

Longhorns Still Nation's No. 1, Razorbacks Hold Top 10 Spot

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Texas and Alabama continued to run neck-and-neck in the Associated Press' college football poll with Coach Darrell Royal's Longhorns holding the lead for the second straight week.

Texas, half way home to a perfect season after edging Arkansas 7-3, has Rice as its next opponent Saturday night.

Alabama, also 5-0 for the year after a 27-7 romp over Tennessee, takes on Tulsa 3-2, which had lost to Arkansas and Oklahoma State.

Northwestern surged into third place on the strength of its 18-14 decision over Ohio State. Next on the list for the Wildcats is Notre Dame.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA polished off California 32-6 for its fourth straight and moves against a weak Illinois club which has lost all four starts to Washington, Northwestern, Ohio State and Minnesota.

Wisconsin, No. 5, faces a rugged challenge in an Ohio State team still smarting under the defeat by Northwestern, on top of a loss to UCLA. For the first time in years Ohio State is unrated.

LSU, winner of four but tied once by Rice, might be looking ahead to its Nov. 3 date with Mississippi but it can't afford to treat Florida 3-2 lightly. Mississippi, on the other hand, appears to have no problems in Vanderbilt, a team that has lost all five starts.

Washington 4-0-1 could be in for a rugged afternoon against Oregon 4-1, a team that lost only to Texas 25-13 in its opener.

Arkansas is expected to bounce back from its first defeat by manhandling Hardin - Simmons, which lost five in a row this year before it squeaked past Trinity 14-6 to end a 27-game losing streak.

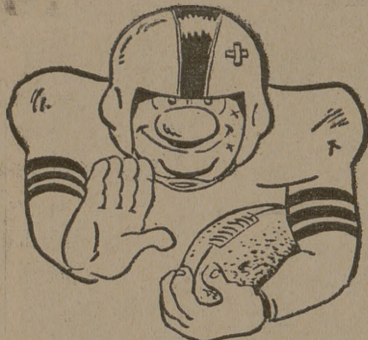

Michigan State, back among the leaders on the strength of its 31-7 rout of Notre Dame, is scheduled at Indiana, which has lost three in a row after beating Kansas State and Cincinnati.

After-Game Party Planned In Waco

An after-the-game party will be given Saturday night by the Waco Aggie Wives Club, Waco Aggie-exes and the Waco-McLennan County hometown club, from 11 p.m.-2 a.m. at the Karem-Temple Ballroom, at 208 N. 7th St., in downtown Waco.

The Avantis, a dance band from here, will furnish the music. Tickets are $1.75 per couple if bought here, and $2 if purchased at the door. Students may buy tickets from John Prickette, Dorm 1, Room 328, or Ken Baker, Dorm 6, Room 303, or any member of the Waco hometown club.

The party is open to all students who wish to attend.

Head Blocking Causes Injury?

NEW YORK (AP) — Blocking with the head in college football may be ruled illegal because of the increasing number of head and neck injuries, Herbert O. Fritz Crisler, chairman of the National Football Rules Committee, predicted Monday.

"One of two things will happen," said Crisler, athletic director at the University of Michigan. "My guess is we will get a different piece of headgear or that the rules committee will pass legislation that blocking with the head will be illegal."

Crisler, speaking on the problem of high school football injuries in general and football head injuries in particular, said the injury problem will be widely discussed at the annual rules committee meeting set for Jan. 12-14 in Los Angeles.

"There is really nothing wrong with the manufacturing of any helmets," said Crisler, "but many coaches have their players using their heads in a spearing and goring manner. We ought to get something in the rules about blocking with the head."

Fish Stats Are Example Of 'Everyone Plays' Policy

Freshman statistics through two games show that Coach Hank Foldberg's policy of giving every boy a chance is being carried through by Fish Coach Dick Johnson.

Eighteen players have carried the ball and Johnson has used six quarterbacks in the two frosh games.

The Fish lost their opener 28-13 to the TCU Wogs and dropped a close 10-7 decision to the Baylor Cubs last week.

The University of Houston Kitens are the next foe for the freshman squad. The two teams meet on Kyle Field Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

The leading rusher for the Fish is halfback Jim Stabler, who has run for 54 yards in seven carries for a 7.7 yard per carry average.

SECOND IS halfback Ray Brown with 40 yards in 9 carries. Bob Doshier paces A&M in passing, having completed nine of 20 tosses for 141 yards against TCU.

Doshier injured an ankle and did not play against Baylor.

Ira Hillyer handled most of the quarterbacking against Baylor. Hillyer completed four of 12 passes for 41 yards.

End Harold Fletcher has caught five passes in two games to lead the Fish receivers. The five catches were good for 106 yards and one touchdown.

Brown holds the runner-up slot with two receptions for 21 yards and one touchdown. Doshier has thrown both of the scoring passes.

Hillyer and Doshier lead the punters, each having kicked seven times. Hillyer has averaged 31.4 yards per kick and Doshier 25.9 yards.

TED SPARLING, brother of varsity quarterback John, leads the Fish in punt returns with two for 23 yards and an 11.5 yard average.

Bob Cissell and Jerry Kachtik have each returned one kickoff for 18 yards to top the frosh in that department. Ed Breeding has one return for 17 yards and Hillyer has one return for 16 yards.

Three players are tied for the scoring lead. Brown and Fletcher caught TD passes against TCU and Glynn Lindsey scored once against Baylor. Bob Lee has booted two extra points.

Ellsworth Vines, National singles tennis champion in 1931 and 1932, is head golf pro at the Inwood, N. Y., Country Club.

Ag Marksmen Go To Waco For 5th Match

The Rifle Team, victorious in its first four matches, travels to Waco Saturday to meet Baylor.

The Aggies are defending champions in the Southwest Rifle Association, which parallels but is not officially related to the Southwest Conference.

The Aggies thus far this season have defeated rifle teams from Texas Tech and Texas Christian in association competition. Other victories have been recorded over the University of Houston and Sam Houston State.

Last Saturday the Cadets defeated TCU, scoring 1,430 points out of a possible 1,500. TCU totaled 1,320 points.

The individual high scorer again was M. B. Hodges of Arlington, Va. He fired 291 points out of a possible 300.
