DIRECTORATE OFFERS

the following stimulating activities . . .

AGGIELAND DANCE BAND:

The Aggieland Dance Band furnishes music for stage shows in Guion Hall and G. Rollie White Coliseum and for numerous dances on the campus and in cities throughout the state. Members are chosen on a competitive basis at the beginning of the fall semester.

BOWLING:

Sponsors A&M's only official bowling team. The Bowling Committee promotes bowling tournaments among A&M students and other colleges and universities. Students interested in learning how to bowl, or in joining the MSC A&M Bowling Team, should become a member of this committee. Chairman: Jimmie D. Guy

BRIDGE:

The MSC student Bridge Committee is a group that convenes once a week to play bridge and to discuss plays and hands. Beginners are always welcome. Several illustrated lectures and demonstrations are planned for the year. Participation in national Inter-Collegiate Bridge Tournament, which is sponsored by the National Association of College Unions and attracts players from more than a hundred colleges, is the highlight of the year. Chairman: Paul F. Bryant

BROWSING LIBRARY:

The Browsing Library Committee is in charge of selecting all the periodicals and books placed in the MSC library, and determining policy for its use. The committee also arranges for the personal appearance of various Texas authors at the MSC several times through the year. Chairman: Richard B. Willman

CAMERA:

Amateur photographers will be interested in the Camera Committee, with its fully equipped darkrooms. Throughout the year, outstanding photography exhibits are brought to the Center. Photography contests and instruction are made available through this organization. Chairman: Joe L. Finch

CREATIVE ARTS:

The Creative Arts Committee organizes and plans all the art exhibits that are held in the MSC during the year. A Crafts Shop is available and, if enough interest is shown, instructions can be arranged in various media. Also through the year the committee sponsors several prominent artists in a program and these artists demonstrate their style and techniques.

DANCE:

The Dance Committee sponsors one of the most popular activities at Texas A&M—dance classes, in which instruction is given in all types of ballroom dancing. The committee also sponsors the many MSC dances, some after football games, others on weekends, and the famous Aggie version of a French nightclub—"Cafe Rue Pinalle". Chairman: David L. Kabell

EVALUATION BOARD:

The purpose of the Evaluation Board is to make the MSC student activities program as effective as possible in accomplishing its aim to serve the students of Texas A&M. To achieve this purpose, members of the board study the various activity committees, compiling reports on the effectiveness of these committees and their functions. To promote the best in committee operation, the Evaluation Board also conducts discussions on leadership techniques and the purposes of student center activities programs. Students interested in all phases of student activities find this board most appealing.

FLYING KADETS:

This committee was organized for all students on the campus who are interested in flying. Members who do not fly, but who are interested in aeronautics, are welcomed. Each year the Flying Kadets participate in regional and national flying contests. In the meetings of this committee, the latest developments in flying are discussed. The committee purchases flying time at a discount for members. Chairman: Jack M. Threadgill

GREAT ISSUES:

The presentation of nationally and internationally known speakers who provide information on world-wide topics of interest, and who will promote intelligent discussions relative to these topics, is the primary function of this committee. Great Issues members select, invite, and entertain each of the prominent speakers presented. The presentations sponsored by this committee are open to all students who have paid their student activity fee. William L. Shrier, Author of The Rise and Fall of Third Reich will be presented October 16. James J. Wadsworth, head of the American Delegation to the United Nations in 1960, will be presented December 13; co-sponsored by the SCONA committee. In addition, the Great Issues Committee is presenting a new series called "World Adventures Series". Chairman: Robert W. Wimbish

LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE:

Each year the MSC Council and Directorate sponsor the Annual A&M Student Leadership Conference. Student leaders from all major campus organizations, including the Student Senate, Corps of Cadets, Civilian Student Council, YMCA, Student Publications, Yell Leaders, Class Officers, and others are invited to join the MSC leaders in the Conference. Also student leaders from other campuses are invited to participate. Not only do the student leaders learn techniques of leadership, organization, managing, and parliamentary procedures, but fellowship and recreation provides an opportunity for the students to meet many of the college administration, faculty, and staff. Chairmen: F. Kirk Blackard and James H. Magers

MUSIC:

The Music Committee is in charge of musical programs presented in the MSC. The committee presents regional, national and international artists for students interested in all types of music, including classical, jazz, and popular. These programs are presented free to students who pay their activity fee. This committee is responsible for the selection of music for the ground music which plays throughout the MSC and the Record Room for the Record Playing Rooms, as well as for the jukebox in the Fountain Room. Chairman: Jack C. Cline

PAN AMERICAN:

The Pan American Week Committee works toward better understanding through knowledge of the Americas by presenting panel discussions, speakers, and exhibits from each country. A special Pan American Dance and Smorgasbord is given during the Pan American Week. All students are invited to enjoy these exciting activities. Chairman: J. Carlos Diaz
