

AT AUSTIN

Thinclads Take Second

A&M's track squad, both varsity and freshmen, traveled to Austin last Thursday and collected 61 points to end up second in the Texas-Rice-A&M triangular. The Longhorns put together 82 1/2 counters to cop first and the Owls were left on the bottom of the list with 25 1/2.

Coach Charlie Thomas' Aggies placed in all but three of the 16 varsity events and took firsts in six of them.

The highlight of the meet was the fine performance turned in by Aggie senior Thomas Johnston, as he defeated Texas' John Eschle in the two-mile run. Johnston owns two varsity letters but the distanceman from Franklin, Tex., had yet to put in an outstanding show until the Austin meet this year.

Thad Crooks set a new A&M record in the 880 and ended up second in the race. Crooks turned in a 1:50.2, which shaves over a second off the 1:51.4 he ran at the Dallas Invitational this season.

Fringe Baseballers Sweat As Cutdown Day Approaches

NEW YORK (AP)—Fringe ball players tiptoe past the general manager's office these days. They are especially nice to the boss' secretary. When they go home they leave the phone off the hook. If they're on the road, they tell the desk to cut off all calls.

The reason for this retreat into the shadows is the imminence of the cutdown day. . . that fatal day when the big leagues trim the fringe.

For the first 30 days of the season, each major league club is allowed to carry 28 players. From the 31st day through Aug. 31 the limit is 25. The rest of the time it is 40. That is why you see these bulging rosters at spring training time. Although four teams started a day early, April 9, Commissioner Ford Frick's office has decreed midnight, May 9 as the deadline.

Herb Score was one of the fringe men, teetering on the edge, until the Chicago White Sox sent him out to Indianapolis Monday. Many of those who will go out are anonymous characters, unknown to most readers, but Score was something special because of that day five years ago when he was hit by Gil McDougald's line drive.

Tracy Stallard may be an unfamiliar name to some. But it never will be forgotten by Roger Maris. Stallard is the young man who earned an unenviable place in the record books by throwing the ball that Maris hit for his 61st home run last October 1. Although Stallard appeared in 43 games last year and had a 2-7 record, he had pitched only one inning for Boston this year when Manager Mike Higgins sent him to the Seattle farm in the Pacific Coast League. Billy Muffett, once a relief pitcher of great promise, also was shipped out to Seattle while the Sox sold left-handed pitcher Ted Williams to the Cincinnati Reds.

Intramurals

Winners in the intramural open badminton doubles are Ben Jackson and Dee Smith. They defeated Robert Ramsower and Bill Lee in straight sets.

In Class A softball, beginning at 7:15 p.m. Wednesday on the lighted field, Sqd. 8 and Sqd. 6 will vie for Corps championship.

Play-offs in intramural golf are being conducted through the week. Beginning at 7:15 p.m. Thursday, freshman softball finals will get under way on the lighted field.

Intramural open singles in golf are now underway. Teams in the finals are D-2 playing against G-1, Sqd. 3 vs. Sqd. 1, and E-2 vs. G-3. One team received a bye.

The bar-b-que for the intramural officials and their guests is scheduled for Thursday at 6:30 p.m., according to Charles E. McCandless, intramural director. Intramural track begins May 14, he said.

COLLEGE MASTER VI 6-4988

Hope For Ags At SWC Finale A 6-foot, 145-pound junior letterman from Jasper, Texas, E. L. Ener is A&M's ace-in-the-hole for distance events at this week's SWC meet in Waco. He set the A&M record for the two-mile run with a 9:17.9 at the Drake Relays two weeks ago.

Rogers Signs John Reynolds

In line with his recent surge of top basketball signings, Coach Bob Rogers has added John Reynolds, 6-3, 190-pounder from Possum Walk, Tex., to his list of new Ag cagers.

Reynolds was all-district for three years (District 9A) at Groveton High School. He signed a pre-enrollment basketball scholarship agreement with A&M Monday.

Reynolds was also district track champion in the high jump and high hurdles his senior year, and quarterbacked the football team to the semi-finals of the Class A race last season.

Golfers Drop One, But Clinch Honors

A&M golf and tennis teams will be in Waco this weekend for the wrap-up of the SWC spring sports schedule.

Coach Henry Ransom will take four golfers from his SWC champions to compete for the individual title. They are Jim Feters, senior from Port Arthur; John Lively, senior from Athens; Dickie Doble, senior from Galveston; and Harry Hoskins, junior from Ft. Worth.

The Aggies clinched their third straight Southwest Conference title Monday against Texas Tech in Lubbock, though they lost, 5-1. Jim Feters gained the only point the Aggies needed by defeating Bruce Dobie 1-up.

The Farmers closed the season campaign with a 28 1/2-13 1/2 record.

In the other matches Houstye Brewer, Tech, defeated Harry Hoskins, 1-up; Charles Bishop, Tech, defeated Dickie Doble, 6 and 3; Mack Tubb, Tech, defeated John Lively, 6 and 5.

In the doubles matches Doble, Tubb beat Feters-Lively, 1-0, and Brewer-Bishop defeated Hoskins-Doble, 5 and 4.

A&M's hopes will be pinned on Feters, the number one player for the Cadets, to win the individual championship.

Coach Omar Smith's tennis team will be represented in three events in the SWC meet. Carroll Kellough from San Antonio (Jefferson), and Ray Salazar, sophomore from San Antonio (Jefferson) will compete in the singles matches.

The Aggie doubles team with Kell and Doug Samsam, sophomore from Falfurrias.

The Ag netters had one or four losses, and one tie in SW play.
