CAN KENNEDY CLEAR UP
THE STATE DEPARTMENT

SNARL

J.F.K. once tossed a long-winded State Department report right in the wastebasket. It was his reaction to the department's endless red tape. In this week's Post, you'll learn how the State Department is bogged down by paper pushing and committees. What Kennedy is doing to streamline the operation. And why one insider feels the situation is just about hopeless.

After experiencing a mild scare—being behind at intermission, 42-34—A&M's cagers came out in the second stanza and hit a phenomenal 69 per cent from the floor to down a fighting Arkansas Razorback team, 89-79, in G. Rollie White Coliseum Friday night.

As the Aggies scored 89 points, their season high, they also hit a season high in the number of fouls, 31.

Arkansas wound up with a total of 27 personals in a game in which referees Bo McAllister and Percy Penn seemed to be tooting their whistles every second.

A&M's leading scorer, Carroll Broussard was top point maker for the Cadets as he dropped in 21 points after only scoring five in the first 20 minutes of play.

Broussard hit on seven of nine field goal attempts and made two at the charity line to lead the Aggies over the Hogs.

Jerry Carlton, Arkansas' fine playmaker and scorer who is second to SMU's Jan Loudermilk in SWC scoring, took top honors in the contest with 24 points. Carlton, who is third in the nation in free throw accuracy, made good on 10 out of 11 from the charity line and Tommy Boyer, the nation's leader in that department, hit on five or six attempts.

Four other Aggies hit the double figures in scoring—Jerry Windham and Benny Johnson with 16 each, Bennie Lenox with 14, and Johnson with 11.

Dave Johnson, the Aggies' 6-1 sophomore guard, played one of his finest games as he grabbed nine rebounds and held Carlton to only four points in the second half.

In the first half the Aggies could shoot only 30 per cent from the field and the Hogs went to the dressing room with an eight-point lead after the score had been knotted four times and the lead changed hands eight times.

Then in the second half Coach Bob Rogers' Cadets came out and hit on 22 of 32 attempts from the floor. Broussard started hitting his patented looping jump shot and the Aggies grabbed the lead which the Hogs could never regain.

A&M controlled the boards—50-42—and outshot the Razorbacks, 49 to 40 per cent.

The Aggies travel to Lubbock to battle Texas Tech tonight.

Whoa There

"COEDS"

"Oh hurry, Harvey. They've started twisting already."

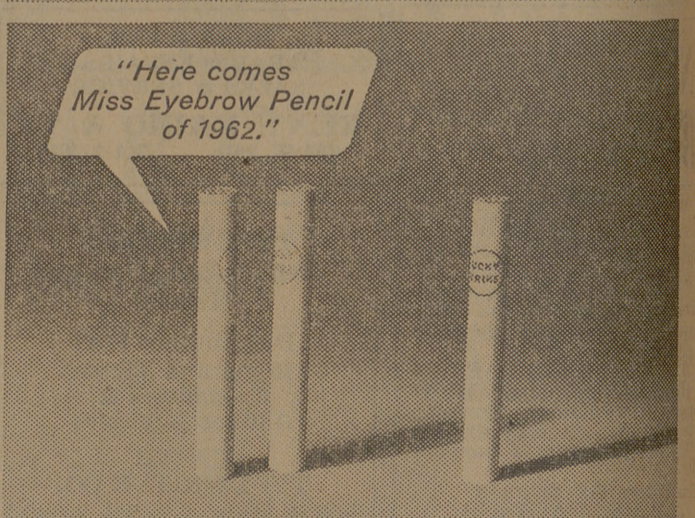

"There goes Ethel—carried away again!"

"Stretch pants don't seem to do a thing for me."

"Here comes Miss Eyebrow Pencil of 1962."

COEDS AND SUPERCOEDS. Coeds accept a Friday-night date on Friday afternoon. Supercoeds have to keep date books. Coeds wear black and gray. Supercoeds wear green and red and yellow. Coeds talk about "The College." Supercoeds discuss the world. Coeds smoke dainty, tasteless cigarettes that they think proper. Supercoeds smoke Luckies because Luckies taste better. There are many supercoeds, because college students smoke more Luckies than any other regular. Are you a supercoed?
