

Civil Defense Agencies Move Into Action

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Across the nation Civil Defense agencies and officials sprang into action Wednesday to meet with all available resources any emergency arising from the Cuban situation.

There was no panic, but there was fast action to review procedures and measures already taken, designate new shelters, and stock them with necessities for survival.

In Tampa, Fla., residents stocked upon guns, ammunition, canned goods and battery-operated transistor radios. They snapped up Civil Defense booklets and swamped city officials with calls on emergency procedures. School officials, meanwhile, held meetings to brief principals on how to protect youngsters in any emergency.

Numerous meetings at all levels were called to study the current state of preparations and make plans for the future. The emphasis was on moving quickly to augment present arrangements to the fullest degree possible.

In some areas civil defense headquarters were deluged with calls from citizens seeking the location of public shelters and other information on what to do in the event of enemy attack.

In other cases, builders of home shelters—whose business has been generally at a low ebb in recent months—suddenly found their telephones jangling with requests for fast construction.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, chairman of the Civil Defense Committee of the Governors' Conference, called an emergency meeting for Saturday morning at the Pentagon in Washington. The conference is an organization of governors.

Many Civil Defense offices were being kept open extra hours to answer inquiries.

Eagle Attacks Dog

A golden eagle which appeared unexplainedly in a neighborhood on Chicago's south side attacks a small dog, leaping over it as the dog's owner swings a broom at the bird. Fred Goodman, the owner, said the eagle was actually lifting the dog off the ground when he came to the rescue. The bird was later hit with tranquilizer pellets. The dog was not seriously hurt. (AP Wirephoto)

School Enrollment Data Is Released

Graduate students compose 12 per cent of the enrollment for the fall semester.

This and other information related to fall enrollment, which at 8,142 is the highest since World War I veterans returned to the campus, is contained in the official summary released today by Registrar H. L. Heaton.

The graduate school lists 937 students of the total enrollment this semester.

The freshmen class is the largest of the four undergraduate classes. Its 2,628 members account for 32.3 per cent of the enrollment. There are 1,334 sophomores (16.4 per cent), 1,489 juniors (18.3), and 1,492 seniors (18.3). Fifth and sixth-year students in certain fields of study account for the balance of the student body.

The School of Arts and Sciences and the School of Engineering each have 37.3 per cent of the total enrollment. The figures as released by Heaton show 3,037 students in the arts and sciences and 3,044 students in engineering.

The summary also shows 1,401 students whose major field of study is agriculture and 637 students whose field of study is in the School of Veterinary Medicine. The Texas Maritime Academy which opened in September has 23 students.

Mothers' Club To Sponsor Austin Thanksgiving Dance

The Austin A&M Mothers' Club is sponsoring an Aggie Thanksgiving Dance in Austin's Municipal Auditorium Nov. 21 from 8:30 p.m.-12:30 a.m., announced club president Mrs. B. H. Balfour.

"It is our plan to have girls in the lobby for Aggies who do not have dates," she said.

Music for the dance will be furnished by the Jet Combo, a group in the Austin area. Tickets will be $ per couple or stag, and will be available at the door or on campus in the Memorial Student Center at a later date.

Tables will be arranged and reserved in the auditorium according to outfits or as requested by students, Mrs. Balfour said.

"The success of our party two years ago enabled the Mothers' Club to secure the Municipal Auditorium for this party and it is our hope to do this each year the Thanksgiving game is played in Austin," she said.
