

Ags Down Ponies, 7-2 For First SWC Win

The Aggies baseballers made it five wins in a row as they downed the winless SMU Mustangs on Kyle Field Saturday, 7-2. In doing so, the Aggs remain undefeated for the season and are 1-0 in Southwest Conference competition.

Stout pitching from Chuck McGuire and power hitting by Dave Johnson, Jack Singley and Bill Puckett paved the way to victory for the Cadets.

McGuire pitched eight innings and gave up only one run on five hits as he picked up his first win of the season. Johnny Crain relieved him in the ninth and allowed one run on one hit.

The Aggies started out fast in the first inning as they batted around and scored four big tallies. Jack Singley led off and walked, Bill Grochett and Roger Crouch singled and Johnson followed with a two-run double. A&M's two other runs in the first stanza were unearned.

In the fourth inning Puckett led off with a towering drive over the right field fence for his first homer of the year. After McGuire struck out, Jack Singley slammed a round-tripper over the left field fence.

The Aggies scored a singleton in the sixth frame on a double by Jack Singley and an error.

SMU scored once each in the eighth and ninth innings.

Leading batters for the Mustangs were Jim Stogo and David Thornton who each collected two hits.

The Aggies open a three-game series with the University of Minnesota Mar. 21 on Kyle Field with a doubleheader starting at 1 p.m. The game on Mar. 22 will begin at 3 p.m.

Aggie Wrestlers Top TU, 24-10

Coach R. K. Wieder's Aggie Wrestling Club discouraged the Texas University mat team Friday, winning a comeback victory, 24-10.

Texas must have had bright hopes at the beginning of the meet. It was run off starting with the lower weight classes. Longhorns Rick Nordquist, a 117-pounder, and Ben Nowotny, 130 lbs., won by pins over 121-lb. Danny Loyd and 129-lb. Larry Bowen, respectively, in the first two matches.

With five points for each pin victory, the Texas team led 10-0. They failed to score another point

Football Game

Tickets On Sale

Tickets are now on sale for the annual Maroon-White intrasquad football game from any member of the "T" Association. Larry Broussard, president of the Association, announced today.

The game will conclude spring training and will be played March 31 at 7:30 p.m.

The duats, which cost $1, will also admit the holder to the TU-A&M baseball game at 2 p.m. on March 31.

Proceeds from the games will go to the "T" Association and student activities will not be used.

Thinclads Take Six Firsts At Odessa And Baton Rouge

A&M's varsity thinclads traveled in two directions last weekend, the four relay men to the West Texas Relays at Odessa, and the bulk of the team (those that aren't hurt, that is), to Baton Rouge, La., for the LSU-Rice-A&M triangular track meet.

The sprint medley relay team, consisting of R. E. Merritt, Jerry Anderson, George Tedford and Thad Crooks, entered only one event at Odessa. With Merritt running the 440-yard portion, Anderson and Tedford the 220's, and Crooks the finishing half-mile, the Ags turned in a 3:28.2 performance to win. Texas was second with 3:29.1.

Nelson Second in Special 100-Yard Dash

Aggie freshman Ted Nelson also made the trip to West Texas with the relay team. Running unattached, Nelson took second in a special 100-yard dash which featured former Texas sprinter Ralph Alsbaugh. Alsbaugh won the race with a 9.3 sprint. Nelson's time was a respectable 9.4.

Ags Take Second at Baton Rouge

The remainder of Coach Charlie Thomas' track squad collected 53 points to end up between LSU, which had 73½, and Rice, which had 42½.

Ag distanceman Ihan Bilal of Istanbul, Turkey, turned 9:32.4 for the 2-mile run. Time destroyed the meet record of 9:37.5 set in 1863 by James of LSU.

Sophomore shotputting by the Ags, Danny Roberts, set an unbeaten record for the event. He tossed the pellet slightly less than his own performance.

A&M second first place in the high jump as Dan cleared the bar at 6-2½.

High hurdler Thomas copped another first place in Ags with a 14.7 time.

Distanceman E. L. Ener took final first for A&M with a performance in the mile run and the relay team was in the 440-yard relay and the relay.

The following match, in the 147-lb. class, was a close, 6-4, decision. 145-lb. Harold Brent came out on top of Texas' Bill Haines, a 147½-pounder.

A&M got its first pin in the fourth match. 154-lb. Wes Green overpowered the half-pound lighter Keith Hudson with 37 seconds remaining in the first round.

The Longhorns had no representative in the 177-lb. division and Bill Shaw won an easy forfeit victory for five more counters for the Ags.

A&M had no heavyweight wrestler on hand so 174-lb. Gary Terzian had to wrestle Texas' Jim Barber, who tipped the scales at 200½. Terzian, last week's winner in the 177-lb. class in intramural wrestling, outlasted the bigger man and took a 3-1 decision in the match to add the final three points to A&M's total.

The Longhorns will have a second chance at the Aggie Wrestling Club on Mar. 31, in Austin.

Dick Bass of the Los Angeles Rams averaged 30.3 yards on each of his 23 kickoff returns during the 1961 National Football League season.
