Charles E. (Smokey) Harper returned to duty as head athletic trainer at Texas A&M Saturday, and Athletic Director and Head Football Coach Hank Foldberg announced the appointment completes his staff.

Harper was assigned other duties in the department by former

Harper has been at A&M for seven years, coming from Kentucky in 1954.

The new A&M Athletic Department includes:

Hank Foldberg, athletic director and head football coach; Barlow Irvin, assistant athletic director; Pat Dial, business manager of athletics; Mrs. Mary Ruth Wilson, ticket manager; Leonard Brown, Craig Randall, Dick Johnson, Joel Wahlberg, Neil Schmidt, Elmer Smith and Bobby Drake Keith, assistant football coaches.

5 Runners Letter On Champ Squad

Five members of the 1961 A&M cross country team, champions of the Southwest Conference, won letters.

They will be honored along with last season's Aggie football team at the annual winter athletic banquet to be held at Sbis Hall Feb. 10.

Track Coach Charlie Thomas announced the letter winners, including İlhan Bilgutay of Istanbul, Turkey; Thad Crooks of Hooks, E. L. Ener of Jasper, Malcolm Hardee of Groveton and Thomas Johnston of Franklin.

Ener won first place in the SWC Meet at Dallas with a record time of 14:11.8. Bilgutay was third in 14:31.9, Crooks fifth in 14:49.0 and Hardee seventh in 14:52.0.

Crooks, Hardee and Johnston are seniors while Ener and Bilgutay are juniors.

Two New York teams were among the first five of 80 teams in the recent Bermuda Goodwill Golf Tournament Wheatley Hills of East Williston, N.Y., won in a playoff and Rockville of Rockville Centre, N.Y., finished fifth.

Sophomores NEA Design Event Wants American Education Symbol

The National Education Association has announced a design contest to symbolically show the story of American education.

The symbol, which can be a statue or other artistic representation, should illustrate the past, present and direction toward the future of education.

The person who designs the best idea for the symbol, which will be placed at the entrance to the Hall of Education at the New York World's Fair of 1964-65, will be awarded a trip around the world as a member of a travel tour of the NEA. Any educator is eligible for the contest.

A second award, the NEA said, will be a nation-wide air tour ending in a visit to the fair. Five other runners-up will be flown from their homes to New York to visit the fair.

According to the NEA, entries must include a typewritten description and rough sketch of paper. Entries will be judged on the ideas they contain, not artistic quality. Each entry should include the name, address and educational position of the contestant, and should be sent to Hall of Education, Symbol Search, International Fair Consultants, 10 Columbus Circle, New York, 19. Entry deadline is Feb. 28.

Ohio State's Bob Ferguson led Big Ten scorers in 1961 with 54 touchdowns for 54 points. His cousin's Hugh (Pat) Richter was second with 42 points.

NATO

HAS FAILED TO DO ITS JOB!
NATO is well stocked with nuclear weapons. But its army is so small, says Stewart Alsop, that the Reds could demolish it in weeks. In this week's Post, he tells how NATO is courting disaster. Why our army is full of "civilians in uniform." And how we can offset the Soviet threat by a "balance of terror."
