A&M opens its Southwest Conference schedule as host to the Texas Tech Red Raiders Saturday night on Kyle Field. Tech stands 0-1 in conference play, having lost to the University of Texas 34-0 last week. Both teams are seeking their first victory of the season. Tech was upset 30-28 by West Texas State before being drubbed by Texas. A&M fell to LSU 21-0 and the University of Houston 6-3. The Cadets came out of the Houston game in good physical shape with only fullback Jerry Rogers being injured. Rogers hurt his knee but is expected to be in shape to face the Raiders. TECH WILL come into the game without the services of their starting quarterback Johnny Lovelace and halfback Bill Worley, both injured against Texas. Probable starting line-up for the Aggies will be the same as the first two games with possibly Sam Byer at the fullback slot in place of Rogers. Sure starters for Tech are end David Parks, fourth among SWC pass receivers, and fullback Coolidge Hunt, third leading rusher in the conference. SATURDAY NIGHT'S game will be Coach Hank Foldberg's Southwest Conference debut as well as homecoming for three Tech coaches. Raider Head Coach J. T. King and assistants Willie Zapalac and Jim Wright formerly served at Aggieland—King as a coach, Zapalac as player and coach and Wright as player.

Mitchell's 1:22.3 Relay Time Is Unofficial 'Mural Record'

Unofficially, an intramural swimming record was set in the 400-foot medley relay Wednesday night, Charles E. McCandless, intramural director announced. The record, 1:22.3, was set by Mitchell Hall. Since the record time was recorded in a pre-final meet, the record can not be officially placed in the intramural book. Mitchell will have a chance to match its mark Wednesday night at 7:30 when the swimming finals will be held, McCandless said. Other finalists in the event are B-3, Sqd. 13, Sqd. 11, Sqd. 1, G-2, B-2, G-1 and Sqd. 9. The old record set in 1960 by F-2 was 1:23.2. Class B finalists in the 40-foot medley relay are A-1, D-2, E-1, F-1, Sqd. 14, Sqd. 1, Sqd. 3, C-3 and Sqd. 7. A-1 set the fastest time in the pre-final meet Wednesday night with a time of 1:29.8, but the team failed to break the record of 1:21.9 set in 1961 by B-3. Intramural schedules will be available Friday, McCandless said. All intramural officers are requested to check their news boxes for the schedules.

When a cigarette means a lot...

get Lots More from L&M

more body in the blend more flavor in the smoke
more taste through the filter

It's the rich-flavor leaf that does it! Among L&M's choice tobaccos there's more of this longer-aged, extra-cured leaf than even in some unfiltered cigarettes. And with L&M's modern filter—the Miracle Tip—only pure white touches your lips. Get lots more from L&M—the filter cigarette for people who really like to smoke.

FROM THE Sidelines

By Van Conner

Coach Hank Foldberg's three units will go into Saturday night's contest still dubbed the Maroons, Whites and Blues. Let's get busy on the request by the coaching staff for suggestions for the three units, along with suggestions of some good insignia to be stenciled on the respective gear heads.

As of now, the Maroons, or first unit, are having "Old Sarge" on their helmets, and the offensive special Blues are to have a bolt of lightning. None of these are certain, says Foldberg, and he would rather have members of the student body make suggestions.

Anyone in the Corps who comes up with suggestions let their company commanders know. Civilians can send theirs in letters to The Battalion.

Better still, let's have everyone send suggestions to The Battalion—they'll get printed—and we can start battling around.

Bowling Tourney Extended

What gives with the bowling tournament? It has always seemed to me that the MSC lanes were among the most popular places on the campus. Now I hear that the annual A&M Schoolwide Bowling Tournament has been extended a week (until Oct. 14) and has been opened to faculty and staff in order to get enough participants.

It cost only $2 to enter and the prizes are: a bowling bag for first place, bags for second and third and a pair of shoes for fourth. Part of the entry fee goes to help the Ag match bowlers make trips to represent A&M in intercollegiate competition.
