

High School Hall Of Fame Planned For Breckenridge

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

A High School Hall of Fame in which football heroes of a half century will get honors they would receive no other way is in the offing.

Efforts have been made for some time to obtain recognition for the boys who built the Texas Inter-scholastic League into a nationally famous organization. The Texas Sports Writers Association would not sponsor a high school hall of fame on grounds it would detract from the already established Texas Sports Hall of Fame.

The Texas High School Coaches Association talked about a high school hall of fame but finally eliminated the players from it and went only with the coaches under the title Hall of Honor.

THE GREATS of schoolboy football had to get their honors by what they did in college and there were many boys who starred in high school who failed to make it in college for one reason or another. In the case of Boody Johnson, who always will be considered the finest player in Texas schoolboy history, an injury prevented a continuance of his stardom in college.

Putt Powell, sports editor of the Amarillo News Globe who has been associated with high school football for more than 30 years, advanced an idea that could bloom into a Texas High School Hall of Fame that would take in fellows who were great enough as school-boys to gain the honors a hall of fame implies.

The Breckenridge Chamber of Commerce responded in a hurry. It wants to back a High School Hall of Fame in the West Texas city that long has been associated with winning football. Breckenridge is a corner stone of schoolboy football. It has produced four state champions and two ties for championships over the years. As far back as 1929, Breckenridge had a state champion.

THE IDEA is to establish a hall of fame in Breckenridge, with a building suitable for storage of trophies and mementoes of the greats of Texas schoolboy football, and with a big annual banquet at which there would be several honorees installed. Deceased as well as live athletes would be taken in.

There have been some 250,000 boys play football in Texas in the 42 years of the Interscholastic League. But before 1920—the year the league started—were many who should be honored, too. Bo McMillin, Rip Collins, Ben Lee Boynton, Matty Bell—those are only a few. But this gives an idea of what the Texas High School Hall of Fame might do.

Johnson, of course, should be the first man honored.

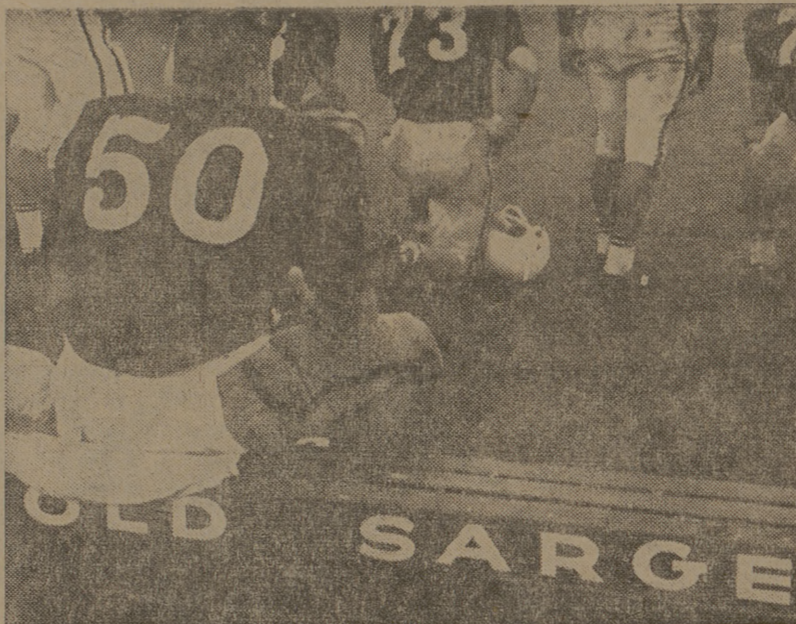

Leo Balwin, the four-sport star of Wichita Falls; Jack Sisco, the finest center Texas schoolboy football ever had; Blue Smith, Cleburne's mighty runner of the first state championship game; Chris Cortemeglia, star of Bryan's 1921 championship team, and Buster Mills, Ranger's fabulous kicker, would make a fine opening of the Hall of Fame.

Many of those fellows did not star in college. Some didn't even go. But they should be rewarded for what they did on the schoolboy gridirons of Texas.

Three-unit System Shows Merit As It Nearly Produces Upset

Coach Hank Foldberg's new three-unit system, which had for four games looked like it might never live up to the aspirations of the coaching staff, finally started clicking Saturday and nearly gave the Ags an upset win over TCU.

Foldberg alternated his first, or Old Sarge team, with the Gig 'em unit at appropriate times, pitting fresh gridders against tired Frogs to wear them down. His strategy produced four drives that penetrated TCU's 20-yard line, although only one of them produced a score.

With the Frogs leading 20-14 late in the fourth period, Foldberg sent in his Lightning unit, which had been saved the entire game just to face wornout TCU. It took a great defensive save on a pass try to stop the last-minute drive by the fresh unit.

After the game, Foldberg he thought his squad "has a stride."
