Jofre Favorite To Take Bantam Title

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP)—Brazil's Eder Jofre was rated a top-heavy favorite Wednesday to capture undisputed possession of the world bantamweight boxing title in Thursday's 15-round bout with Ireland's Johnny Caldwell.

The match is scheduled for 9 p.m. EST. The bantam, 118-pound, division has had two champions for several months, following the retirement of Mexico's Joe Becerra after he was knocked out in a non-title bout Aug. 30, 1960. Jofre, 25, won recognition in South America and by the U.S. National Boxing Association Nov.

8, 1960, when he knocked out Eloy Sanchez, the man who had sent Becerra into retirement. No Brazilian ever has held an undisputed world boxing title. Caldwell, 23, earned European recognition as the world champ by outpointing Alphonse Halimi Mar. 30 and repeating the victory Oct. 31. Halimi was the bantamweight champ before Becerra. Both of the bantams are unbeaten. Willie Pep, former featherweight champ, will referee the match which will be scored by three judges.

Writers Pick Pro Football As Best

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Will professional football in 10 or 20 years replace baseball as our national pastime? "Yes," voted 109 of the 215 sportswriters and broadcasters participating in a recent Associated Press poll. There were 106 dissenters.

Twenty-five voters insisted that pro football already has knocked baseball out of the box as America's No. 1 sport. Fifteen others predicted the grid game will take over in fewer than 10 years.

The question was prompted by a record 1961 attendance of 3,986,159 with an average of 40,675 in the National Football League plus the larger crowds pulled in by the rival American Football League in its second year of operation.

Meanwhile, major league baseball attendance dropped 5.6 per cent despite the addition of two new teams, the Minnesota Twins and Los Angeles Angels. The NFL added one new club, the Minnesota Vikings.

Most of those favoring pro football pointed to the game's almost constant action. "Baseball is dying, claimed one writer. "The excitement of pro football overshadows even the most spectacular of baseball's shows, the World Series. Pro football has so much to offer sports fans who want to see action rather than dull, nine-inning marathons that sometimes last four hours." "Pro football is the top sport right now," insisted another writer. "Baseball has been hurt by longer schedules, the two All-Star games, expansion and the killing off of the minor leagues." The diamond defenders, among other points, noted that pro football games are played only once a week compared to baseball's every day scheduling. Said one dissenter "Baseball attracts the youngsters through Little League and the Babe Ruth leagues and will always be a participant sport than ball."

24-Year-Old Youth To Try 24-Mile Swim In Nevada

BOULDER CITY, Nev. (AP)—A tall, blonde 24-year-old says she will try to swim 24 miles across Lake Mead Sunday.

Mary Margaret Revell, of Detroit, daughter of a Bakersfield, Calif., oral surgeon, expects to spend 12 hours in 50-degree water.

At least four of it will be after dark when desert temperatures drop quickly.

"I want to swim 12 miles across and 12 back," she said, "but it's awfully cold. Last weekend there were winds up to 50 miles an hour."
