The senior class, or part of it anyway, attended the first senior class meeting in seven years (or thereabouts) yesterday afternoon in Guion Hall. (There's a story on page one). Not in the story, however, are these few important items. (Printed here for the benefit of the 800 or so seniors who couldn't make the meeting).

—Class of '62 Historian Don Dodgen want seniors to help him compile the history of the class. Anyone who knows of something (printable) about the class or its members should contact him.

—And Social Secretary Johnny Martinez reminds seniors that the Ring Dance (May 19) is "probably the best thing you'll get this year."

Tripod was at the seniors' meeting. He came wet. Because he was wet, he smelled. He smelled like a wet dog. One of our "three-button leaders" gave an order. "Take off, Tripod!" he said. Tripod looked at him. Then Tripod lay down at his feet. The "leader" left.

When are people going to learn, you just don't tell Tripod what to do!

The Fish Drill Team is back from Laredo (where they took third place in the George Washington Birthday drill competition). One member of the team brought back this story: He was in Old Mexico about 1 a. m. Saturday in his '48 Studebaker acting like a tourist. He and some buddies had just started back to the U. S. side of the river when:

- his clutch went out
- his differential locked
- his transmission broke down
- and the battery went dead.

So he sold the car in Nuevo Laredo for $30 and hitchhiked back to school.

—Sound Off—

(Editor's note: The following letter was addressed to Class of '62 President John Waddell in response to a class plan to obtain a 75 per cent return on contributions to the Development Fund of the Association of Former Students. See story on Page 1.)

Congratulations on the courage and initiative of your class in establishing this wonderful new tradition. It is my belief, that your campaign will be highly successful and have a powerful impact on our entire Association, especially the older class agents and certainly graduating classes of the future.

It appears to me that in 1972 at your 10th Anniversary Reunion your class will surely have a great heritage to look back on because it is my belief that you will set a new all-time high in

"... it all started when I began feeding them on th' window sill ... !"
