Fish Slate Is 5-4; Finale Is May 11

The Aggie Fish baseball team will take a 5-4 won-lost record into its season finale against the Texas Shorthorns at Brenham May 11.

Fish victories have been over Allen Academy, 18-3, Baylor Cubs, 5-4, Tarleton State, 15-1, Wharton County Junior College, 2-1, and the Rice Owlets, 2-1.

Losses have come at the hands of Allen Academy 8-2, Texas Yearlings, 15-4, Baylor Cubs, 5-4, and Rice Owlets, 5-2.

Byron Barber, one of the leading hitters of the Aggie varsity in 1961, is serving as coach of the freshmen. Barber played summer ball at Brenham last year when A&M baseball coach Tom Chandler managed the Brenham Colts.

Hal German of Beaumont South Park is the top moundsman for the Fish, owning a 3-0 record. He is backed by southpaw Mike Golasinski of Houston St. Thomas with a 1-2 record and Gus Bates of Fort Worth Paschal.

Although Bates is not credited with a decision, he has pitched six innings without giving up an earned run. Bates is a right-hander who throws sidearm.

DeWayne Stewart, big switch-hitting first baseman from Fort Worth (Carter-Riverside), leads the team in hitting with a .394 average. Gary Cavasas, outfielder from Houston Jones and also an outstanding football performer, is batting at a .312 clip.

Catcher Gene Coleman of Beaumont South Park is hitting .303 and outfielder Mel Myers of Houston St. Pius .276.

Golasinski is the probable starting pitcher for the Fish against the Texas frosh. According to Barber, the Shorthorns have about the strongest team in the freshman race in both hitting and pitching.

Puryear Cops Softball Honors

Slipping past the Vets Monday, 2-1, Puryear Hall became this year's champion ball team in Class C softball.

An appreciation dinner for the intramural managers, athletic officers, and their guests will be held Thursday night at 6:30 in the Grove, according to Charles E. McCandless, intramural director.

In Class A tennis yesterday G-2 beat A-1, 3-0; Sqd. 12 defeated C-1, 3-0; Sqd. 2 won over Sqd. 13, 2-1; Sqd. 6 downed A-2, 3-0, and A-3 defeated D-1, 3-0.

Coming to bat in the second inning of Tuesday's final softball tilt, the Vets put one man on, but failed to score. Puryear, on the other hand, with a drive through the shortstop slot, brought in the first score of the game and gave them the lead.

Rallying in the fifth, the Vets tried hard to tie the game by placing runners on second and third. A sacrifice on first brought in one run, but Puryear retired the side with an out at first as the Vets' tying score crossed the plate just in case there was an error.

Winning players for Puryear Hall were Everett Sims, Pee Wee Shanks, Bob Beasley, Howard Starr, John Spencer, Henry Barbee, Don Barrier and Roger Morales.

Aggies Meet Horns In Deciding Series

By JIM BUTLER

Battalion Ass't Sports Editor Wednesday afternoon will find the Aggie baseballers in the hottest seat they've occupied yet this year with the itchy fingers of the Texas Longhorns waiting to pull the switch.

Coach Tom Chandler, in quest of his second SWC championship since coming to A&M in 1959, says his boys are in "real good spirits and realize the importance of the series."

Chandler also said that the team needs the support of the student body in this crucial series and would like to see as many of the Cadets as possible over at Austin for at least one of the two games.

The Farmers go into Wednesday's game one-half in the lead due to a rain-out of the Texas-SMU game earlier in the season. A&M is 11-2 and Texas is 10-2.

The Ags need one win in the two games to clinch a tie and win the right to represent the Southwest Conference in the national play-offs.

Chandler has designated either Ed Singley, junior from Oklahoma City, or Chuck McGuire, sophomore from Dallas Jesuit, to start the first game and Johnny Crain, soph from Houston Bellaire, to hurl the second.

Singley is 5-0 for the season, McGuire 5-1 and Crain 3-0. Singley went eight innings to gain credit for the Ags' 4-3 victory over the Longhorns in Kyle Field.

Probable starter for Texas will be Tom Belcher who was dealt the only defeat of his SWC career by the Farmers. Either Charlie Hartenstein or Bobby Myers will start the second game.

The Cadets will send the surest-handed infield in the conference against the boys from Austin with Bill Hancock, soph from Shreveport, La., at third; Dave Johnson, soph from San Antonio (Alamo Heights), at short; Bill Grochett, soph from Houston (St. Pius), at second; and the Aggies' leading season hitter (.353), Frank Stark, soph from Davenport, Iowa, at first.

This combination has produced 25 double plays in 23 games.

The outfield will consist of Leroy Crouch, soph from Kilgus, left; Ray Hall, junior from Worth (Brewer), in center; Robert McAdams, soph from Houston (Spring Branch), in right.

Behind the plate will be Bill Puckett from Oklahoma City. The Aggies have an 183-run record for 15 home games and 8 on the road.

The Ags have been involved in seven one-run decisions, won five and dropped two. Cadets have thrown three shutouts, Minnesota 9-0 (Singley), 11-0 (McGuire), Baylor (Crain).

Thursday night the final matter of the SWC baseball title will be written and whether it is a happy or sad ending will be to the Aggies this week.

The Saturday Evening POST

Cowboys 2nd At Commerce;

The Aggie Rodeo Team journeyed to Commerce last Thursday and Friday for the East Texas State College Rodeo and brought back another second place.

McNeese State College of Lake Charles, La. edged the Ags by a small 14 points.

This brings the Aggies and McNeese State into this week's A&M Rodeo sweating each other for the right to go to the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association finals in Denver, Colo. this summer.

The two top teams from this region will travel to Denver, and Sam Houston State of Huntsville has virtually clinched one of the berths.

Saddle bronc riding: Bubba Wingate and Everett Farthing copped second and third, respectively.

Steer wrestling: Lynn Turner took third in the first go-round and second in the second to take first in average.

Tie down calf roping: Jay Jones was third in average, Keith Kidwell took second in the first go-round and Turner took third in the second go-round to split third and fourth in average.

Ribbon roping: Kidwell took third in the first go-round and fourth in average.

Royce Rogers of Sam Houston edged Turner by 10 points for All-Around Champion Cowboy honors.
