

Borum Breaks Record

Hill Borum, freshman from Sqd. 1, finished 4.5 seconds faster than the second-place contender and 2.9 seconds faster than the intramural record in the 200-ft breaststroke Wednesday night to cop the 'mural' title in that event. "I'll go hunt him down if he doesn't come out for swimming," said Coach Art Adamson of Borum after the performance.

League Basketball Workouts Will Be Under Way Monday

The roundballers come back into the scheme of things next week. Meaning basketball practice opens in the Southwest Conference Oct. 15 although no team is allowed to play a game before Dec. 1.

When the cage sport began last year there was no hint of scandal and it was March and almost the end of the season before there came reports that some of the games had been fixed. It was a big blow to the conference, which never had been connected, even by rumor, with anything shady in its long history.

Nothing ever was officially proved but the stigma remains and only an exciting campaign can help ease it.

THE RACE that's coming up might fill the bill. For the first time in years there is no outstanding favorite. Some say Southern Methodist. And so on.

But the fact remains that five schools have about equal support and, in truth, look about equal on the basis of material. These are Texas, Rice, Southern Methodist, Arkansas and Texas A&M. Texas Christian could also be a contender if a 6-10 youngster, Archie Clayton, comes through. A big man like that can make an entire team click. Baylor is expected to be greatly improved.

The only team that can't reasonably be expected to be as strong or stronger is Texas Tech although there are six lettermen. However, Tech lost 6-10 Harold Hudgens, 6-5 Roger Hennig, 6-3 Mac Perceval and little Del Ray Mounts. Hudgens and Mounts were about the finest scoring combination the conference ever saw. The only regular returning is Bobby Gindorf.

Texas Tech won't be a patsy but it can't be expected to be anywhere near its ability of the last two years when it won the championship outright and the next season tied for it, winning a playoff with Southern Methodist in the latter in order to get into the NCAA.

Southern Methodist lost Jan Loudermilk and he was one of the finest players in conference history. He was so good he made others on the team good. But Hayes has four lettermen, including Dave Siegmund, Tommy Thompson, Frank Bumstead and
