Ag Meet To Host Farm Reporters

A&M will hold an agricultural news conference here next Monday and Tuesday to acquaint farm reporters with the latest research developments.

Dean of Agriculture R. E. Patterson said emphasis will be placed on new work in cotton and meat animal production, although other research areas also will be covered.

Conference dates are just prior to the State 4-H Club Roundup, which begins with a barbecue at 6 p.m. Tuesday and extends through Wednesday.

The conference program, similar to one held two years ago, is characterized by short talks and tours of research projects. Question and answer sessions also are scheduled.

Activities begin at 1:10 p.m. the first day with discussions on new developments in cotton. Topics to be covered are the role of genetics and cytology in applied research, the earliness complex, new approaches to boll weevil control and insecticide resistance.

Interaction of water and nitrogen on yield and disease, new approaches on mulches and crust prevention, varieties for harvestability, cotton defoliation and fitting cotton into a farming program.

Late that afternoon the newsmen will visit the Upland Agronomy Farm to see rearing of insects on artificial diets, genetic marker stocks, mulches, systemic insecticides and early seedling varieties and selections.

That evening, a special dinner is set for 7 in the Memorial Student Center, followed by discussions by a member of the A&M System Board of Directors; President Earl Rudder; Delbert McGuire, head of the Department of Journalism and Patterson.

The meat animal phase of the conference starts at 8:10 a.m. the second day. Subjects are meat consumption in Texas, psychology of meat purchases, beef tenderness, new techniques in forage analysis, high moisture grain sorghum for fattening rations, urinary calculi studies, internal parasites of meat animals and horses and a panel discussion on Texas beef cattle feeding.

Patterson said all discussions will be held in the MSC. Speakers are all A&M personnel.

Aggie Wives Meet To Discuss Plans

New officers of the Aggie Wives Council met Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Nat Alvis, council president, to discuss plans for next fall.

Topics were the scheduling of a tea and the Mrs. Texas A&M contest.

DAD'S GRADUATION

It wasn't Dad who burned the midnight oil . . . or crammed for exams . . . or struggled with term papers . . . or won a letter in baseball . . . or a prize in home economics.

Dad just wrote the checks . . . and the encouraging letters . . . and boasted to the office force about his "kids" in school.

But this is really Dad's graduation. For he planned this day many years ago. And all these years he has struggled to give his boy and girl the kind of an education he never had.

Something else he has given them—something he did have; a sound Christian faith, manifested in loyal devotion to his Church's worship and work.

Better than a diploma is Dad's reward today; the reverent, joyous certainty that, not only in their education, but equally in their spiritual development, he has recognized the needs of his children . . . and has seen them through.

Are you planning your children's future—every Sunday?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
