Spirit

The word "spirit" is an intangible element of our vocabulary. Webster has one definition, calling it "disposition and frame of mind." Another definition is "intent" or well meaning.

These definitions only illustrate the inadequacy of words in conveying the meaning of "spirit," especially when applied to the indefinable quality that will be burning within the hearts of all Aggies as the world's greatest bonfire goes up in flames tomorrow night.

It is that quality that bands Aggies into one brotherhood throughout the world; that insures lasting loyalty to their school. But with Aggies, it is something slightly more than "spirit"—it is the totally undefinable power that sends chills down the spine when singing the "Spirit of Aggieland"—it can simply be defined as "The Aggie Spirit."

'Nuff' Said?

To The Battalion:

For the benefit of any student who may have overlooked the pertinent paragraph in College Regulations, the following extract is quoted from Page 19 of the booklet:

"The following offense will result in immediate suspension for not less than the remainder of the semester. Going to another campus with the intent to paint or otherwise deface statues or buildings or commit other depredation. Minimum penalty is suspension from the College for the semester in which the act occurs."

The above paragraph applies to all college campuses. In addition in 1954 the Board of Directors of the Texas A&M College System and the Board of Regents of the University of Texas agreed that any student under the control of either of the two boards who was guilty of such offense would be punished by at least being suspended from the college for the semester in which the act occurred.

Let us win the game on the playing field but avoid any acts of the type mentioned above.

Chapel Plans Thanksgiving

All Faiths Chapel will present four Thanksgiving Community Worship Services Thursday, Coordinator of Religious Life Gordon Gay has announced.

Worship services will be delivered at 8 a.m. by Levi Gentry, minister of the A&M Church of Christ; at 9 a.m. by the Rev. Alfred Johnson, chaplain of Episcopal students; at 10 a.m. by the Rev. Byron Lovelady, pastor of the A&M Methodist Church, and at 11 a.m. by the Rev. George Nelson, associate director of the Baptist Student Union.

The program is sponsored by the student chaplains, Baptist Student Union, B'Nai B'Rith Hillel Foundation, YMCA, The Interfaith Council, Student Christian Federation, the Chapel Committee, the Rabi Henry A. Cohen Award and the Ministerial Alliance of College Station.

Gay said the public is invited to the services.

THAT'S POLITICS

ATLANTA (AP) — The Georgia legislature in January will take up a bill to let the attorney general appoint his 23 assistants.

The governor appoints them now, under an old law letting the executive name all but one of the assistants paid out of the attorney general's appropriation.

The theory behind the system, oldtimers say, was that governors didn't want to take a chance on the attorney general building up backing for a governor's race.

Seniors Take Elephant Walk

Elephant Walk, the traditional "last act" for A&M seniors who will attend their last Aggie football game as students Thursday, will be held Wednesday at 11:30 a.m., starting by the flagpole in front of the Academic Building, according to Corps Commander Bill Cardwell.

"Uniform" for the walk will be khaki boot pants, senior boots and khaki shirts with the shirt-tails out. Seniors with 11 o'clock classes are asked to come in the uniform of the day, Cardwell said.

According to The Cadence, "Elephant Walk (is held) before the Thanksgiving Day football game... when the seniors roam aimlessly around the campus, like old elephants wandering off to some secluded spot to await the coming of weath. This event is symbolic of the fact these men who are spending their last year at A&M have almost come to the end of their active usefulness to the 'Twelfth Man'."

Mrs. A&M Deadline Nearing
