

Annual Maroon-White Game Saturday Night

When the A&M football team moves onto Kyle Field for its Annual Maroon-White ending spring training Saturday night, six of the Aggies will be at different positions than the ones they played last season.

Coach Hank Foldberg's squad will be divided into the Maroons and the Whites for the 7:30 p.m. kickoff.

Saturday is Spring Sports Day on the A&M campus and a crowd of more than 6,000 is expected for the grid contest.

Foldberg and his assistant coaches are not sure the personnel moves will be permanent.

"We may move a couple of boys back to their old posts, to new ones or move others. We won't know for sure until we have finished studying and grading our spring training films and reports," Foldberg said.

Three of the moves involve varsity members last season and three others freshmen advancing to the varsity.

Lee Roy Caffey, a starter at fullback last season, is being tried at left halfback while Ronnie Brice, a quarterback, is currently running at right halfback. Pat Barton, center last year, is at tackle.

The fresh changes involve Gerald Edwards from quarterback to fullback, Melvin Simmons from guard to tackle and Ken McLean from fullback to end.

Features of Spring Sports Day include a reunion of A&M lettermen in all sports, a barbecue for the lettermen and their wives and dates, a Southwest Conference baseball game between the Aggies and Texas Longhorns at 2 p.m. and the football game that night.

Lettermen are requested to register in the lobby of G. Rollie White Coliseum upon arrival, and the registration card will serve as a ticket to the athletic events.

Foldberg said mail from the lettermen indicated that more than 400 will attend the reunion, sponsored by the Athletic department.

The barbecue to be held from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. is not open to the general public, only the lettermen and their wives or dates.

Members of the Aggie "T" Association on the campus are in charge of the ticket sale for the grid contest, and receipts will go to that organization for its activities.

Larry Broadus of Caldwell, president of the Association and Robert Koepke of Houston, publicity chairman, said the tickets may be purchased from any "T" man or from various locations in the area.

Foldberg and his staff have just released the team divisions for the intra-squad scrimmage. They are:

Detroit Trades For Milt Plum

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Lions of the National Football League traded quarterback Jim Ninowski, halfback Howard Hopalong Cassidy and lineman Bill Glass to the Cleveland Browns Thursday for quarterback Milt Plum, halfback Tom Watkins and linebacker Dave Lloyd.

Plum, the league's leading passer the last two seasons, answers the Lions' need for a top-flight quarterback. Glass, a defensive end, was the big man in the trade for the Browns, who have needed help in their defensive line.

Ninowski, former Michigan State star, is returning to the Browns after two seasons with the Lions. He was Detroit's No. 1 quarterback most of last season when the Lions finished second in the Western Division. Cassidy is a six-year veteran of the game and was a two-time All-American halfback at Ohio State.

Glass played his college ball at Baylor and completed four seasons with the Lions.

MAROONS

Centers: Jerry Hopkins, Donnie Martell, Gary Williams.

Right guards: Yancy Bounds, Jim Harper, Dallas Kuhn.

Right tackles: James Craig, Waylon Ward, Robert McGaughey.

Right ends: Larry Crutsinger, Ken McLean, Charles Knight.

Quarterbacks: James Willenborg, Jim Keller, Condy Pugh.

Left halfbacks: Jim Linnstaedter, Budgie Ford, Mike Pitman.

Right halfbacks: Ronnie Brice, Travis Reagan, Raymond Kubesch.

Fullbacks: Sam Byer, Gerald Edwards, Gary Cavasas.

(Injured and will not play: HB George Hargett, G Jim Airtart, T Ray Chancellor, QB John Sparling, HB Kenneth Kipp).

Centers: Ray Kubala, Edwin Beckom, Pat Smithson.

Right tackles: Bobby Evans, Maynard Rogers, Raymond Kramm, Kenneth Smith.

Quarterbacks: John Erickson, Joe McIlhany, Bobby Elliott.

Left halfbacks: Lee Roy Caffey, Jerry Nichols, Pat Nelson.

(Injured and will not play: T John Brink, G Keith Huggins, E Jack Roach, HB Ronnie Ledbetter, G Ronnie Moore).

Dave Johnson

Dave Johnson, A&M's star shortstop, is currently having a terrific season at the plate and in the field. The sophomore basketball-baseball player is leading the Aggies in batting with a .500 average in Southwest Conference play. He, along with his teammates, will try to end Texas' domination of SWC baseball on Kyle Field Saturday afternoon.

PEANUTS

ON KYLE FIELD Ags-Horns Engage In Important Battle

A&M and Texas will put their undefeated Southwest Conference baseball records on the line at Kyle Field Saturday at 2 p.m.

The league leaders, both 2-0, contest for sole ownership of first place in a game that is expected to attract the largest crowd in several seasons to the Aggie diamond.

Coach Tom Chandler's young Cadets, 8-2 for the year, will be playing before the home folks and several hundred Aggie lettermen in all sports who will have returned to the campus for a Spring Sports Day reunion.

A&M, which has fashioned its fine record with good pitching, fielding and timely hitting, will enter the game as a slight underdog due mainly to having to face one of the nation's top-ranking pitchers.

He is Tom Belcher, Coach Bibb Falk's Texas ace who is 4-0 on the year and has never been beaten by a Southwest Conference club. Belcher has beaten the Aggies five times.

Chandler will counter with Ed Singley, a junior righthander with a 1-0 mark or sophomore Richard Beller, a lefty owning a 4-1 record.

The teams' statistics reveal extremes — A&M the defensive unit with a combined earned run average of only 2.10 for its seven pitchers and a mediocre .203 batting average; Texas the power club, its earned run average 4.34 but a hefty batting mark of .290.

A&M has two players hitting above .300, and both are sophomores. David Johnson leads the club at .433, and has six double home runs and 13 runs.

Frank Stark is hitting three home runs and six runs.

Five Texas regulars are .324 or higher, led by man Pat Rigby, .414.

er David Skinner, .375, Gary London, .368, and Ed Kasper, .357, and Chuck Knutson, .324.

The Aggies' two SWCs were over SMU, 7-2, 10-5. Texas has beaten 4-3, and Rice, 11-4.

A&M has one of the baseball clubs composed of phenoms, five juniors and seniors.

Doctor Rep Boxing Dan

TOKYO (AP) — A boxing commission doctor said that, medically speaking, he should be outlawed.

Dr. Takashi Sakabe said of a five-year study of injuries caused by boxing, he personally opposed to the sport "as studies show that strict supervision is necessary to prevent serious injuries that can be prevented."

He said that from a viewpoint there was justification for stopping the sport because of the preponderance of head injuries it causes. The Tokyo doctor said 310 boxing injuries during the past five years were of the head or eyes.
