

Coach and Captains
Head Coach Hank Foldberg introduces newly-elected football captains Sam Byer and Jerry Hopkins at the Hensel Park steak fry given by the Class of '63 for this season's Aggie team.

Seniors Treat Footballers To Hensel Park Steak Fry

Hensel Park was the scene last night of a steak fry given by the Class of '63 for Head Football Coach Hank Foldberg, his staff and team.

The purpose of the gathering, according to Charlie Blaschke, senior class president, was to enable the football players and seniors to get better-acquainted.

After the meal, which consisted of steak, rolls, potato salad and beans, and which was prepared and served by J. Gordon Gay and his wife, Foldberg spoke to the seniors and answered questions.

The highlight of the new head coach's talk was the announcement of the results of a team vote which produced season captains. Seniors Sam Byer and Jerry Hopkins were the almost-unanimous choices. Foldberg voiced his approval of the picks, and cited it as indicative that his team has good judgement.

Foldberg went on to tell the seniors, I think you are going to be real proud of this football team of yours." He then added, "It's yours tonight, but if we get beat

Saturday night it will be the coaches'."

The new Aggie mentor went on to put everyone at ease by poking fun at himself and team members.

Blaschke termed the steak fry, which was attended by about 250 students, a success.

Tigers Will Meet Mustangs Tonight

With the experience of two games and the power of nine seasoned lettermen, the A&M Consolidated Tigers will meet the Madisonville Mustangs on Tiger Field Friday at 8 p.m.

In the first game of the season the Tigers took a 8-6 defeat from Columbus. Turning the tables somewhat in the next game, the Tigers copped a 27-0 victory from Bel Velle. Although delighted with the first victory of the season, Coach Edsel Jones said that Bel Valle is probably the weakest team the Tigers will play.

The Mustangs record stands equal to the Tigers' one win, one lost, winning over Caldwell 8-0, but losing to District 19-AA's newest member, Navasota, 0-20.

Nine lettermen are back with the Tigers this year. They are Sidney Coufal (C), David Parsons (LG), Jimmy McAfee (QB), Jim Carroll (RH), Ozzie Burke (LH), David Harvell (RE), Jay Pewthers (LT), J. W. Parsons (RT), and Robert Chenault (RT).

Only one starter will not see action Friday night. He is Tommy Hpghes (LT) who has re-injured a shoulder.

The probable starting line-up for the Tigers: Mike Calliham (LE), Pewthers (LT), Marvin Smith (RG), Coufal (C), Darrell Gossett (RT), Parsons (LG), Carroll (RH), Burke (LH), Frank Litterst (FB) and calling the plays will be McAfee, the quarterback.

In his group Coach Jones named three potential all-district players: Burke, Coufal, and Hughes.

Best of the new members, Jones named Litterst, Calliham and for a second honor, Hughes.

LSU GAME

great seniors and Dietzel, have been picked in the top ten in all pre-season surveys. McClendon is an experienced coach and will follow the three-platooning system left by Dietzel.

HOPING TO HONE his three units, the White team, the Go team and the Chinese Bandits, to sharp performance, McClendon has spent the final four days before the opener on intensive polish work with little contact.

Standout halfback Jerry Stovall should have his best season as a senior for the Tigers and will be the big factor for the Cadets to reckon with. Running with him in the backfield are seniors Jimmy Field, Steve Ward and promising soph Danny LeBlanc.

McClendon hopes to field a better attacking team this fall with experienced ground-gainers on both the White and Go teams. He expects the defense to be weaker, however.

In the past this old rivalry has produced 10 wins for the cadets, 12 losses and two ties. For three quarters last year the Aggies held a 7-2 lead, and it took a 62-yard punt return by Wendell Harris in the fourth period to lead LSU from behind to a 16-7 win.

Record Crowd Of 73 Exes At First A&M Club Meeting

A record crowd of 73 former students turned out to hear Coach Hank Foldberg '45 at this year's first meeting of the Brazos County A&M Club.

Foldberg outlined Aggie player progress and team plans for the upcoming season. The coach told the former students, "Our team has great confidence—we're going to Baton Rouge this Saturday to win."

Progress of the club's membership drive launched in August was outlined at the meeting by P. L. (Pinky) Downs '06. Downs said the membership committee which he heads has set a goal of 600 members—half of the 1200-plus former students in Brazos County. He reported that 173 exes had already joined the club—the largest membership since the club's beginning in 1941.
