Top Athletes Given Awards At Spring Sports Bar-B-Q

The annual A&M Spring Sports Barbecue was held last night in the grove with awards being presented to the captains of the tennis, golf, swimming, track, basketball and baseball teams.

Also honored with awards were the most valuable members of the track, basketball and baseball squads. Team members were introduced by their coaches at the Brazos County A&M Club-sponsored affair.

The ceremonies were ably conducted by Field Scovell, former Aggie athlete and vice-president of the Southland Life Insurance Co. of Dallas. His gentle ribbing of teams and coaches was a big factor in the success of the dinner.

Most valuable award in track and field went to Sophomore weightman Danny Roberts, a 21-year-old from Cleveland. Roberts holds the A&M record for the shotput and has led coach Charlie Thomas' thinclads in the discus throughout the season.

Carroll Broussard, holder of all 13 A&M basketball records, received both the captain's award and most valuable player in his sport.

Dave Johnson, the Southwest Conference's Sophomore of the Year, took the award for the most valuable player on A&M's second-place baseball squad.

A new trophy donated by the Houston A&M Club, The Wally Moon Award, went to thirdsacker Bill Hancock, a sophomore from Shreveport, La., who led the SWC this season in hitting with .427. The ward is slated to be given each year to the most improved basebatter on the A&M squad.

Oscar Cordon, co-captain of the swimming team, received the team's award for the most overall service to the team. He also accepted the team captain's award.

Hale Sets Intramural Record, 21-6, In Class B Broad Jump

A new record was set in Class B broad jump Tuesday, when Stephen Hale of Sqd. 1 jumped 21'6" to break the old record of 21'½" set by Acree of Company 5 in 1950. In the shotput event, Class B, David Murray took top honors with a shot of 48'5".

Second place in the Class B broad jump event was Richter of B-3 with a jump of 20'8½". Third place went to Botary, F-1, 20'¾", fourth place to Kellar, G-3, 19'7", and fifth place to Cramer, B-2, 19'4½".

Following Murray in the Class B shotput event were Kellner, H-3, 47'6"; Bell, Sqd. 8, 46'3"; Roberts, E-2, 44'11", and Simpson, Sqd. 15, 44'7".

In the Class A and C 100-yard dash track event, LeRoy Caffey of H-3 and Robert Paulson of Law Hall tied for first place, both with a time of 10.1.

Other finalists in the Class A and C 100-yard dash were Kubesch, H-3, 10.2; McDaniels, Sqd. 3, 10.3; Deutrick, Pan American, 10.4; Bodkin, Hart Hall, 10.4; Hoelting,

E-1, 10.5 and Van Dyke, H-3, 10.5. All track finals are scheduled for Friday at 5 p.m., according to Charles E. McCandless, intramural director.

For the 120-yard low hurdles, Class A and C, finalists were Michalak, H-3, 14.1; Knolle, H-3, 14.5; Deutrick, Pan American, 14.8; Stone, Sqd. 12, 15.0; Clements, B-1, 15.1, and Adams, A-3, 15.4.
