Broussard Third Best SWC Scorer

Carroll Broussard, the 1960-61 Southwest Conference scoring champion, is currently the number three point maker in the conference with an average of 17 points per game.

The 6-5 Port Arthur product injured his back early in the season and hasn't hit full stride yet. Through 11 games he has connected on 69 of 156 field goals for a .442 percentage. He is hitting at a .700 clip from the free throw line, with 49 out of 70.

Broussard's best night of the young season came against Auburn during the holidays. He hit 23 against the Plainsmen as A&M defeated Auburn, 52-50. His second best effort came in the losing cause with Arkansas when he tallied 21.

Bennie Lenox, who led the Fish scoring last season, is the Aggies' number two scorer. The 6-1 sophomore guard is hitting 13.3 points per game. He has attempted 120 shots and made 52 for a .433 percentage. His biggest point production came in the game with Auburn when he chalked up 22.

The other Benny on the Aggie squad, Johnson by name, is holding down third place in team scoring. The 6-3 junior college transfer has an 12.1 average for 11 games. His 55 field goals made out of 134 attempted give him a .410 percentage from the floor. Johnson's season high is also the individual season high for the Aggie squad. In the game with Wichita he hit for 25 points in a losing effort.

Senior Guard Tommy Smith hit a career high in the Texas Tech game Saturday night to lead his team to a 70-61 victory. His 21 point spurge catapulted him into fourth place scoring position on the team. He has hit 22 of 53 field goal attempts for a .415 percentage. Smith is also a standout on defense. Against Arkansas he held high-scoring Jerry Carlton to a season low of 12 points.

As a team, the Cadets have outperformed their opponents in running up a 7-4 record. In scoring, the Aggies have averaged 64.5 points per game to 60.7 for their opponents. A&M also holds a season edge in rebounding, 505 to 451.

The team shooting percentage is .403 as compared to .385 for the opposition. Likewise, in free throw shooting the Farmers hold a slight edge percentage-wise, having hit .688 per cent to .680.

A&M has scored a total of 710 points for the season to 668 for the 11 teams they have met thus far.

Fish Spank Cubs, 65-44

Coach Shelby Metcalf's Fish cagers responded with their best game of the winter last night as they soundly beat the Baylor Cubs in Waco, 65-44.

The victory was the second against three defeats for the Fish and it was the first loss for the Cubs.

George Wright, Baylor's sports publicity director, said the Fish were the finest freshman team he has seen this year.

The reason for their fine performance was that the Fish hit 24 of 48 field goal attempts for a 50 per cent average. The Cubs hit on only 32 per cent of their field goal attempts.

Jay Baker, the 6-3 forward from Aldine, led the Fish in scoring with 18 points. Center Tim Timmerman followed with 17 points. Playmaker Paul Timmons dropped in nine points and Tommy Battle had eight points for the Fish.

Baylor's Winston Moore hit for 17 points in the Cub's losing effort.

The Fish led at halftime 25-20. Timmons was tops for the Fish in rebounding as he grabbed nine.

The Fish travel to Austin to battle the Texas Shorthorns in their next game Jan. 15.

Cadets Edge Bears, 54-52

Cold weather had some effect on the Aggies Tuesday night at the Heart of Texas Coliseum at Waco, but they rallied to squeeze past a scrappy Baylor Bear quintet, 54-52.

Aggie Sports Publicity Director Tommy Blake admitted that it felt like it was 40 degrees in the coliseum, but in spite of the cold, the Aggies responded to their second win in SWC play against one loss.

The Ags two big men, Jerry Windham and Lewis Qualls, led the Cadets in scoring with 12 points each. It was Qualls' best game as he controlled the Baylor boards.

Carroll Broussard, who made 10 points, was never fouled for probably the first time in his collegiate career.

Baylor's playmaking guard, Roy Wolfe, took top honors with 19 points and was followed by teammate Herb Barritt who got 17 points. It was another nip and tuck game for the Aggies who led at halftime, 27-26.

After the halftime break, the Aggies appeared to be in command of the game, but fine shooting by Wolfe and Barritt caused the Bears to close the gap. With 11:28 remaining, the Bears led by six points, 45-39 and they had the upper hand. At this point Windham, Qualls and Durbon combined to put the Aggies in the lead to stay. These three Aggies had tremendous second effort with four tip-in shots in the second half.

The Aggies meet the SMU Mustangs at G. Rollie White Coliseum Friday night in their next SWC game.

game of the season as he hit five field goals and added two free throws. He fouled out mid-way in the second half.

It was a low fouling game—the Bears had only 10 fouls and A&M had 13.

Regalia For The January Commencement Exercise
All students who are candidates for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy are required to order hoods as well as doctor's cap and gown. The hoods are to be left at the Registrar's Office no later than 1:00 p. m., Tuesday, January 16 (this will be accomplished by a representative of the College Exchange Store). The Ph. D. hoods will not be worn in the procession since all such candidates will be hooded on the stage as a part of the ceremonies. Candidates for the Master's Degree will wear the cap and gown; ROTC students who are candidates for the Bachelor's Degree will wear the appropriate uniform. All military personnel who are candidates for degrees, graduate or undergraduates, will wear the uniform only. Rental of caps and gowns may be arranged with the Exchange Store. Orders may be placed between 8:00 a. m. Tuesday, January 2 and 12:00 noon Saturday, January 13. The rental is as follows: Doctor's cap and gown $5.25, Master's cap and gown $4.75, Bachelor's cap and gown $4.25. Hood rental is the same as that for cap and gown. A 2% Texas State Sales Tax is required in addition to these rentals. C. E. Tishler, Chairman Conventions Committee 5316
