

New Scouting Fraternity

Dean of Students James P. Hannigan presented the Alpha Phi Omega pin to the fraternity's new president, James M. Mayo at their organizational meeting last week. Others pictured are Richard S. Brooks, secretary; Frank Kiobassa, first vice president; Charles R. King, sergeant-at-arms; Penrod S. Thornton, treasurer; and Carl Lee Watson, second vice president. Membership in the new chapter is open to young men who are or have been active in Scouting, meet scholastic requirements, and desire to be of service.

New Scouting Fraternity Slates Initiation May 22

A new chapter of a service fraternity for former Scouts is in the organizational process here. The formal initiation is scheduled for May 22. Alpha Phi Omega, which is dedicated to the principles of leadership, friendship and service, has chapters on more than 300 campuses across the nation. The new organization has 26 members who have paid their dues. The pledge testing program was conducted under the personal direction of Joseph J. Scanlon from the national office in Kansas City. Officers of new APO chapter are listed as follows: Jim Mayo, president; Frank Kiobassa, first vice president; Carl Lee Watson, second vice president; Richard Brooks, secretary; Penrod S. Thornton, treasurer; Carl Vanderhider, historian and Charles R. King, sergeant-at-arms. Serving as advisors are Robert H. Bossler, William E. Eckles, C. M. Loyd, Daniel Russell, Alymer H. Thompson, and Bennie A. Zinn, all of the faculty and staff, and Ernest (Dutch) Harvel, Scout executive. Membership in Alpha Phi Omega is open to any male student regularly enrolled on the campus who can: Show an earnest desire to render service to others; be, or have previously been, affiliated with Scouting or any Scout movement recognized by the International Boy Scout Association; show a satisfactory scholastic average. Alpha Phi Omega was founded in 1925 on the campus of Lafayette College in Easton, Pennsylvania. It now has more campus chapters than any other men's fraternity in the nation. The program of APO is planned to include service to the student body and faculty, youth and community, the nation and the fraternity.

Physiology Professor Gets $8,600 Grant For Study

A grant of $8,600 per year has been awarded to Dr. J. D. McCrady, assistant professor of physiology in the School of Veterinary Medicine, for post-doctoral work in the field of biophysics. Dr. McCrady will continue his studies and research as director of experimental animals of the Baylor Medical School. His work will be aided and analyzed by Dr. Hebbel E. Hoff and Dr. L. A. Geddes of the Baylor School.

Members of the Department of Government and History presented papers at a professional association meeting yesterday. Another member of the department will give the critique at a meeting today, Thursday, Professor J. M. Nance head of the department announced.

Two department members presented papers based on original research before the annual meeting of the Louisiana Historical Association held in New Orleans on Friday and Saturday.

"Texas in the Civil War: A Resume History," by Dr. Allan C. Ashcraft, Assistant Professor of History and an authority on the Civil War and Reconstruction, was recently published by the Texas Civil War Centennial Commission. Another faculty member, John T. Duncan, Associate Professor of History, compiled the chronology used in this publication. Duncan, who serves as chairman of the sub-committee on Chronology of the Texas Civil War Centennial Committee, compiled the chronology of "Events in Texas, 1861-1865."

The publication is described as a well-balanced, thumb nail history of Texas in the Civil War which should be of great interest to the lay reader as well as to the specialist in the field of Civil War history.

Two members of the Texas A&M College Agricultural Education Department were appointed to committees in the recent annual Southern Regional Conference in Agricultural Education at Charleston, S. C.

They are Dr. Earl Knebel, head of the department, and Dr. Earl Webb, subject matter specialist.

SEN. Crawford MARTIN TO LT. GOVERNOR

Without planned state programs, how much income could our older people, our unemployed, our disabled, our blind or our orphans bring to our county?

Under the leadership of Senator Crawford Martin, state programs last year paid $893,868 to our Brazos county citizens. This money was spent here in our county with our businesses.
