on a bid of $196,080. A gift of $75,000 toward construction costs has been provided by the Association of Former Students.

Carl E. Tishler, head of the Department of Health and Physical Education, said the long leg of the pool will have eight 165-foot lanes and the short leg will have six 75-foot lanes. Depth of the main area will be four to four and one-half feet, and the short area will be nine to 15 feet deep.

Designs call for the diving area to have two one-meter boards, two three-meter boards, a five-meter platform and a 10-meter platform.

Tishler said the pool will be used for class work, intramural sports and recreation for students, faculty and staff members of the college.

The structure will be made of reinforced concrete. Upper walls are to be covered with ceramic tile and the lower walls with white plaster. Specifications call for heated water facilities and under-water lighting.

Badgett said the usual water filtering and purification equipment will be installed. A pebble-finish walkway will surround the pool.

Zimmerman and Wisdom, Houston architects, are the designers.

"Beyond Reasonable Doubt"

135 SEE GUION PLAY

'Twelve Angry Men' Opens With Swaying Of Emotions

"Whichever way you decide, the verdict must be unanimous!" With these words, an unseen judge introduced the first scene of "Twelve Angry Men," which opened last night in Guion Hall, the Aggie Players' first production of the season.

Unique in its setting, the entire three-act play occurs in a hot, sultry jury room where twelve men argue pro and con concerning the life or death of a teen-age boy accused of stabbing his father.

Underlying theme of the play is the true meaning of the phrase, "beyond a reasonable doubt." At the start, 11 jurors are convinced of the accused boy's guilt; one is not.

As the element of doubt is brought forth by various members of the jury, elements of human nature, diversity of human experience and past environment on their part are clearly illustrated by dialogue as various facets of evidence

Investigation Continues In UT Panty Raid

COLLEGE OFFICIALS SET DISCIPLINARY ACTION TOMORROW

Reports from Austin indicate students are still being questioned after a major panty raid on the campus last Thursday night.

The investigation, according to Dean of Student Life Arno Nowotny, was to have continued through today.

Dean Nowotny said that "about 50 men" had been questioned by Saturday. The Discipline Committee will meet tomorrow afternoon to decide what action will be taken.

Blanket taxes and other identification were taken from some participants by University officials during the raids at women's dormitories and sorority houses. Pictures taken also will be used in identifying participants.

The raid started about 11 p.m. Thursday when Austin firemen answered an alarm at Moore-Hill Hall, where a waste basket was in flames. Residents of Moore-Hill, Brackenridge, Prather and Roberts halls poured into the streets as the fire trucks arrived. The group picked up reinforcements at San Jacinto Dormitory and gathered at Kinsolving Dormitory for the first raid.

Growing to an estimated 2,500 strong, the mob visited Blanton, Kinsolving, Scottish Rite, Carothers and Andrews dormitories, Kirby Hall and various sorority houses. The demonstrations lasted about two hours.

Raiders did not enter any of the women's housing residences. Austin patrolmen assisted University police in breaking up the crowd. Several students were arrested and taken to police headquarters but were later released to University authorities.

One student was treated Friday morning for an "injured nose" believed to have been received during the raids. The Student Health Center would not release his name or information concerning the extent of his injury.

Possible Record Looms At $2,010

By last night $2,010.53 has been counted by Campus Chest workers and all reports were not complete, said 1961-62 Drive Chairman Johnny Anthis.

Anthis said 16 organizations had contributed at least 100 per cent by the campaign goal of "A dollar from an Aggie, for an Aggie." There were 13 corps units and 4 civilian dorms that had not submitted any collections or reports.

"From all reports this seems like the second or third largest drive in its nine-year history," Anthis said. "This is definitely the largest amount collected since 1958, which is as far as our records go."

Last year two separate drives netted only a total of $746.

Anthis, who is chairman of the student welfare committee of the Student Senate is automatically in charge of the fund drive, said concrete figures would not be available until after the A&M-University of Texas game Thanksgiving Day.

"We plan to have tubs for contributions at both the SMU and Texas games," he said.

Squadron 4 was named winner of the bronze plaque awarded for the most money per man given from a Corps unit or a civilian dorm. The 94 cadets of the squadron kicked in $163.75 to win the plaque.

The 16 organizations gaining 100 per cent contribution status during the drive were Companies D-1, B-1, C-2 and B-3, Squadrons 3, 4, 6, 8, 11 and 14, 1st Battle Group Staff, 4th Battle Group Staff, 2nd Group Staff, Corps Staff, The Battalion and the A&M Chapter of the American Ordnance Association.

Overall ratings are 1st Wing, 2nd Wing, 1st Brigade, 3rd Brigade, 2nd Brigade and civilian housing units.

The campaign's original goal was $7,000 by last Friday. Last Wednesday the deadline was extended to yesterday.

"We are well satisfied and pleased, even if we didn't reach the original goal, the workers and committee members are all pleased that we have done so well," Anthis said.

Consistent feature of the fund has been the Aggie Chest, which is used to assist fellow students who suffer a tragedy of some sort, such as an accident, fire or necessary operation.

Special effort is made to investigate each case to assure the fact that the offer is needed and will not be offensive. During its existence, the Campus Chest has brought much-needed help to many hundreds of Aggies who would not have received it otherwise.

Other agencies besides the chest benefit, also; 10 percent goes to the Brazos County Tuberculosis Association; a second 10 percent to the College Station Community Chest, and a third 10 percent to the March of Dimes. The remaining 70 percent is retained in the Aggie Chest.

Nuclear Test End Foreseen After UN Move

STATE DIFFERENCES MAY SPELL DEFEAT FOR RESOLUTIONS

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y.—(AP) The U. N. General Assembly and its political committee approved resolutions yesterday aimed at ending tests of nuclear weapons. Big power differences appeared to doom both in advance.

The assembly adopted a proposal by India and five nonaligned nations urging a voluntary moratorium on testing. It was rejected by the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union.

Earlier the assembly's political committee approved a U. S.-British resolution calling for new East-West negotiations on a test-ban treaty providing effective international controls. The Soviet Union called it a stillborn proposal and said flatly there never would be such negotiations.

The vote in the assembly was 71 to 20 with 8 abstentions. The United States and the Soviet bloc joined in the negative votes. Abstainers were Afghanistan, Belgium, Cuba, Haiti, Netherlands, New Zealand, Spain and Tunisia.

Both U. S. Delegate Arthur Dean and British Delegate J. B. Godber rejected the moratorium on the grounds that it failed to provide for controls. Semyon K. Tsarapkin, the Soviet delegate, said a moratorium would only result in Soviet inferiority in nuclear arms night.

The assembly's committee approved by a vote of 67 to 11 with 16 abstentions a U.S.-British resolution urging a renewal of the test-ban talks that collapsed in Geneva last September.

The opposing votes were cast by the Soviet bloc, Mongolia and Cuba. France, Finland and Yugoslavia abstained, as did some members of the Asian-African bloc. India voted yes. Nine nations were absent.

Mrs. A&M Entries Now Being Taken

ANY AGGIE MAY ENTER WIFE BY THANKSGIVING

Mrs. Jean Vaught, president of the Aggie Wives Council, announced yesterday that entries for the Mrs. Texas A&M contest are now being accepted.

Mrs. Vaught said contestants do not have to belong to or be sponsored by an Aggie wives club. Any Aggie may enter his wife.

The Bryan-College Station Chamber of Commerce has donated a cup to be given to the winning wife. Prizes will also be awarded to the first and second runner-ups.

The selection of Mrs. Texas A&M will be made during a dance Dec. 2 in the Main Ballroom of the Memorial Student Center from 8:30-11:30 p.m. The public is invited and admission will be $2 per couple.

Free baby-sitting services for those attending the dance will be given by the A&M Methodist Church.

Registration for the contest may be made by sending the name, address and telephone number of the contestant along with the $2 entry fee to Mrs. Jean Vaught, 801 Fairview, College Station.

All entries must be in before the beginning of the Thanksgiving holidays.

Aggieland, '62 Club Pictures Deadline Set

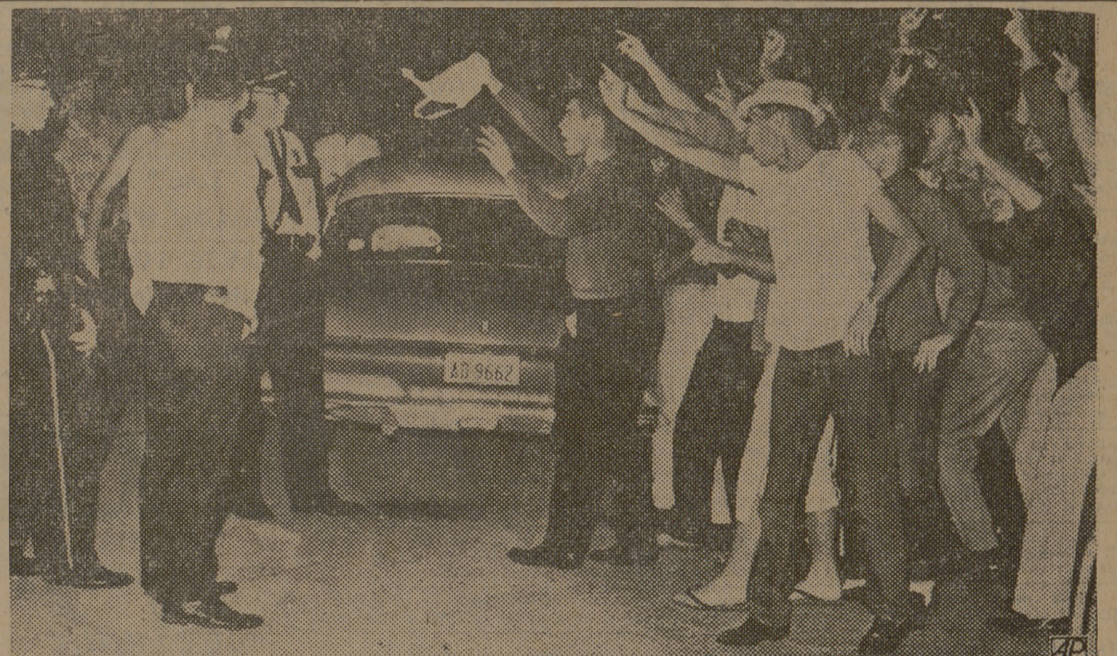

All campus clubs wishing to be in the Aggieland '62, must schedule the taking of their club picture with the Office of Student Publications before Dec. 8.

Additional information must be turned in after the scheduling is made. This includes a write-up of the club's purpose and activities (not to exceed 200 words), a list of officers and positions and the president's and/or the club sweetheart's picture.

Panty Raiders Ignore Police

An estimated 2,500 male students stormed the women's dormitory area at the University of Texas at Austin Thursday night in a panty raid. In several instances, students wrestled with police trying to break up the demonstration. Part of the group, shown here, shouts at police and one waves an article of women's lingerie. (AP Wirephoto)
