Bowling Tourney Opens For Aggies

A&M's second annual school-wide bowling tournament opened Tuesday with a very light turnout. Prerequisites for the tourney are easily met and all Aggies are encouraged to enter.

All entrants must be students at A&M, must use their latest sanctioned average (if no average, 150 will be used), and must pay the $2 entry fee. Handicap will be 70 per cent of the difference between the average and 200.

Prizes will be awarded for the first four places. First prize will be a bowling ball, second and third a bowling bag and fourth a pair of bowling shoes.

Entries will be taken at the desk in the MSC Bowling Lanes by Wayne Smith, manager of the lanes, or a member of the bowling committee.

The tournament closes Oct. 7.

Sonny Vows He'll Work As Champ

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — A smiling, wise-cracking Sonny Liston promised Wednesday to keep his word about giving Floyd Patterson a rematch—even if it has to be held in a training camp. After that, the new world heavyweight boxing champ said, he would fight the contenders, "as they list them in the book."

Liston appeared at a noon news conference with the harassed promoters who tried to explain the government's move in seizing some $5 million of the receipts of Tuesday night's fight. The 28-year old champ abandoned his training camp scowl, chewed gum and grinned as he parried the questions asked by some of the several hundred newsmen.

"I thought I'd get him much earlier than I did," Liston said of his knockout over Patterson in 2 minutes, 6 seconds of the first round. Somebody asked him to compare Patterson with Albert Westphal, the German heavyweight who also was a first round victim last Dec. 4.

"Well, I wouldn't say this fight was easier," Liston said. "A lot of people look only at the time in the ring. They don't know how much time and aggravation I went through before. Like in the training camp with the newspaper men. A fellow would ask 'Sonny, is the sun shining?' I'd tell him to look for himself. And he'd say 'I want to hear it from you.'"

Liston, unlicensed in New York because of his criminal record and the boxing commission's "pattern of suspicion" that he still might be associated with persons of unsavory background, renewed his dressing room plea for a chance to prove himself.

"Give me a little time," he said. "Allow me a chance to prove I've been re-finish it, Jack," to Jack Nilon, his adviser.

"Rehabilitated," said Nilon. The champ from Philadelphia, via Pine Bluff, Ark. and St. Louis, is obligated by contract to fight Patterson again, if Floyd wants it.

Patterson said Tuesday night, before leaving by car for New York with his wife, Sandra, that he wanted a rematch but would make a definite decision in a week or so.

Tunney Calls Bout 'A Terrible Hoax'

SEATTLE (AP) — Gene Tunney called the Sonny Liston-Floyd Patterson fight "a terrible hoax" Wednesday.

The former world champion, visiting Seattle on business, viewed the title fight Tuesday night on closed-circuit television.

"The people who paid were burglarized," Tunney asserted.

"When you put on a fight and ask people to pay for it you must have some sort of guarantee they will see a show.

"It is shows like this that are rapidly killing boxing."

Tunney said he believed Patterson went into the ring a frightened man.

Weekend To Be Highlighted By A Pair Of 'Must' Games

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer

On every football schedule there are "must" games. These are games that must be won at all costs. Teams point to them for months, sacrifice and even shed blood to bring them off successfully.

Army must win in New York, where its subway alumni are many and loud. Oklahoma must beat Notre Dame, its prestige rival, at home. Added impetus should bring these teams out on top in the weekend's feature attractions.

The picks:

Louisiana State 13, Rice 7: The only game the Bayou Tiger lost last year was to the Owls. A revenge motive here.

Pittsburgh 17, Baylor 8: The pendulum swings upward this week for football's up-and-down unpredictables.

Southern California 20, Southern Methodist 6: The Trojans are big enough to move a house.

Arkansas 17, Tulsa 7; Oregon 20, Utah 7; Michigan State 25, Stanford 7; Arizona 28, New Mexico 14.

Oklahoma 15, Notre Dame 14.
