

Aggies Invade Rice Saturday

Coach Tom Chandler's Aggie baseballers travel to Houston Saturday for another all-important Southwest Conference battle with the Rice Owls.

The Aggies have compiled a 9-3 season record and have a 3-1 SWC mark. Wednesday's loss to the Baylor Bears, 2-0, knocked the Cadets from the unbeaten ranks, but they continue to share the league lead with the Texas Longhorns.

The Owls have a 5-2 season record and are 1-1 in conference play. They are considered to be one of the top teams in the SWC, but got a slow start this spring due to the death of the Rice baseball coach, Dell Morgan.

Two of the Owls' top players are athletes from other sports. Randy Kerbow, Rice catcher, is the club's leading hitter with a .417 batting average. Kerbow is starting quarterback on Jess Neely's football team. Jim Fox, an outstanding guard on John Frankie's basketball team, is the third baseman. Fox is the second top batter with a .370 and leads the team in hits with 10.

Rice has one of the top pitchers in the conference this year—Frank McKeown. In 25 innings this spring, he has allowed only one earned run for a 0.36 average.

McKeown is the expected starter against the Aggies and he will probably be faced with Ed Singley, the winner over the Texas Longhorns last Saturday. McKeown has a 4-0 record while Singley has a 2-0 mark.

Two other top hurlers on the Owl team are Wayne McClelland and Ken Schoppe. Both pitchers are lettermen while McKeown is the "rookie." He was a varsity player last year but only as a reserve outfielder, then suddenly he blossomed in non-league trials as a welcome mound "find" for the Owls.

Chandler's corps has been a team of strong pitching and sparse but timely hitting. Only in the Baylor game did the Aggies fail to come up with that important timely base hit.

Shortstop Dave Johnson continues to lead the team in hitting with a .394 average. He is followed by Frank Stark and Bill Puckett.

Ag Tracksters To Texas Relays

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—The Texas Relays, drawing more than 1,100 athletes from 97 schools in four classes, open Friday with Kansas, Oklahoma State and Abilene Christian expected to be the big winners in the university division.

A dozen records, less than the usual quota, are due.

Three 15-foot pole vaulters, a high jumper who has gone over the magical 7-foot mark and a troop of terrific sprinters who will vie in the 100 meters feature the individual events.

The pole vault record in the university-college class appears due for a trimming since it is only 15-1 and the fellow who set it, George Davies of Oklahoma State, now Arizona, won't be back. Baylus Bennett of Texas, Fred Hansen of Rice and Dexter Elkins of Southern Methodist all have exceeded 15 feet this season.

Colin Ridgway of Lamar Tech, who leaped 7 feet 1/4 inch in the Border Olympics, may wipe out the high jump record of 6 feet 9 inches.

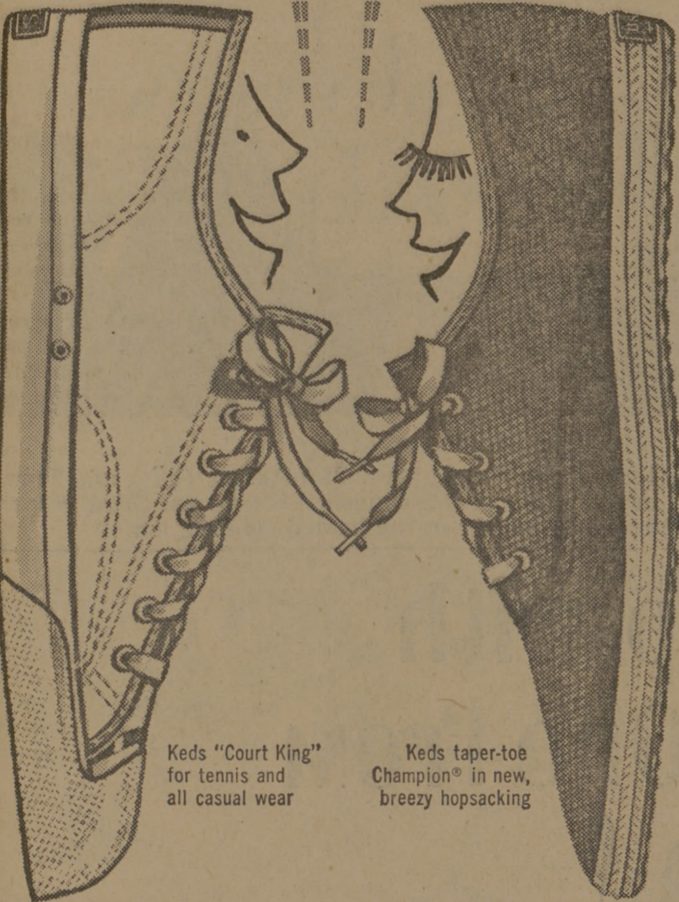

The 100-meter dash, an invitational event, matches such sprinters as R. L. Lasater of East Texas State, who did a wind-aided 9-2 in the 100-yard dash; Charley Frazier of Texas Southern, with a 9.5 to his credit; Ralph Alspaugh, former Texas star with a wind-helped 9.2; Dave Styron of Northeast Louisiana, the defending 100-meter champion, who has turned a 9.6 100 this season, and Ray Wesley, 9.6 man from Oklahoma State.

Gymnasts Host SWC Teams

A&M's gymnasts host other Southwest Conference schools in the annual "unofficial" SWC meet Saturday at the A&M Consolidated High gymnasium at 3 p.m.

Gymnastics is not a conference or varsity sport, therefore, the unofficial name is used. All schools in the SWC have been invited, but only Baylor, Texas and A&M have active teams. The other schools may send individuals in certain events, according to Henry Walton, the Aggies' gymnastics coach.

Competition will be held in free exercise, side horse, long horse, rope climb, high bar, parallel bars, tumbling, still rings and trampoline.

The admission will 25 cents for all students (including college students) and 50 cents for adults.

A&M's gymnastics club has participated in four meets this spring and next week they travel to Dallas to compete in the Southwestern AAU Gymnastics Championships.
