Gridders Win First Of Year

In an ending that will never be matched, Coach Hank Foldberg's Aggies chalked up their first win of the season against Texas Tech here last Saturday night.

Soph halfback Dan McIlhany returned a kickoff 102 yards in the last 19 seconds to bring the Cadets from behind to a 7-3 win. Tech's H. L. Daniels had kicked a field goal for the visitors immediately before McIlhany's record kickoff return.

The old A&M record for a kickoff return was 97 yards—set in 1927 by Joel Hunt.

Singers To Appear On National TV

Director Robert L. Boone announced Monday that the Singing Cadets will appear on the nationally televised Miss Teenage of America pageant in Dallas Oct. 26.

The cadets will open the program with "Miss Teenage of America," a song designed by Boone for the appearance, and follow with several other numbers.

Members of the group will be in Dallas Oct. 25-26 for rehearsals before the Friday night show. Two contestants from every state will vie for the Miss Teenage title.

Florida Trip Is Cancelled

The planned student bus trip to Florida for Saturday's Aggie-University of Florida football clash was cancelled Tuesday when a minimum number of 37 students for the trip could not be reached. Money had already been refunded to those planning to make the trip when word of the final cancellation was received.

Head Yell Leader Bill Bra-shers had coordinated the 2,000-mile trip with a Houston bus firm for $31.10 per person. Buses would have left Houston today for the game, and returned late Sunday afternoon.

Campus Who's Who Selection Opens

A rushed campaign to nominate around 36 Aggies for membership in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities was announced Thursday. Noon Monday is the deadline for nominations. Final selections are expected by Oct. 19, according to Dean of Students James P. Hannigan.

Texas Congressmen Won Battle For Padre Island

WASHINGTON (AP) — House passage of the Padre Island bill, setting up a national seashore on the Texas coast, was aided by some inland congressmen.

Texas Reps. John Young of Corpus Christi and Joe Kilgore, Democrats, in whose districts the upper and lower sections of the island lie, were the principal House backers. Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., carried the ball on his side of the Capitol.

Key roles also were played by Reps. J. T. Rutherford, D., of Odessa, Homer Thornberry of Austin, and Wayne Aspinall, D-Colo. Sen. Clinton Anderson, D-N.M., also proved to be helpful. Aspinall and Anderson are chairmen, respectively, of the House and Senate Interior Committees. The legislation came before their groups, and both men participated in subcommittee hearings on the proposal.

Anderson accompanied Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson and others on a tour of the island a year ago. He and Aspinall were influential in persuading other non-Texans to support the legislation.

Sens. Alan Bible, D-Nev., and Frank Moss, D-Utah, Interior subcommittee members, gave a big hand.

Rutherford was chairman of the House subcommittee which thoroughly studied the conflicting proposals as to the length of the seashore area, and worked closely with Kilgore in drafting provisions acceptable to opposing factions.
