

Saxton, Rhome Take Over Lead In Rushing, Passing

Special To The Battalion
The victors did not have a monopoly on the spoils in the Southwest Conference football action over the week-end as new leaders emerged in individual rushing and forward passing.

James Saxton, Texas' wispy water bug, reclaimed the ball-carrying leadership with a school-record total of 173 yards in the victory over SMU. His great performance was highlighted by an 80-yard run from scrimmage that broke the ice in the third quarter. Meantime, Sophomore Jerry Rhome was starring in defeat by completing 13 of 24 pass attempts to give him a league-leading total of 39 completions for the season. This barrage moved Rhome ahead of TCU's Sonny Gibbs, who hit 7 of 11 against Baylor to increase his season totals to 36 of 67.

Gibbs continues as the total offense leader, however, with a gain of 670 yards in 113 plays. His average of 5.9 yards per play is well back of runner-up Saxton, however. The swift Texas half-back is averaging 8.6 on his rushing.

Sharing the spotlight with Saxton were a pair of Rice backs who distinguished themselves in what was probably Rice's peak performance of the year. Fullback Roland Jackson rushed for 105 yards in 19 carries and moved among the league's top ten rushers, while Butch Blume scored a school-record total of 30 points and rushed for 75 yards in ten trips.

Blume's point production exceeded the 24 scored by Dick Moegle against Cornell in 1954 but it was well back of the SWC mark of 44 set by Jelly Woodman of Texas A&M in 1926. Saxton's 178 yards erased the Texas record of 158 that had been shared by Byron Townsend and Gib Dawson.

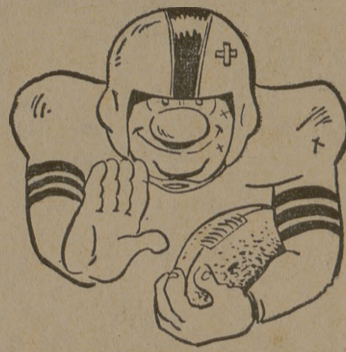

The four teams that started the season with top billings—Texas, Arkansas, Rice and Baylor—led the statistics parade with impressive offensive displays. Rice edged Texas for the day in total offense, 386 to 385, while Baylor and Arkansas were not far back with 349 and 345, respectively.

The Owls scored six touchdowns against Texas Tech, matching their production for the five previous games. Meantime, SMU was standing off the Orange juggernaut for two quarters, but then Saxton and his mates exploded for four touchdowns in the last half. In its five previous games SMU had yielded only one second-half touchdown.

In all probability, Texas retained its national leadership in total offense (431 yards per game) and rushing (325 per game), both of which are better than the SWC season records of 386.5 and 285.7, held by Texas and TCU, respectively.

Baylor, next to challenge unbeaten Texas.

Babe Craig Leads SWC In Punting

DALLAS (AP)—Three changes were effected in Southwest Conference football statistics last weekend and one was by a sophomore.

Jerry Rhome of Southern Methodist took over the passing lead when he connected on 13 throws against Texas.

James Saxton of Texas reclaimed the ball-carrying lead while retaining a share of the scoring leadership.

Babe Craig of Texas A&M, the 1960 conference punting champion, took over the lead for the first time this season. Craig has kicked 14 times for an average of 37.6. Garry Thomas of Texas Christian is second with 37.5.

ALABAMA NO. 2

Longhorns Ranked Nation's Number One Football Team

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The "half-a-point-a-minute" Texas Longhorns were named No. 1 in the race for the national collegiate football championship Tuesday, and it looks as if they'll be hard to dislodge.

The ball-rushing terrors from Austin have three games left, none against leading championship contenders. Next Saturday the Longhorns play disappointing Baylor, a team that has lost half its games. Then come Texas Christian (2-3-1) and Texas A&M (3-3-1).

Only a form reversal of the most stupendous proportions would permit one of these Southwest Conference rivals to beat the powerful Texas outfit, leading the nation in offense and averaging 33-plus points a game.

Most of the other contenders for top honors have a more dangerous finishing stretch.

The Texans were a solid favorite for the No. 1 position this week in The Associated Press poll of a panel of experts.

35 1st Place Votes
They received 35 first-place votes compared with six for second-place Alabama and seven for third-place Ohio State. They tallied 463 points—on the basis of 10 for a first-place vote, 9 for second, etc.—compared with 410 for undefeated Alabama and 365 for once-tied Ohio State.

Louisiana State and Minnesota, who knocked over the top two teams last weekend, moved into contention as No. 4 and No. 5 teams, respectively. Minnesota upset top-ranked Michigan State 13-0, and LSU tripped Mississippi, the No. 2 team, 10-7.

Alabama, currently Texas' strongest rival for top honors, has an easy game this week with Richmond but then must wind up with Georgia Tech and Auburn, both formidable. Ohio State meets Indiana Saturday, plays Oregon next and finishes against tough Michigan.

LSU this week plays a North Carolina team fresh from a victory over Tennessee, and Minnesota jumps from the frying pan into the fire against Iowa. Michigan State is at Purdue, risking a second straight setback, while Mississippi can take it easy against Chattanooga.

The top teams with first-place votes in parentheses:
1. Texas (35)
2. Alabama (6)
3. Ohio State (7)
4. Louisiana State
5. Minnesota
6. Michigan State
7. Mississippi
8. Colorado
9. Georgia Tech
10. Missouri

In yesterday's football, Dale Barber of Sqd. 4 ran the opening kickoff back 60 yards against Sqd. 3 for the only 20-yard-line penetration of the game. Frank Riggs, also of Sqd. 4, sparked his team on both offense and defense. He was playing with a broken nose suffered in Monday football.

Sqd. 8's single touchdown in its victory over Sqd. 5 came as quarterback Jim Jones connected with Paul Crank on a 40-yard pass.

In quarterfinal horsehoes play yesterday, Sqd. 10 defeated Sqd. 1. F-3 beat Sqd. 8 and A-3 beat Sqd. 6. Sqd. 12, the other team to play in the semifinals, was idle by virtue of the drawing for opponents.

Finals in football, horsehoes, ping pong and bowling will be held Thursday afternoon and night. Freshman basketball is now under way and upperclassman football begins Monday.
