JFK Likes Tax Bill

By EDMOND LEBRETON
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy said Thursday the tax revision bill cleared for House action "will truly serve the national interest" and be consistent with budget needs.

The House Ways and Means Committee, which has extensively revised Kennedy's recommendations on the measure, pared down the amount of tax rewards to businesses spending money on modern facilities. Proponents calculated the measure would not endanger a balanced budget.

Kennedy sent a "Dear Wilbur" letter to Chairman Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., congratulating him and his committee colleagues on the work they had done.

The committee completed the task at a brief session. A previous supposedly final version had been cleared last week after a year's work by the committee. Republican minority members complained that the latest overhaul was achieved through "railroading" and "political legerdemain."

The House Rules Committee, which had withheld approval until it could look at the slimmed-down version, quickly cleared the measure and House leaders set aside debate to begin next Wednesday, with a vote likely Thursday.

DAVID SUSSKIND SAYS: 95% OF OUR MOVIES ARE

JUNK

Why pick on TV? asks David Susskind. The movies are just as lousy. In this week's Saturday Evening Post, the whiz kid of television lashes out at all American culture. He says Hollywood is run by "mental midgets." Popular music is "enough to chill my blood." Best-sellers are "jam-packed with sex." And then he points out the one bright spot in American life.

Seniors Favor GRE, Poll Shows

By KENT JOHNSTON
Battalion Staff Writer

"Those seniors who do not take the Saturday Graduate Record Exams will be hurting A&M," dean of instruction William J. Graff said Thursday. He urged attendance, saying that the tests will be used for long-range improvement of the instructional programs of the college. "We can't afford to be swamped with make-up tests later on," he said.

Although 85 per cent of the seniors polled about the tests were in favor of them, many objected to the Saturday scheduling of the exams which require full class attendance to be valid.

John Nicholson, a senior in the 1st Group Staff, said, "I think the tests are a good idea, but it's bad that we weren't given enough warning and that information about the tests wasn't clear. It seems the tests could be given more at the convenience of the students."

Graff said that the tests had to be scheduled on Saturday because lecture rooms are tied during the week. Much preparation and expense went into contracting the exams from a national testing agency, Educational Testing Service, he said. The contract calls for the testing of all seniors at one time in order to preserve the accuracy of the exams.

Ed Kasper, zoology major, Groves, said, "The exams are a good thing to be given, because that way the college can show how well the various departments are doing."

Charles Wehring, a Christian accounting major, said, "I'd like to take the tests if they will help the college in any way but I don't think that they will help either the college or me."
