

'Form Saturday' On Tap This Week

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — This should be "Form Saturday" on the college football calendar. Four weeks is time enough for teams to get organized. It's too early for any to get delusions of championship grandeur — always a hidden stumbling block.

So this week—and perhaps this week only—it's wise to go with the charts.

Alabama 27, Houston 0: Coach Bear Bryant opens the gates of mercy after four touchdowns.

Texas 21, Oklahoma 10: Bud Wilkinson must regret that he taught Darrel Royal so well — lemons, not apples, for the teacher. Michigan State 19, Michigan 7: Superior infantry in George Saines and Sherm Lewis gives the Spartans the edge.

Duke 22, California 13: The Devils may be the best in the Atlantic Coast Conference; the Golden Bears have lost some lustre.

Wisconsin 17, Notre Dame 14: Pass-snagging Pat Richter is too slick for the Irish.

Navy 25, Cornell 1: Getting past Harvard is a week's work for the Big Red, who aren't so big any more.

Rice 20, Oregon 14: Like Jess Neely's drawl, the Owls are slow starters but they can be tough.

Swim Team Called Out

All students, freshmen or upperclassmen, interested in trying out for the A&M swimming team can report to the pool Tuesday at 5:15 p.m., Coach Art Adamson announced Thursday.

The students should bring a cap and towel and be prepared to swim, Coach added.

At present the A&M team shows good potential in the sprints, fair in the diving and backstroke, and weak in the distance, butterfly, and dolphin, Adamson said.

Swimmers singled out to be top winners this year are, in the freshman division, Mike Offner of Highland Park, in the breaststroke, and David Trifon from Waltrip in Houston, swimming in the freestyle.

For the upperclassmen Bob Baker, the 50-yard sprint champion, Randy Morton, for the backstroke, Mike McGrady, for the breaststroke, and Tim Kennerly in the dolphin are top swimmers.

Fencers Will Have At Least 7 Meets

More than seven dual meets are scheduled for this year for the fencing club, Russell K. Wieder, sponsor for the club, said Wednesday.

At their first meeting, the members installed new officers. They are E. A. Galindo, president; Thomas B. Wilson, secretary-treasurer; and Hogue Lewis, armorer.

Club members practice from 5-6:30 p.m. four times a week, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday.

Higgins, Byrd Are Top A&M Folfers

Qualifying rounds for places on the A&M golf team have been completed with Eugene Byrd of Stephenville and Mike Higgins of Tomball shooting the low score of 718 for the 180 holes.

Others qualifying for Coach Henry Ransom's team and their scores include: Harry Hoskins of Fort Worth, 719; Ralph Johnston of Queens Island, N. Y., 725; Wayne Stroman of Mission, 728; Ed Roberson of Freeport, 735; Jeff Andrick of San Antonio, 736; Don Custer of Corpus Christi, 738; and Pete Hidalgo of Port Arthur, 744.

The best score was turned in by a freshman team candidate from Mission. He is David Holcomb, who recorded a one-over par 701 and had a five-under-par 65 and a one-under-par 69 in one day.

Ags Face 'Gators In Sunshine State

By VAN CONNER
Battalion Sports Editor

At 1 p.m. (Texas time) Saturday Coach Hank Foldberg's Aggies will square off against the Florida 'Gators in Gainesville, Fla. to start their last out-of-conference game of the '62 season.

The Cadets will be facing a team with an identical season record (1-2-0) — a team that in losing scared nationally-ranked Duke last Saturday in a passing duel that ended 28-21.

This will be the first meeting of these two teams. The game will be broadcast starting at 12:45 over the Humble Network by Eddie Barker and Stan McKenzie.

Foldberg said last week, "You might say that it will be old home week." He was referring to the fact that just three years ago he was serving on the coaching staff at Florida.

Seven of the Gators that are likely to see action against the Cadets are men Foldberg helped recruit—four of them are starters.

QUARTERBACK LARRY LIBERTORE is one of these starters. To look at him among his hulking teammates one would think that he is about the only man the Ags won't have to worry about this Saturday. The senior from Miami stands 5-9 and tips the scales at 138 pounds.

But they call him "Florida's magnificent runt."

"Libertore is one of the rarest football players, for his size, you'll see," comments Foldberg. "For quickness, speed and ability to handle the ball, you won't find many like him, anywhere."

The little field general is a master of the option play. He has piled up 1,384 yards rushing and passing in two years of play for Florida.

And if the Ags can't count on Libertore to be the weak spot they even more surely can't count on finding any weak spots elsewhere in Ray Graves' lineup. They are well-stocked with linemen that range in weight from 225 to 265 pounds. And Libertore is the only small back.

Saturday's contest will be the first afternoon game for the Ags. And it will be the first time they will go into action with established names for the teams in their unit system.

THE OLD SARGE squad, formerly dubbed the Maroons, will be the starters — the eleven best overall men. Backing them up and slated to see as much action are the Gig 'em unit (defensive specialists) and the Lightning team (offensive specialists).

Foldberg said this week, "We

Wrestlers Pick New Officers

The wrestling club, sponsored by Russell K. Wieder, installed its new officers at their first meeting Oct. 8. The officers: Ray A. Breur, president; William B. Shaw, vice-president; and Michael Halaburka, secretary-treasurer.

Three American Athletic Union championship tournaments plus two tournaments with LeTourneau College of Longview, and two meets with Texas University are scheduled, Wieder said.

The A&M club meets LeTourneau College in December, Texas University in February, and the AAU meets are scheduled for March, in Austin; one in San Antonio again in March, and a possible third in Houston also in March or early April.

Members practice from 5-6:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Only two jockeys have won 69 races in one meeting at Atlantic City. Johnny Sellers reached that figure in 1961 to match Joe Cullen's feat of 1950.

Leon Wagner of the Los Angeles Angels had 79 runs batted in in 133 games in 1961. This year he knocked in his 80th run on Oct. 13.
