Aggies Play Host To Rice In Twinbill; Baylor Next

A&M's league-leading baseball team gets back into action this afternoon on Kyle Field with a doubleheader with the Rice Owls. Both games will be seven inning affairs.

The Aggies are 7-2 in Southwest Conference play and are a half-game ahead of defending champion Texas who have a 6-2 SWC mark. Rice has a 2-5 SWC record.

With only four games remaining in SWC play after the Rice twin bill, the Aggies have a good chance to take the flag for the first time since 1959 when Coach

Tom Chandler was a rookie SWC coach.

Four Games Remain
The remaining four contests are with the top teams in the conference, Texas and Baylor.

Earlier in the season, the Cadets downed the Owls in Houston, 5-2. Last week Rice dropped a pair to the TCU Horned Frogs.

Ed Singley and Chuck McGuire, the Aggies' top two pitchers, will probably start on the hill for A&M against the Owls. Singley, who is undefeated this season, has compiled a 5-0 mark in season play and 3-0 in SWC competition. Mc-Guire has a 3-1 in season and 2-1 in conference play. His only loss was to the hands of the Baylor Bears by a score of 2-0.

Johnson Leads in Batting
Shortstop Dave Johnson continues to lead the Aggie regulars in batting with a .362 average in season play and a .393 in the SWC. Johnson is tied for third with Texas' Chuck Knutson in SWC batting. The leader is Baylor's Tommy Ledbetter, who has a .429 average.

The Bears from Baylor invade Aggieland on May 2 and May 3 for a crucial battle.
