

Seniors Star In Aggie Victory

Ags Open Season With Win Over Texas Lutheran, 4-3

CAROL BURNETT

—FROM HAT-CHECK GIRL TO TV STAR
A few years ago, Carol Burnett was checking hats for $30 a week. Today she's TV's hottest new comedienne. Says Carol: "I've been successful far beyond anything I've deserved." In this week's Post, she tells how a "mystery man" financed her career. How she gets along with Garry Moore. And why success jinxed her marriage.

It was "Carroll Broussard Appreciation Night" at AggieLand yesterday, but in the basketball game against the Baylor Bears, it was another senior, Ron Durbon, who stole the show. The final score—Aggies 84; Bears 61.
The Ags ended the season with a 15-9 season mark and a 9-5 in SWC play.
Durbon, a 6-3 forward from San Antonio, played the greatest game of his career as he dropped in 31 points and grabbed 14 rebounds to lead the Aggies in both departments.
The 31 tallied by Durbon also was the top scoring effort by an Aggie during the 1961-62 season. Broussard, the fabulous all-around performer, hit 19 points in this his final game at A&M and took 11 rebounds off the boards. He ended his career with 1,383 points which broke Neil Swisher's record by 399 points.

The Aggies, rebounding from a disheartening loss to Texas Tech last week, played one of their finest games this season—as a team. A&M out-shot the Bears, 44.3 per cent to 31 per cent and grabbed more rebounds, 57-41.
Hitting from the deep corner, Durbon made good on 14 out of 20 field goal attempts for a 70 per cent average. Broussard hit on eight out of 18 tries for 44 per cent.
The Aggies started quick as Durbon dropped in a jumper after only four seconds were gone and Baylor never was in the ball game. At the half, the Aggies led the Bears, 47-29 and Durbon and Broussard had 22 and 11 points, respectively.
The three Aggie seniors—Durbon, Broussard and Tommy Smith—compiled 54 points between them, only seven short of the entire Baylor team.
Top man for Baylor was Herbert Barritt, who made 22 points and grabbed nine rebounds. Barritt was followed in the scoring column by Don Brownlee's 13.
Before the contest, Broussard was awarded a plaque from the school in appreciation of his tremendous sportsmanship, leadership and outstanding play on the court. Broussard's family were introduced and Carroll then thanked the school by saying, "This is the greatest thrill of my life."
Coach Bob Rogers would probably rather lose his big toe than Broussard, but Carroll will be going to higher goals after graduation this spring. After Durbon's performance, Rogers probably feels the same about his loss.

Behind the line-drive hitting of Ray Hall and Roger Crouch plus the fine relief pitching of Richard Beller, the Aggie baseballers edged the Texas Lutheran Bulldogs, 4-3, yesterday on Kyle Field. It was the first game for each team.
Beller, a 6-0 sophomore lefty from Victoria, relieved Chuck McGuire in the sixth inning and allowed no runs and only one hit in the remaining four stanzas.
The two big Aggie sluggers, outfielders Hall and Crouch, each grabbed a pair of hits. Hall had a double, a single and an RBI while Crouch contributed two singles and two RBIs.
In the five innings that McGuire pitched, he gave up three runs on five hits.

A&M jumped off to a quick lead in the first inning on a walk to George Hargett and a single by Crouch. TLC went ahead in the third but the Cadets knotted the score in the bottom half of that inning on an error and Hall's single.

In the sixth, Hall scored on a single to center by catcher Bill Puckett. The final Aggie tally came in the seventh when Hall scored on Crouch's single.
The Bulldogs out-hit the Aggies 6 to 5.
A&M meets St. Mary's in a two-game series on Kyle Field Friday and Saturday. The Friday game begins at 3 p.m. and the Saturday contest at 2 p.m.

WHY DO SO MANY SMALL BUSINESSES FAIL?

FAIL

Last year, 16,000 U.S. firms went out of business. But, says Commerce Secretary Luther Hodges, many could have pulled through if their owners had known the ABC's of economics. In "Speaking Out" in this week's Post, he gives the two main reasons for business failure. Says Hodges: "Americans are 'economic babies' and outlines a 3-part plan for coping with economic problems."

Fish Top Cubs By 3 In Finale

Fish center Tim Timmerman looped 25 points through the basket last night as Coach Shelby Metcalf's freshman cagers outlasted the Baylor Cubs, 65-62, in a desperate see-saw battle.
By winning last night's game, the Fish ended a 12-game season with a 6-6 record. They had a 5-3 record in SWC play.
The surprising Cubs made things look glum for the Fish through most of the game. Earlier in the season, the Aggie freshmen had handled them easily, 65-44, in Waco.
It was 35-30 in favor of Baylor at the half, and after a brief spurt that nearly put them ahead at the beginning of the second period, the Fish fell behind again. With 3:48 left in the game, however, David Glover sank a layup that put the Fish out in front, 61-60.
Formidable Winston Moore of the Cubs fouled out a few seconds later and Timmerman and Paul Timmins commenced to build the slim lead that prevailed at the end. David Stiles had done yeoman service at guarding Moore and held him to 13 points.
