Coach Hank Foldberg With Fullbacks

Fullback Corps Is 'Poor Loser'

The Aggie fullback corps is gaining a reputation around the Southwest Conference as a "poor loser." In four games the quartet of Sam Byer, Jerry Rogers, Budgie Ford and Mike Kohlman has lost only one yard.

Ironically, this yard was lost by Byer on the first play from scrimmage against Texas Tech. It was his first loss in three years of varsity ball.

The four fullbacks have gained 107 yards in 34 carries for an average of a little over three yards. Ford leads with 40 yards in 12 carries. Next come Byer, 32 yards in 12 carries; Rogers, 20 yards in 6 carries; and Kohlman, 15 yards in 4 carries.

The most promising facet of the four is their classification. Byer is a senior, Rogers a junior, and Kohlman and Ford are sophomores.

Rogers was bothered by an injured leg suffered in the Houston game and missed the games against Texas Tech and Florida. However, his leg is healed and he will be back in action against the Texas Christian University Horned Frogs Saturday afternoon on Kyle Field.

AP Wrapup Of Workouts

By the Associated Press

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. — The Arkansas Razorbacks drilled on defense against Texas' mighty rushing attack Wednesday in the last full-scale workout before the crucial Southwest Conference clash in Austin Saturday night.

Coach Frank Broyles has emphasized defense against ground attack because none of Arkansas' first four foes had enough of a rushing game to test the Porkers.

Texas takes a 4-0 record and No. 1 national ranking into the game. Arkansas also is 4-0 and ranked seventh.

WACO — Baylor's Bears confined their scrimmaging principally to goal line defense Wednesday, as they held another long, strenuous workout in preparation for their first conference home game Saturday night against Texas Tech.

Sophomore quarterback Bobby Maples, who has developed into a dependable wild card linebacker, watched the drills after injuring his left hand in Tuesday's scrimmage. It is a bad sprain, but won't keep the big Mt. Vernon youngster from performing against the Red Raiders.

AUSTIN — The University of Texas Longhorns went through an hour-and-a-half work-out without pads Wednesday, working on signals and polishing their plays.

Starting strongside tackle Ken Ferguson will be the only regular who won't be able to play in Saturday night's crucial game here against Arkansas. Ferguson has an arm infection resulting from a cleat injury received in last week-end's game with Oklahoma.

FORT WORTH — TCU quarterback Sonny Gibbs and Gray Mills worked on a new passing game Wednesday as the Frogs continued preparations for Saturday night's battle with Texas A&M.

The Frogs expect fierce rushing from A&M linemen. Head coach Abe Martin expressed pleasure with the work of his two top units on defense.

Pete Pedro Runs Again

CANYON (AP)—Pete Pedro, who can run rings around all the other football players in the nation, will be running again next Saturday, says his backfield coach.

His failure to do anything except sit on the bench last weekend brought a blast from the Phoenix Press Box Association.

The association and Al Stephan, director of promotion for Arizona State, said West Texas State Coach Joe Kerbel failed to announce that Pedro would not play. Stephan said had such an announcement been made, the Arizona State-West Texas State game would not have drawn 26,639 fans.

Kerbel said doctors tried to heal Pedro's leg injury but failed. "We had every hope that he would play," said Kerbel.
