Razorbacks Lead In Stats

DALLAS, Oct. 3 — Arkansas' Razorbacks, bidding for an unprecedented string of championship success in Southwest Conference football has broken far out of its challengers in team statistics. When it comes to gaining yardage and scoring points, the rowdy Razorbacks are comparable to the stampeding Texas Longhorns of 1960, who set a new league total offense record in sharing the championship with Arkansas. Through the first two weeks of play, Arkansas and Texas have accounted for four of the five victories managed thus far by Conference teams.

After trouncing Tulsa last week, Arkansas leads the league in virtually every phase of offense: total offense, rushing, passing, scoring and touchdown passes. The total offense (907 yards) is not far off the torrid pace of 967 set by Texas in its first two tests last season, and Arkansas has kept the scoreboard operators even busier than the 1961 Longhorns, totaling 76 points to 70 by Texas a year ago.

Runner-up to the Hogs in most statistical department, Texas has moved out front in punting. Sophomore Ernie Koy has given Texas an average of 44.4 yards on 14 kicks to lead a phase of play that is generally improved in the league. Arkansas ranks next (40.4), followed by SMU (39.4), the first-week leader.

BOTH BAYLOR AND RICE out-gained Arkansas overhead last week, but the Razorbacks' aggregate over a two-game span is the most impressive for a Conference team since 1950, when Fred Benners and Kyle Rote led SMU to fantastic figures. Arkansas' 418 yards and six touchdown passes through two games is the best performance since Benners and Rote collaborated to gain 643 yards and score seven times overhead in beating the likes of Georgia Tech and Ohio State.

Texas was the week's rushing leader, 323 against Tech, but the Longhorns' two-game figure is only 446, in contrast to 695 at this stage last year.

AP Picks Ags By 5 Saturday

By WILL GRIMSLEY
ASSOCIATED PRESS Sports Writer Picking college football games is not much different than going into orbit. You take off into outer space, look at the biggest crystal ball in the world why, it is the world!, go around in circles and finally land flat on your cone.

Last week's venture into outer space produced a 37-10 score for .788. Blast off again—
Iowa 23, Southern Cal 20; The Trojans have one of their best teams but no one to equal the Hawkeyes' Larry Ferguson.

Princeton 14, Columbia 0; They're saying this is the Tigers' best team since the day of Dick Kazmaier.

Minnesota 14, Navy 3; A slow, lumbering heavyweight against a smart welterweight but the Gophers are as stubborn as they are big.

Rice 18, Penn State 15; The Owls' sophomores matured against LSU and they'll be more comfortable at home.

Wogs 28, Fish 13, In Frosh Opener

The TCU Wogs scored a convincing 28-13 victory over the A&M Fish before a record crowd of 25,000 in Ft. Worth Wednesday night.

The Fish started the scoring midway in the first period when QB Bob Doshier threw a five-yard pass to end Harold Fletcher in the end zone. HB Bob Lee kicked the extra point and the first quarter ended with A&M out in front 7-0.

TCU came back early in the second quarter going 53 yards in 8 plays to take the lead. QB Kent Nix threw the first of his three touchdown passes to end Charles Campbell for eight yards and the score. Nix then hit HB Gene Uptegraph with a pass for the two-point conversion.

Fish QB Doshier took to the air again and found Fletcher with a long toss from the Aggie 29 and Fletcher took it down to the Wog six before being pushed out-of-bounds. HB Ray Brown then snared a Doshier pass in the end zone for the second Aggie score. The point after attempt failed and at halftime the Cadets held a 13-8 lead.

The second half was all TCU as Nix flipped 14 yards to Uptegraph for the touchdown after Wog halfback Joe Ball intercepted a Doshier pass. The conversion try failed and the Wogs led 14-13.

Early in the fourth quarter, TCU drove 42 yards with HB Dan Jones going over from three yards out. The two-point try was no good and the Wogs led 20-13.

With 1:30 remaining in the game, Nix hit end Larry Perry with a TD pass and connected with Uptegraph again for the conversion. TCU Wogs 28, A&M Fish 13.
