

Half-Nelson

David Glover (50), the A&M Fish's 6-4 center, applies a half-nelson to the Shorthorns' Jimmy Clark (10) during the Texas-A&M freshman game Tuesday night.

Three US Speedskaters Quit; May Hurt America's Chances

OSLO, Norway—(AP)—A colossal snafu involving three U. S. skaters and the parent American Amateur Speedskating Union may have crippled American chances in the world speedskating championships starting Sunday in Moscow.

them backing. Only Rudolph's brother, Eddie, would represent the U. S. in the Lenin Stadium rink against the world's best speedskaters, the source said.

Last Monday, Phil O. Krumm of Milwaukee, secretary-treasurer of the organization, said that Ed Rudolph and Nelson would represent the U. S. in the world meet. He did not mention Gordon Rudolph.

Sqd. 10 First; Sqd. 3 Second

Two errors were made in the Feb. 8 issue of the Battalion regarding the current overall standings in Class A intramurals. The corrected standings in that division are: Sqd. 10 first with 375 points, Sqd. 3 second with 365, Sqd. 6 with 350 and Sqd. 11 fourth with 345.

F-1, which had been reported first with 475 points, is actually ninth.

Weigh-ins for intramural wrestling were held on Monday and Wednesday of this week and the competition will begin Monday. A wrestling demonstration will be held at 5 p.m. today in the wrestling room of the addition to the coliseum so that students may become familiar with rules and the conduct of matches.

Director of Intramurals Charles E. McCandless announced yesterday that practice firing for intramural rifle will begin Wednesday so that each outfit will be able to learn the rules and conduct the matches. Competition will begin on Feb. 26.

He also pointed out that Class A and C volleyball play will begin on the 26th.

McCandless also said that about 15 entries were made for the open gymnastics meet scheduled for the first week in March. A demonstration of the required routines was held yesterday. He cited that students will probably be allowed to make on-the-spot entries when the meet begins.

The gym meet will be judged by Coach Henry H. Walton and members of the gymnastics team. Medals will be given to the individual winners. The events will include trampoline, tumbling, rings, side horse, long horse, parallel bars and horizontal bar.

A&M Golf Coach Still Tough

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF Associated Press Sports Writer

Byron Nelson became 50 years old the other day. Henry Ransom, A&M's golf coach, won the Texas PGA at 51. Gus Moreland won a seniors tournament at Peoria, Ill.

What does all this mean? It means that Texas' most glamorous era in golf has run its course.

Think back 25 years ago—Nelson, Ben Hogan, Lloyd Mangrum, Jimmy Demaret and Ransom were making Texas the most famous state in the nation with their professional golf exploits. Moreland was the toast of the amateur world and there were others like Spec Gokiman and Jack Munger to give the state a boost.

Well Nelson, Demaret, Moreland and Ransom are 50 years old or better, Hogan is 49, soon will be 50, and Mangrum is 47 and virtually retired from championship golf.

Betty Jameson and Babe Zaharias were winning the amateur championships among the women. Both became top professionals, too. The Babe is dead, Miss Jameson still follows the pro golf trail but doesn't win tournaments anymore.

A great era has gone and there may never be another one to match it even with all the fine young golfers now plodding along the trail.

But golf still is big stuff in Texas. This year it will offer an even $200,000 in prize money—the all-time high for the state.

Last year the total was around $190,000. The reason for the increase is because the Houston Classic will be for $50,000 this year. It was $40,000 in 1961.

The other tournaments will keep their prize money at the same figures.

Houston starts the golf parade this time, its tournament scheduled for April 19-22. The Texas

Open at San Antonio, with $30,000 in prize money, is set for April 26-29.

May 10-13 the $40,000 Colonial National Invitation comes up at Fort Worth.

May 24-27 the Dallas Civitan Open, a top women's tournament, will be held with $10,000 on the line.

June 1-3 the Babe Zaharias Open will be staged at Beaumont with $7,500 up for grabs.

The Texas PGA, which carries a $5,000 tag, will be at Corpus Christi in August.

Aug. 31-Sept. 3 the Dallas Open with $30,000 prize money, is scheduled for the Oak Cliff Country Club.

In October or November San Antonio is expected to again host its Civitan Open for the women with $7,500 in prize money.

The golf show closes out in November with the $20,000 Golf Triangle Invitation tournament at Beaumont.
